BOY HERO OF FIRE.

Twelve-Year-Old Is Life Saver.

Lad Caught Ten Little Girls as They Jumped from Window.

Three Orphans Burned to Death in Fire at Battle Creek.

Fanatical Adventists Who Oppose Dr. Kellogg Suspected.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BATTLE CREEK (Mich.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A twelve-year-old hero saved ten little girls from burning to death in a fire which destroyed Haskell Memorial Home for Children early this morning. He caught them as they leaped from the second story window, he himself standing on the roof of the annex encouraging them to jump.

It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin, set by religious fanatics, who are enemies of Dr. J. H. Kellogg, in the adventists' controversy.

Three orphans were burned to death, Lena M. McClavy, fourteen years, Battle Creek; Cecil Contant, 12 years, Iowa; George Goodaney, ten years, Chattanooga, Tenn., a colored boy.

In regard to his suspicions, Dr. Kellogg said:

"We are positive that the fire was not due to carelessness on the part of any occupant of the building. We are also positive that the fire did not start from stoves or from the electric wiring, for the telephone is the only wiring we have."

James Armstrong, as the little hero who saved so many lives. His sister Mary was one of those he caught as they jumped from the window.

She was first to awake and make her way to the window. Below she saw the light of the flames, her young brother, wildly calling for the girls to jump into his arms. The boy was on a small shed. His sister lifted little Pearl Armstrong, a younger sister, and Bernice Edwards, each about 5 years old, and carefully dropped them into the boy's arms.

When older children began jumping, James could not catch them, but he checked the force of their falls and prevented many broken bones. His sister above maintained order and finally, half overcome by smoke herself, made a wild plunge. This fall caused her serious injuries about her face and body.

Only one of the girls on the window sill would not obey the boy's command to jump.

"I'm afraid," she shrieked.

In a few seconds she disappeared from the window into the seething furnace beneath her.

DOLLAR FOR EVERY BABY.

Iowa Legislator Introduces Bill Providing for Bounty Paid to Mothers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Pulliam today introduced a bill in the House providing for babies. The bill is unique in the history of legislation, and provides for paying a $1 premium on all babies born in Iowa after the passage of the act.

The specifications of the bill requires that within three months after birth of the child the mother must make a sworn affidavit, accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician, or two other persons, relative to the date of the birth. On the filing of such a certificate the County Auditor shall issue an order on the County Treasurer for the amount.

Representative Pulliam is a Democrat. He is a doctor, 50 years of age, and was born in Iowa, and is a believer in the Roosevelt ian theory. He protests that the bill is not intended for freak legislation, and that he is entirely sincere in offering it.

He says the Legislature has a number of bills before it offering bounties, and he thinks it is time that some such law as he proposes be enacted.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PAU (France) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] King Alfonso will shortly arrive in Pau with the object of using his new aeroplane in taking lessons in flying from Wilbur Wright. Although this is denied officially, as well as by several of the King's intimates who are now here, The Times correspondent has seen the letters which have passed between the railway authorities of France and Spain regarding Alfonso's trip hither. The station master here admits that he expects the monarch soon.

The city continues to fill up with a brilliant and fashionable crowd from all over Europe. Among the visitors expected here shortly are J. Pierpont Morgan, C. M. Schwab, W. K. Vanderbilt and many other prominent Americans, who are now sailing on their yearly winter trips. Hundreds of minor royal and noble families have already arrived, instead of going, as usual, to the Riviera. All this to the great disgust of the Riviera tradesmen and hotelkeepers, who held a meeting at Nice under the name of the "Committee of Local Interests," to discuss how they might successfully oppose the general exodus in the direction of Pau.

In the meantime the Wrights continue to wear calm and serious faces and ignore the growing multitude.

The local papers declare that Miss Katherine Wright has received several offers of marriage from noblemen here.

MAGISTRATE'S SYMPATHY WITH ASSAILANTS.

Reporters Who Beat Impresario Are Held in $300 Bail, but Court Privately Condones Action as Justifiable—Latter Excuse for Breaking Author's Skull, He Says.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Magistrate Finn, sitting in the Essex Market Police Court, today held for trial in special sessions Fred W. Hall and James W. Doyle, the two Press reporters, who were accused of assaulting Oscar Hammerstein in front of the Hotel Knickerbocker.

When the case was called, Magistrate Finn said:

"Gentlemen, the court has given you a lengthy hearing, and has endeavored to be impartial in this case. Many questions have been introduced into the case that would not have been introduced but for the learned counsel.

Then Magistrate Finn referred to the letter that Oscar had written to Mr. Hennessey, managing editor of the Press, in which he spoke of the defendants, Hall and Royle, as "seedy, drunken reporters," and declared that he was tired of "buying disinfectants to use after they had visited the Manhattan Operahouse."

"No man with an idea of decency," said the magistrate, "or who knew himself not to have merited such an epistle—and there is no evidence here that it was merited—would fail to resent it. I believe that if a man had a drop of decency or manhood in him it was his duty as a man to resent a letter of this kind.

"Two wrongs do not make a right. I believe this letter was the foundation of all this trouble. You men (addressing Hall and Doyle) went there to get an apology, but the action of Mr. Hammerstein might have brought on an assault. Both of you admit that you hit him. You had no right to do that."

Then, very sarcastically: "It must have been an awful shock to Mr. Hammerstein."

After announcing that bail would be $300 for each defendant, Magistrate Finn continued:

"That was my judicial opinion. Personally, I think that any man who gets such a letter has a perfect right to break the skull of the man who wrote it."

Bail was furnished for both defendants.

TORCHES SNUFFED.

SOUTHERNERS CURB ASSEMBLY JINGOES.

Stanton Leaps Into Breach and Checks Impending Stampede.

Speaker, Backed by Powerful Delegation from South of the Tehachepi, Delays Action on the Anti-Japanese Measures Until Wednesday—Fire-eating Opposition Is Overwhelmed by Minority.

BY B. FRANK GREAVES.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Speaker Stanton leaped into the breach again today, and in the face of an overwhelming majority of jingoes caused the Assembly to postpone action on anti-Japanese measures.

His energetic move in leaving the Speaker's chair and taking the floor in support of the position of the President and Gov. Gillett checked an impending stampede of the fire-eaters, who, led by Grove L. Johnson, the greatest jingo of them all, snuffed their torches and agreed that the whole matter should go over until next Wednesday. By that time it is believed steps will have been taken to prevent the passage of any anti-Japanese legislation.

Stanton did not leave the Speaker's chair until it was apparent that the case was hopeless. When he got busy he was like an experienced cowboy among a herd of frightened steers. He simply rounded up the whole bunch and they went with docility into the corral.

The crisis arose through the motion of Assemblyman Leeds of Los Angeles for a reconsideration of the vote by which the Assembly, yesterday, passed Grove Johnson's bill which provides for the establishment of separate schools for Japanese pupils, a bill which President Roosevelt has termed the most offensive of all similar measures introduced in the California Legislature. Before Leeds had made his motion, a message had been received from Gov. Gillett, counseling the Assembly to move with extreme caution with respect to anti-Japanese measures. Many members with chips on their shoulders cried "Big stick!" and the Democrats and union-labor sympathizers cried out that it was time to cut away from all forms of executive interference or advice.

BLAMES SOUTHERNERS.

Old Grove Johnson opposed the Leeds motion, saying it was a clever ruse of the Southern California delegation to gain time to win votes against the bill, for it is well understood that the southern members constitute the balance wheel of the Assembly. As an alternative, however, Johnson asked that the matter be referred to the Judiciary Committee, of which he is chairman.

He was followed by Gibbons, a young Democrat of San Luis Obispo, who made an ironical address in which he praised the Los Angeles members especially for their consistency, in view of the fact that Health Officer Powers of Los Angeles had recommended that the city break up the Japanese practice of bathing, a dozen at a time, in one bathtub without changing the water.

Several others opposed the Leeds motion, which was supported strongly by Melrose of Anaheim, Drew of Fresno and Transue of Los Angeles.

Then Stanton called Speaker Pro Tem Perine to the chair and went on the floor.

"It was not my intention, said Stanton, "to take the floor unless we were confronted by some grave crisis. Such a crisis, in my opinion is upon us. I not only believe it, but I know it, though my lips are sealed. I would that I could tell you what I know, but my lips are sealed. But I can tell you that we are treading on dangerous ground. I can feel it slipping from under by feet.

STANTON WINS JOHNSON.

"This matter, in my judgment, should be postponed. Within a few days I believe that further information will be given you."

This speech caused Grove Johnson to give in, as he has done on almost everything he has championed at this session. The "humble old country lawyer," as he dubs himself, said he was willing that the matter go over until Wednesday, "out of respect for our Speaker, but for no one else on earth."

With this surrender, the Assembly agreed unanimously to the Leeds motion for reconsideration, the time for such action being set for next Wednesday.

Today's row emphasized the strength of the Southern California delegation on the floor of the Assembly. Without the united stand of the men from south of the Tehachepi, the motion for reconsideration of the vote on the school bill would have been lost overwhelmingly and the vote of yesterday, by which it was passed by a large majority, would have stood.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE APPEALS FOR DELAY IN ACTION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Gov. Gillett sent to the Assembly this morning a message appealing to that body to rescind its action of yesterday, by which the Japanese School Segregation Bill was passed.

The Governor calls attention to the contention of Japan, which is not refuted by the United States government, that the bill violates the treaty rights of the empire. He does not enter into a discussion of the merits of this position, stating that it is a debatable question, but reiterates that Japan would consider it an unfriendly act to exclude from the public schools the children of subjects.

TEXT OF MESSAGE.

The message in full is as follows:

"To the Senate and Assembly:

"Gentlemen: Believing that there should be a further and more careful consideration of Assembly Bill No. 14, which provides that boards of school trustees shall have the power to establish separate schools for children of Japanese, and that thereafter they shall not be admitted into any other public schools, and further believing that the enactment provision of said bill will, at this time, affect the interests of the entire nation, and perhaps seriously, I most respectfully request you to reconsider the vote by which said bill was passed, and take the matter up for further and most careful consideration.

"Within a few hours after the passage of said bill, the President of the United States, alarmed at the possible consequences of the enactment of such a law, sent to me a telegram containing the following language:

"'This is the most offensive bill of all, and in my judgment is clearly unconstitutional, and we should at once have to test it in the courts. Can it not be stopped in the Legislature or by veto?'

TAKE BROAD VIEW.

"A telegram so forcible as this, coming from the President of the United States, is entitled to full consideration, and demands that no hasty or ill-considered action be taken by this State which may involve the whole country.

"It seems to me that it is time to lay sentiment and personal opinion and considerations aside and take a broad and unprejudiced view of the important question involved in the proposed legislation, and in a calm and dispassionate manner pass upon them, keeping in mind not only the interests of our State, but of the nation as well and the duty we owe to it in observing the treaties entered into by it with a friendly power.

"Two years ago this question now under consideration engaged the attention of our government and Japan, because of a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of San Francisco directing that all Chinese, Japanese and Korean children be sent to the Oriental public schools. Japan at once called the attention of our government to this resolution, which it claimed discriminated against its subjects, and in violation of its treaty. It contended that the admission of alien children of other foreign countries into the

KANSAS TOWN MOVES TO ESCAPE DEBTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HUTCHINSON (Kan.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In order to escape the payment of $35,000 bonds and $1000 interest, the town of Ulysses, the county seat of Grant county, Kansas, is being moved off the townsite. By the end of this week nothing but a frame courthouse and a school building will be left to mark the spot where, twenty years ago, was a town of 1200 population, so prosperous that it voted bonds to the extent of $35,000 to build waterworks and other improvements. The indebtedness of the town now is greater than the assessed valuation of the entire property.

The $35,000 in bonds are held by an eastern national bank. Last October, the bank began legal proceedings in the District Court for the collection of the bonds. The case was postponed until the March term of the court, and when the May term convenes, the judge will look out of the courthouse window across the sandy plains and view the defendant town of Ulysses. The house and stores will be a mile and a half outside of the city limits, and the city will have no inhabitants except prairie dogs and coyotes.

No railroads run through Grant county, and the nearest telegraph station is twenty-four miles from Ulysses. It was an easy matter to keep secret the moving of the town. Secrecy was preserved so that no injunction could be served on the residents of the town.

Hurries to British Foreign Office Bearing Document for King Edward and Will Go from There to Berlin—May Signify Diplomatic Changes to Be Made Later.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some mystery of great interest may reasonably be attached to the flying visit made by Elmer Dover, secretary of the Republican National Committee and the trusted friend of President Roosevelt and Taft. He hurried to the Foreign Office on the arrival of the boat and express bearing, it is understood, an important document intended for King Edward.

Mr. Dover remained in London exactly twelve hours, during which time he was escorted to the Carlton by officials of the Foreign Office where he was entertained by the officials of the government. He did not register. In the afternoon he was visited by still other diplomatic officials. From here he hurried to Berlin, where it is said that he will leave a document for the Kaiser at the German Foreign Office.

Before leaving London Mr. Dover said to a close personal friend, who happened to meet him in the Carlton lobby, that he was sailing for home from Bremen, if possible before the end of the week; but he absolutely refused to discuss the nature of his mission. The fact that he was entertained at Government expense, however, seems to fortify the theory that he is President Roosevelt's emissary and it is suggested that the mission is in connection with contemplated changes in the American diplomatic service.

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There will be no more licenses for saloons along the line of the Los Angeles aqueduct. That was the action taken by the Supervisors this morning, when the application of Clark & Islinger for the privilege came up for hearing.

Supervisor Woody was temporarily in the chair when the matter came to a head, and Mr. Houser promptly made a motion that no licenses be issued for saloons along the aqueduct. Mr. Jastro seconded the motion, and it was carried by the votes of Houser, Jastro and Woody. Messrs. Bush and Brite voted on the other side, but Mr. Bush explained that he was not opposed to the principle involved. He thought all should be treated alike, however.

The application of Lagomarsino & Shaw for a similar privilege was also denied. John T. Martin was present representing the city of Los Angeles and George E. Whitaker represented Clark & Islinger.

Moore conducted one of the three dance halls in the city. Public interest is aroused over the effort to clean up the town, and the Knights of the Royal Arch, a local saloon-keepers' organization, have taken a hand in helping to rid the town of its disorderly saloons. There are now forty-four saloons in Bakersfield.

CENSUS BILL VETO.

President Objects to Spoils System.

Returns Bill Without Approval Because of "Vicious Provisions.

Opposes "Personal Perquisites of the Professional Politicians."

Insists on Competitive Examinations—House Laughs at Slam.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—"The evil effects of the spoils system and of the custom of treating appropriations to the public service as personal perquisites of professional politicians, are peculiarly evident in the case of a great public work like the taking of the census, a work which should emphatically be done for the whole people, and with an eye single to their interest."

In these words, President Roosevelt today summed up a message to the House, returning without his approval, a measure providing for the taking of the next census, because of a provision that appointments shall be made on the basis of non-competitive examinations.

As passed by Congress the bill permits Representatives and Senators to designate persons for positions after they had undergone a single examination.

The reference of the President to a division of the spoils, "without a fight by the professional politicians," on both sides provoked general laughter.

ACTS RELUCTANTLY.

After providing for a reprint of the census bill, as it passed the House, the House adjourned, thus postponing action on the message.

The President says he vetoes the bill with extreme reluctance, realizing the value of time in beginning the census, but declares it is of high consequence that it shall be conducted with extreme accuracy, that it shall not be open to suspicion of bias on personal and political grounds, nor to bring a waste of the people's money and a fraud.

"Section 7 of the act," he says, "provides in effect that appointments to the census shall be under the spoils system, for this is the real meaning of the provision that they shall be subject only to non-competitive examinations. The proviso is added that they shall be selected without regard to political party affiliations. But there is only one way to guarantee that they shall be selected without regard to politics and on merit, and that is by choosing them after competitive examination from the list of eligibles provided by the Civil Service Commission.

POLITICIANS' PERQUISITES.

Continuing, the message says:

"To provide that the clerks and other employés shall be appointed after non-competitive examination, and yet to provide that they shall be selected without regard to political party affiliation, means merely that the appointments shall be treated as the perquisites of the politicians of both parties instead of as the perquisites of the politicians of one party.

"I don't believe in the doctrine that to the victor belongs the spoils, but I think even less of the doctrine that the spoils shall be divided without a fight by the professional politicians on both sides; and this would be the result of permitting the bill in its present shape to become a law.

"Both of the last censuses, the eleventh and the twelfth, were taken under a provision of law excluding com-

Officers and men to reinforce the British Somaliland forces have been passing through here steadily for several weeks. Several companies of the army service corps, on their way home from South Africa, are to be stopped on their arrival here and sent to the front.

The British force in Somaliland, which numbered 600 a short time ago, already has been increased to 1600.

KANSAS TO FIX TRUST'S PRICES.

Harvester Company Submits to Public Control.

Will Pay in Addition a Fine of Sixty Thousand.

Gives Up Fight Against State Anti-Trust Laws.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the decree to be entered by the Kansas Supreme Court against the International Harvester Company, Kansas will be a partner in the Harvester Company's business in Kansas.

The company has agreed with the Attorney-General and the Supreme Court that, in addition to the fine of $60,000 and the limited ouster to be issued against it, the company will submit to the public control of its business in Kansas and the regulation of its prices by the Supreme Court or a public utilities commission.

The company, in giving up its fight against the anti-trust laws of the State, submits to even more than as originally intended in the suit. The company is prohibited from making exclusive contracts with its agents; it is prohibited from discriminating against certain agents or purchasers of machines; it must pay the fine of $60,000 and, if the court or utilities commission finds in the future that the company is charging too much for its machines or is arranging restrictions on the sale of different kinds of machines, then the court or the commission may make such orders as are necessary to bring about more equitable prices or conditions for handling the company's business in Kansas.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A $500 contribution, made by Clayton Marks, today completed the $200,000 fund for the Harper Memorial Library, for which John D. Several days ago a gift of $2000 by Mrs. Emmons Blaine almost made the fund large enough to assure Mr. Rockefeller's $600,000. The formal announcement of the completion of the fund is to be made tomorrow by the university officials.

The new $800,000 library, which is to be built in memory of the late president, William Rainey Harper, is to be built on the southern part of the main campus, facing on the Midway.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Louis Ehrhardt, a machinist in the Union Pacific shops here and brother of Miss Gussie Ehrhardt of Los Angeles, where he formerly lived, was instantly killed here late last night by a shock from an electric-light wire, which he unsuspectingly picked up. He was thrown violently to the ground the instant he took hold of the wire, and was dead when help reached him a moment later. The young man's parents reside in Germany. Besides the one in Los Angeles, he has a sister, Mrs. G. Handlemann, in Davenport, Iowa. The sisters have been notified of his death and will attend the funeral.

HARRIMAN ILL SAYS RUMOR.

Reports That Magnate Is Suffering from Nervous Disorder Persist in East.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, is far from being a well man, according to reports persistently circulated today in financial circles here and in the East. For several weeks, it is said, Mr. Harriman has been an unwilling patient in the hands of his physicians and his intended trip to California is said to be for the purpose of restoring his health.

"It is no longer a secret that Mr. Harriman is a sick man," said a well-known La Salle-street broker. "A few weeks ago when I was in New York, I was told by persons in a position to know that he is suffering from a serious nervous disorder of the spine."

PETTICOAT POLICE.

New Jersey City Plans to Add Five Women to the Regular Force.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BAYONNE (N. J.) Feb. 5.—At the next meeting of the Common Council, Mrs. Julia Goldzer will seek to have the city appoint and pay at least five women to do police duty in the parks the coming summer. Mayor Garvin has sanctioned the project and it is predicted women police will become a reality.

It is suggested the feminine police wear blue blouses, blue caps with gold braid, blue skirts and black leather leggings.

As further adornment there will be a row of brass buttons down the front of the blue blouse.

QUAKE WELL BURNING.

Blaze in Kentucky Ceased Before Italian Disaster, but Is Now Brighter.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

GREENSBURG (Ky.) Feb. 5. [Exclusive Dispatch.] The famous burning well on Green River, four miles from Greensburg, which has puzzled scientists one hundred years, the blaze of which ceased just before the recent Italian earthquake, has again resumed its flow, the flames now reaching higher than at any time within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. Farmers work at night by its light.

The well first came into existence immediately following the earthquake of 1811, which played havoc with certain sections of Missouri, Tennessee and Kentucky, when the bottom apparently dropped out of a large area of land in Tennessee and formed Reelfoot Lake.

WANTS TO KNOW.

CZAR WILL PROBE ASSASSINATIONS.

GOVERNMENT AGENTS' ACTIVITY TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Nicholas Furious Over Revelations Caused by Duma's Interpellations and He Orders Cabinet to Answer Questions—May Appoint Special Tribunal to Prevent Whitewash.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Czar Nicholas is one of the most insistent men in all Russia that the Duma's interpellations concerning the alleged participation of government agents in numerous assassinations of late years be given a thorough investigation.

It was announced that the Duma would be ready to take up the question February 15, instead of February 12, as first announced.

Close advisers of the Czar are understood to have counseled a suppression of the inquiry, but they found Nicholas furious over the revelations that have been made, especially the discovery that he was to have been the victim of one of the frustrated plots.

The Czar has ordered the Cabinet to meet the Duma's inquiries, and it is reported he intends to appoint a special tribunal to investigate the charges to guard against the possibility of a whitewash.

Today several ministers were summoned before the Czar. This is believed to be preliminary to a partial reconstruction of the Cabinet.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION FATAL.

Foreman and Laborer Killed Throwing Out Explosive at a Quarry.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MISSOULA (Mont.) Feb. 5.—General Foreman James Donaldson was killed and a laborer named W. M. Eissner fatally injured by an explosion of dynamite at the lower Yellowstone irrigation works this morning. The accident occurred at the rock quarry about a mile from the camp, where the government employés are constructing the big diverting dam of the project. A fire had been started to thaw out fifteen sticks of dynamite when one of the men called Donaldson's attention to the fact that some dynamite was burning. The latter ran to the spot to save as much of the stuff as possible, and was bending over it when an explosion occurred. Eissner was running to help Donaldson and was only a few feet away.

PEARSONS GET CONCESSION.

Mexico Gives Standard Oil's Rival Sole Right to Drill in Streams and Lakes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TAMPICO (Mex.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Mexican government has granted S. Pearson & Son, Ltd., who are waging a war of competition against the Standard Oil Company in this country, a blanket concession, giving them the exclusive right to drill oil wells in all navigable streams and lakes of Mexico.

Lake Tamiahua, which is very near the flowing oil wells at Dosbocas, will be thoroughly exploited by the Pearsons under the concession. The crater of the great old volcano at Dosbocas, which is owned by this company, is now nearly 4000 feet across and extends to within a few feet of the water of Lake Tamiahua.

NOT A FINAL VERDICT.

GOV. HASKELL GIVEN OVATION AT MUSKOGEE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MUSKOGEE (Okla.) Feb. 5.—Gov. Charles N. Haskell was given an ovation here today when he arrived from the State Capitol at Guthrie to make his appearance in the Federal court and sign a bond under the indictment returned by the grand jury, charging him, with other prominent Oklahomans, with conspiracy to defraud the government and the Creek Indians in the matter of scheduling "dummies," in the Muskogee town-lot distribution.

More than a thousand persons were at the station with a brass band, and the appearance of the Governor was the signal for long and loud cheering.

Gov. Haskell and his wife were conducted to a flag-decorated automobile and other cars were filled with prominent local citizens.

With the band leading the way playing "Hail to the Chief," and hundreds of citizens bringing up the rear on foot, the Governor was escorted to a specially-reserved suite of rooms at the Turner Hotel.

When the hotel was reached the crowd clamored for a speech. The Governor responded from his automobile.

In his speech, Gov. Haskell took a new departure in offering an explanation of his indictment. He declared he had incurred the enmity of the corporations, of President Roosevelt and of the government at Washington by championing the cause of labor and by preventing the inserting of a clause in the Oklahoma Constitution, hostile to labor in case of strikes, in the matter of injunction.

He thanked his old friends and neighbors for the expression of confidence in his innocence of the crime charged and declared he would establish his innocence.

Judge Campbell of the Federal court has set Saturday, February 13, as the day for the men indicted in the town-lot fraud cases to appear and plead to the indictments.

MYSTERY IN BROWNE PLOT.

Woman Who Threatened Minority Leader Gone.

Legislator Whom She Sought Signs Her Bond.

Confession Doubted and May Be Investigated.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Actual facts in the sensational attack yesterday upon Lee O'Neil Browne, minority leader of the Legislature, by "Florence Miller," and her "confession" that the plot was hatched by Chicago politicians, were as difficult to get at tonight as the woman herself, who has dropped completely out of sight. Her bond was signed by Browne at three o'clock this morning and she has disappeared.

The Legislature now threatens to investigate the entire affair as there are many points not clear and the dignity of the body has been severely ruffled by the untoward incident. Chicago Democratic politicians say ugly suspicions have been cast upon them by the "confession" and they demand an investigation. Among other things they want to know why Browne should furnish her bond if she were trying to ruin him, why his stenographer was with her when she was arrested; why, if it was a plot, the woman tried to avoid publicity, why she disguised her identity and refused to disclose her relations with Browne. They also would like to know, if it was a plot, why the woman tried to kill herself in Ottawa before coming here.

Michael Giblin, stenographer for the Democratic minority, admits he made a mistake by being caught in the rooming house with the women, inasmuch as he is married and has a family. It is thought the woman was smuggled aboard a train and is now hiding in Chicago.

BREAK UP SESSION.

ROUGH HOUSE IN PARLIAMENT.

GERMANS AND CZECHS BATTLE ON FLOOR OF ASSEMBLY.

Radical Caught by Foes and Is Whipped Until He Howls for Mercy. Combatants Bite and Gouge One Another Until They Are Too Tired to Fight More.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

VIENNA, Feb. 5.—The present session of the Austrian Parliament came to an end this morning after a scene of turbulence, extraordinary even for an assembly where violent outbreaks are comparatively common.

The trouble, which arose from the old racial feeling between the Germans and the Czechs, broke out during the debate on a government bill, the object of which was to reconsider these difficulties. The radical Czech obstructionists, who have been hindering the debate on this measure for several days past, with continuous din from drums and tin whistles, so exasperated the Germans this morning that the opposing deputies came to close quarters and a fierce scrimmage ensued.

One of the radical Czech deputies, a man named Speczek, who has been particularly violent, was captured and whipped until he howled for mercy. Another Czech was bitten by a German on the cheek and sustained an ugly wound, and black eyes and sore heads were numerous. The premier, Baron von Bienerth, seeing the uselessness of attempting to pass legislation, closed the session and sent the deputies home.

The departure of the ministers was followed by another fierce fight, in which the opposing factions rushed upon one another to the strains of revolutionary songs, and wild confusion reigned for half an hour. The deputies finally became exhausted and the battlefield was gradually deserted. The sudden closing of the session and the political import of the disorder have had an adverse effect upon the bourse.

NEGRO TROUBLE GROWS.

Three Arrests Made in Pittsburgh and Mob Violence Is Threatened.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 5.—The first serious trouble growing out of the police crusade against negroes who have terrorized the Herron Hill district, was narrowly averted last night when John Moulton, a negro, 39 years old, was arrested in the east-end district on a charge that he had annoyed a white girl, and had accosted her with, "Good evening, sweetheart; ain't you going to kiss me?"

While the negro was being taken to the Police Station, a brother of the girl attempted to get him away from the officers. The young man struck at the negro, and threatened to shoot him. A large crowd gathered, and for a time it was believed the negro would receive rough treatment, but the officers succeeded in protecting him.

After the negro had been locked in a cell, the crowd kept up a demonstration in the street.

In the meantime twenty-five additional officers were hurried to the district to prevent an outbreak against other negroes.

Moulton was given a hearing today, and sentenced to six months in the workhouse, the maximum sentence.

Today two negroes attempted to assault Miss Blanche Smith and Miss Rose Sesock, residing in a near-by suburb. The screams of the girls frightened the negroes, and they escaped. Several hours later two negroes were arrested on suspicion, and sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

In many sections of the city racial animosity is gradually becoming acute.

CHICAGO SALOONS SAFE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Chicago will be a "wet" town for another year at least. The movement by the "drys" to have the people vote at the April election on the question of excluding saloons from the city under the local option law has fallen down. They started out to obtain the necessary 100,000 petitioners to place the question on the ballot, but got less than 50,000. The failure of the movement has been reported to the No License Committee, which will make another effort next year. It has authorized the organization of a committee of 100, each member of which shall pledge himself to subscribe $20 and obtain 1000 signatures to the petition.

WOMAN GETS HALF MILLION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Mayme McKenna has received word that through the death of an aunt in Oswego, N. Y., she has fallen heir to an estate valued at $500,000. The aunt was Mrs. John W. Riche, who died last December. Mrs. McKenna also is one of several heirs to an estate which has pending a suit against the city of New York for possession of property valued at $200,000,000.

BLAMES MOVING PICTURES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Moving pictures are blamed for his downfall by Reinhold Kramp, who has been sentenced to three years in the government prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for counterfeiting. Kramp was arrested and indicted a few days ago, and confessed that he had passed several bogus dollars. "I was hard up," he explained to Judge Landis, "and could not get a job. One day I went into a moving picture show and saw pictures of counterfeiters. That gave me an idea, and I made a few bad coins. I thought that I could live on them until I got an honest position, but I was caught. If I had not seen those pictures I would not be here now."

BREAKFAST WILL BE CHEAPER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Cheaper breakfasts are possible through the removal of duties on tea and coffee, according to the report of the Tea and Coffee Association of Chicago.

WINDSTORM LOSSES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Windstorm loss claims continue to pour in upon the insurance companies as a result of the recent blizzard, and it is now apparent that the insurance losses will exceed those of any cyclone on record. Experts estimate the windstorm damage alone in Kansas and Nebraska will be $500,000 each, with $250,000 in Missouri and large amounts in four or five other States. This does not take into account the heavy fire losses which resulted from the storms, those in Oklahoma alone during the three days it raged being estimated at $600,000. One company writing farm losses has had over 300 windstorm losses this week.

MAN IN BOX MYSTERY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

TOLEDO (O.) Feb. 5.—Toledo police and railroad authorities are investigating a "man in the box" mystery, which they believe was an attempt to rob the express car on a Lake Shore train last Wednesday. In the car was a long box consigned from Toledo to Worcester, Mass., by the American Express Company. Near Sandusky the messenger heard a voice coming from the box, and upon opening it discovered a man, who jumped out and began a struggle. The messenger, however, covered the stranger with his revolver. The train was stopped and the man thrown out of the car. The police of Cleveland and Toledo are working on the case, but have no clew.

WEBER CASE AT LAST ENDED.

Suit of Aunt for Share of Murderer's Estate Is Compromised.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUBURN, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The famous and world-wide Weber litigation is at an end, and the suit of Mrs. W. P. Scott, an aunt of Adolph Weber, against Executor F. S. Stevens for the accounting of $11,... 340, has been compromised, and all suits dismissed. In November 10, 190... Adolph Weber, aged 20 years, shot and killed his father, mother, sister and brother and then set fire to the home in which the deed was done. The house was burned, but some of the bodies were removed from the building and the murder discovered. Weber was arrested, tried, convicted and hanged at Folsom penitentiary.

It was also proved that he robbed the Placer County Bank five months before the murders, of $2500, the money being subsequently found buried in the Weber barn by Coroner W. A. Shepard. Weber fell heir to his father's estate of about $80,000, most of which was used in his defense.

The day before he was hanged he gave F. S. Stevens, his attorney in fact, the balance of his money on hand, amounting to $11,340. Mrs. Scott claimed that it was not a legal gift, and was hers by right of inheritance.

GERMANY TO AID KLEIN.

EMBASSY WIRES INTENTIONS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Feb. 5.—A telegram signed by Emil von Hoffman, secretary to the German Ambassador at Washington, Baron von Bernstorff, stating that no pains or expense are to be spared in defending Johan Klein, who is now in jail, charged with assault to murder Mrs. Nellie C. Beauvagout, who alleges that Klein forced her daughter to his chateau in the Swiss Alps and is holding her there through his preachings of a higher plane of living.

The attorneys for Klein would not discuss the matter, but it is stated that the telegram will shortly be followed by Klein's release on $2500 bail, which he has been unable to raise.

TENTH CALHOUN JUROR.

NINTH VENIRE CALLED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—A tenth juror was temporarily passed today in the trial of Patrick Calhoun and the acceptance of another was held in abeyance pending a decision by Judge Lawlor, to be rendered tomorrow.

Thirteen talesmen were examined during the day, leaving sixteen citizens of the eighth panel to await interrogation. A ninth venire of seventy-five men was ordered returned next Monday.

OBJECT TO FOREST RESERVE.

YUBA COUNTY PROTESTS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MARYSVILLE, Feb. 5.—There is strong opposition here and in the eastern part of Yuba county to the plan of the Interior Department to extend the Tahoe forest reserve so as to take in the eastern part of Yuba county and part of Nevada county. Thousands of acres of land in the proposed extension already have been patented and the timber taken off by homesteaders who are telegraphing to their representatives at Washington to oppose the plan, which was a surprise when made public yesterday.

DYNAMITE PLOT FAILS.

Home of Refinery Superintendent Is Wrecked.

Family, However, Escapes Injury in Disaster.

Suspect Is Caught by Posse After Running Battle.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, Feb. 5.—A dastardly attempt was made on the part of some discharged workmen of the California sugar refinery at Crockett, this morning, to destroy the home and family of Superintendent Hugh Hartmann.

A stick of dynamite was placed under the front of the house at 2 o'clock this morning, and exploded. The front of the building was torn away, and the sitting-room exposed. Immediately in the rear of this were the sleeping-rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Hartmann and their four children.

The explosion roused the entire town and shattered windows in the neighborhood.

Shortly after daylight, Sheriff William Veale of Martinez, Constable Taylor of Martinez and Constable Fox of Crockett began their investigations. While standing on one of the main streets talking with Superintendent Hartmann about the case, the latter pointed out a passing man as some one that he had refused work because he was a discharged employé.

The man was followed to his home, and found to be G. Marisitch. In the house with him were his brother, H. Marisitch, and G. Bernovitich. The latter, while being questioned by the officers, made an excuse to leave the room, and jumped over a back fence and ran toward the hills.

Constable Taylor and two other men started in pursuit. After they had run a short distance the fleeing man opened fire on them with a revolver. This fire the officers returned, and the chase was kept up for more than an hour through the hills, very frequent exchanges of shots being made until the man surrendered.

The officers took all of the captured men to the lockup in Crockett and identified each one of them to the county officials. H. Marisitch declared his innocence of the crime, and absolutely accused the other two men of having done the dynamiting.

Other witnesses were found who say that these men have made frequent threats against both Martmann and the refinery people because of having been discharged from the employ of the company, and having been refused work.

Mr. Hartman is one of the best-known capitalists in Contra Costa county. There have been numerous labor difficulties there with the Slavonians, and this plot is believed to have been an outcome of the many feuds made against him.

None of the officers or their posse were wounded.

REFUSES TO STAY DEAD.

Man Whose Property Was Sold by Court Can't Get Ticket Home.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After being thought dead for four years and his property sold by the County Court of Wasco county, Jacob Claterbos has turned up in Alabama. The County Court is in a quandary as to what to do in regard to the missing man's property. However, as it was used in caring for the four young children of Claterbos, it is thought no serious difficulties will ensue.

Claterbos was a resident of Trout Lake several years ago. His wife died, leaving four small children. Four years ago he went to Germany, where he married again, and returned to America, leaving his wife to follow him within a short time. He was heard from at Chicago, where all trace of him was lost.

Thinking him dead, the County Commissioners last year sold his property and used the money to rear his children. Claterbos's father-in-law received a letter this week from the missing man in Alabama, asking for money with which to return home.

The man made no inquiry in his letter about his children and he will not get the price of a ticket.

YOUNG RANCHER DIES IN NIGHT.

EDWARD BERWICK, JR., EXPIRES WITHOUT WARNING.

Resident of Carmel Valley, Who Was to Marry President David Starr Jordan's Daughter in April Is Found by Hired Man After Retiring in Best of Health.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MONTEREY, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Berwick, Jr., a prominent fruit grower of the Carmel Valley, who was to marry Miss Edith Jordan, daughter of David Starr Jordan, in April, was found dead in his bed at his home today at noon.

Berwick retired last night in the best of health. When he failed to appear for breakfast and lunch today a hired man broke open the door and found Berwick dead. He was a native of California and 34 years of age.

Death was presumably from heart disease. An inquest and autopsy will be held at Pacific Grove tomorrow morning, where the body will be taken. The deceased is the son of Edward Berwick, a well-known fruit grower, and advocate of the parcels post.

MAY INDICT POLICEMEN.

Stockton Investigation of Graft Is Developing Several Scandals Which May Make Trouble.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The investigation of the police department by the grand jury today brought out some more sensational testimony. It leaked out that a strong effort will be made to either indict three or four officers for accepting bribes or dereliction of duty. One witness positively testified that he had given Capt. Craig $10, and later a newspaper man told the inquisitorial body that the captain had given him $5 to treat him right in connection with the grand jury write-ups. This money was turned over to the chairman of the grand jury, the reporters testified, and there was a difference of the stories told by the officer and newspaper man, which will be threshed out tomorrow.

The investigation is proving a hot one and numerous witnesses are relating long tales. For the past two or three days, it is said, two San Francisco detectives have been here working on matters the grand jury wish more information on and have not been able to secure. Two men have been very active and it is possible that before this inquisitorial body closes its work there will be some sensational subjects for discussion.

SUDDEN DEATH INVESTIGATED.

Poison Looked for in Case of Alturas Man, Who Willed Property to Nurse.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALTURAS, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The death of A. H. Ferguson Wednesday evening has been followed by sensational developments that are engaging the attention of the Coroner and District Attorney. Ferguson's wife died Christmas eve. He was sick, but improved considerably. After his wife's death he deeded all his property to his nurse, Mrs. Gesford.

Mrs. Ferguson had willed it to her niece and other relatives. They claimed the property was held in Mrs. Ferguson's name and filed charges of incompetency against Ferguson to cause the cancellation of the deed to Mrs. Gesford.

The day before the trial was set, Ferguson became suddenly sick again. He died on the day set for trial. Mrs. Gesford attended him for several weeks. An autopsy was performed and the stomach of the dead man has been sent to the University of California for analysis to ascertain if poison caused his death.

All the vital organs were found diseased and Ferguson could not have lived long anyway, but his death, just as his competency was to be determined, and other circumstances of the case, caused the searching investigation now being made.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Coffey Jury Completed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—A jury to try former Supervisor M. W. Coffey on the charge of accepting a bribe of $4000 to vote for a trolley franchise for the United Railroads was obtained today in Judge Dunne's department of the Superior Court. Four men were secured this morning and, after the jury had been sworn, an adjournment was taken until Monday, when Dist.-Atty. Langdon will make the opening statement for the prosecution.

Trains Moving in North.

DUNSMUIR, Feb. 5.—At 7 o'clock this evening, the first of the six southbound passenger trains which have been stalled here by a landslide which obstructed traffic on the Shasta route of the Southern Pacific for several days, left for Sacramento and San Francisco. Two Portland trains, held at Red Bluff, arrived here this afternoon, and were held until 7 p.m., when they proceeded north through the Sacramento Cañon. The slide at Gibson has been cleared away, and the Portland-San Francisco route is now open.

Sheridan Sails.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—The army transport Sheridan sailed for the Philippines today with a cargo of supplies, many cabin passengers and a small number of troops and bluejackets. Brig.-Gen. Brush is the ranking officer on board. Col. C. W. Rivers of the Philippine constabulary is among the passengers.

Round-up of Rioters.

MARYSVILLE, Feb. 5.—City officers are rounding up the participants in yesterday's riots between Greeks and Hindus, in which two Greeks were badly hurt and three Hindus injured, one fatally. The trouble between these laborers is delaying the work of repairing the Northern Electric Railway, which may not be opened to Sacramento this week.

NEEDHAM HAS RAILWAY BILL.

Gives Shippers a Hand in the Rate Regulation.

Roads Must Give Thirty-Day Notice of Change.

Burden of Proof Remains With Carriers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Congressman Needham will introduce tomorrow a bill which is intended to do more than the Fulton bill which failed to become a law. The Needham bill amends the act to regulate commerce by inserting in section 6:

"Provided further, that at any time prior to expiration of thirty days' notice, herein required to be given of proposed change in schedule, any shipper or any number of shippers, jointly or severally, may file with the commission a protest against any proposed increase of rates, fares or charges, or of joint rates, fares or charge or against any proposed change of rule, regulation or practice which would impose additional burden upon shipper or shippers, stating the grounds of his or their objections to the proposed change. The secretary of the commission shall immediately forward copies of such protests to the carrier or carriers proposing the change. Thereupon the commission may, in its discretion, make an order continuing in force existing rates, etc., until the reasonableness and lawfulness of the proposed change shall have been determined by the commission. But throughout the proceedings the burden of proof shall be on the carrier or carriers proposing a change, to show that the proposed change is just and reasonable."

Needham has prepared this bill with great care after consultation with Franklin K. Lane, Interstate Commerce Commissioner, and William R. Wheeler, Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

"CROWDED HOUSE."

CAPITOL INADEQUATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—To Speaker Cannon's private secretary, Mr. Busby, has been assigned the task of placing 1900 people where there is space for only 800 in the hall of the House of Representatives next Wednesday, when the electoral vote of the last election is counted.

The inadequacy of the Congressional chambers is never so marked as it is during the inauguration periods. The Senate chamber is even smaller than the hall of the House, and while each Senator and member will receive two tickets for the counting of the votes, the members will be reduced to one card of admission to the ceremonies in the Senate, preceding the inauguration.

The House has decided that 1000 tickets shall be issued and 1000 people seated for the ceremony, regardless of the number of seats on the fact that the House hall is devoid of the "fourth dimension."

Owing to the fact that each Senator and member has so few tickets, the ceremony will be witnessed by few persons other than their wives and members of their families.

FOR NAVAL EFFICIENCY.

President Desires Fleet to Be at All Times Perfectly Prepared for Action.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Perfect efficiency in military action is President Roosevelt's idea of what the organization of the Navy Department should provide, and which, in his opinion, it now lacks. Under his call for that purpose, a commission of eight men of wide experience in naval matters met today to consider the needs of the navy. The commission consists of two former Secretaries of the Navy, Paul W. Morton of New York and Associate Justice William H. Moody of the Supreme Court of the United States; Judge A. G. Dayton of West Virginia, formerly of the House National Affairs Committee, and five retired admirals, S. B. Luce, A. T. Mahan, W. M. Folger, R. D. Evans and W. S. Cowles.

The President explicitly states that he desires them to consider and report first the fundamental principles of a system of organization and execution that will provide and maintain an immediate preparedness for battle in time of peace, and, second, to specifically recommend changes necessary to the present organization that will accomplish this result. The commission is to consider strategic methods of the fleet, and the number, location and facilities of navy yards.

This commission met at the invitation of the President on January 15 and discussed naval administrative reforms and approved Secretary Newberry's plans of administration, though not considering that the present organization of the Navy Department provides that efficiency which should at all times be maintained.

LINCOLN DAY NOT FOR SON.

Robert Todd Lincoln Gratified, But Will Not Participate.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Robert Todd Lincoln, son of Abraham Lincoln, announced today that he would not participate in any of the public celebrations of the centennial of his father's birth.

He said he had been importuned for months by newspapers and magazines to submit to interviews concerning his father, but he did not think it meet, he said, for him to take part in any public celebration, though the widespread observance gratified him.

His own family, he explained, would observe the day as they had always observed it.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Favors Deputy Marshals.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Favorable action on the bill providing an increased allowance of from $2 to $3 per day for expenses and subsistence of deputy marshals, while away from their regular places of duty, is recommended by the House Committee on Judiciary.

Senate to Probe Military Posts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Military posts and other features of the army organization are to be investigated by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, according to a resolution reported by the committee and adopted by the Senate today. The committee will visit military posts and call witnesses in pursuing its investigation.

Trying to Pick a Cooler Day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate Committee on the Philippines today approved a bill authorizing the Philippine Legislature to fix a day for convening its session. The organic act provides that the session shall begin the first Monday in February, which is the hottest and most disagreeable season in the islands.

Hawaiian Judicial Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The President today nominated Alexander Lindsay, Jr., to be second judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, and Arthur H. Wilder to be Supreme justice of the court of Hawaii.

The Birmingham (Ala.) Coal and Iron Company, holding properties worth $6,000,000, was thrown into the hands of receivers yesterday. The petitioning creditors are the Aetna Powder Company, and others.

HIGH WIND.

TORNADO SWEEPS SOUTHERN STATES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entire South was swept by a terrific wind, hail and rainstorm today. Nearly thirty persons are known to have been killed and hundreds of thousands of dollars in property has been destroyed. The deaths so far known are:

Stuttgart, Ark.—Mrs. Garfield and child of Will Story. Mrs. Story was fatally hurt.

Sulphur Springs, Tex.—Mrs. James Ardis and Mrs. C. Coldwell.

Rolling Fork, Miss.—Five killed (negroes.)

Booth, Miss.—Six lives lost (negroes.)

Wilhite, Ala.—Seven known dead and probably several others have been killed.

Eleven persons were killed and probably a score or more were injured in North Louisiana and Mississippi by the tornado which swept across the States today. The killed and injured are all negroes. Every house in Mill Haven, La., was blown away. Monroe, Bosco and Bristol Bridge, La., also suffered heavily. Ouichita parish's property loss is considerable. At Rolling Fork, the county seat of Sharkey county, Miss., where five negroes were instantly killed, and at Booth, a small hamlet in Issaquena county, Miss., six negroes met death.

The tornado struck the negro section of Rolling Fork and destroyed seven cottages, a schoolhouse and a number of barns and outhouses. Several cotton gins in the vicinity of Rolling Fork were wrecked.

The tornado struck the northwestern section of Louisiana and left a path of ruin across the State to the Mississippi River, where it crossed into Mississippi. The most serious damage in Louisiana occurred at Bosco, Mill Haven and Bristol Bridge, where a score or more of houses were demolished and several negroes seriously injured.

Probably as many as a dozen lives were snuffed out in the vicinity of Cullman, Ala., this afternoon by the cyclone which swept over the State. Seven are known to be dead at Wilhite, Ala. The known dead at Wilhite are: George Stewart, wife and infant son, Thomas Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Olga Rush.

HIGH WATER RECORD.

FLOODS IN GERMANY SUBMERGE CITIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—Floods caused by several days of heavy rains and a spell of warm weather, are today taking on a serious aspect in many parts of Germany. The first fatalities are reported from Nordhaus where many bridges have been swept away and ten people drowned. A total of twenty lives lost is reported.

At Nuremberg the Pegnibe rose twelve feet last night and this morning was raging through the lower streets of the city. The water is higher than it has been for 33 years. The newspapers of Nuremberg have suspended publication and enormous damage has been caused.

Frankfort-on-the-Main reports the highest water in fifty years on some of the streams in Odenwald. At Essen the situation is growing more threatening in the territory adjacent to the city. The town of Herdecke is flooded, a number of dams in the vicinity of Hagen have been carried away, several railroads over the confluents of the Rhine on the north side have been swept away and all trains from Cologne up the river are being sent over the tracks on the south bank.

At Giessen the Lahn River is sixteen feet above the normal, the highest in its history. The valley between Giessen and Wetzler appears as an immense lake. The waters are falling at Chemnits and Erfut, but the Rhine and the other larger streams are rising steadily. A special signal service has been put in operation along the Rhine, where it is expected that the danger point will be reached in a day or two.

RAILWAY RECORD.

HILL-HARRIMAN WAR WILL END.

To Determine Northern Right to Close Gateway.

Rival Roads May Get Use of Portland's Outlet.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the bitterest fights between the Harriman and the Hill lines over passenger business to the Pacific Northwest is to be settled by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

That body has given notice that, February 17, it will begin an investigation of its own motion at Chicago, with a view of determining the right of the Northern Pacific to close the Portland gateway to through business over the Harriman roads.

Incidentally, the case will go far toward determining the right of the commission to order through routes and compel railroads to join in through tariffs and therefore the right of a traveler to buy a through ticket over any two or more lines which reach his destination.

It is the custom of railroads to secure to themselves the long haul and to protect their local business in territories which they occupy exclusively by refusing to accept business from other roads at the gateways to such territories.

In the present case, the Northern Pacific, having invested millions in the territory north of Portland, and having through lines from Chicago, Kansas City and St. Paul to Seattle, has always refused to jo the Harriman lines in a through rate to Seattle by way of Portland.

TRAINS TO CHANGE TRACKS.

Lake Shore Officials Plan to Have Right-Hand Side Used on Double Line.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ELKHART (Ind.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Several recent inspection trips made by high Lake Shore officials were today admitted to be for the purpose of gathering data bearing on plans to change the methods of running trains on all double-track divisions between Chicago and Buffalo.

Ever since the construction of the double track, all trains have been run on the left-hand track, thus bringing the engineer, who sits on the right-hand side of the cab, next to the parallel track. The new plan will be to run on the right-hand track, bringing the engineer to the outer side, where he can better observe the signals, most of which consist of semaphore lights and arms, operated automatically by electricity.

In the old way the engine, as it approaches a semaphore, intervenes and the engineer loses sight of the signals. It is said the change, which an official here estimates will cost $4,000,000, is due to actual or anticipated pressure from the State's Railroad Commission.

AGAINST 'PHONE DISPATCHING.

RAILROAD DISREGARDS BILL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The management of the Chicago and Northwestern road is paying no attention to the bill which has been introduced in the Wisconsin Legislature prohibiting the movement of trains by telephone. Notwithstanding the possibility of its passage, the company is preparing to extend the use of the telephone for the dispatching and movement of trains to its entire system of main lines. The success of the method has been well established and has been pronounced favorably upon by the American Railway Association, and the officers of the road do not, therefore, apprehend much difficulty from laws prohibiting this use of the telephone.

NEW COAST LINE.

CANADIAN NORTHERN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Official details of the plans of the Canadian Northern road to extend its line from Edmonton to the Pacific Coast at Vancouver are given out. The direction to be taken by the new line is southwest, and the distance as the crow flies is about 460 miles.

The company will, however, be compelled to build nearly 750 miles of road.

The Canadian Northern will make the third transcontinental railroad in Canada. It will be the only transcontinental line which will have to cross but one mountain range. The highest elevation reached will be about 3700 feet. All other transcontinental lines have three ranges to cross, and the elevations run as high as 8000 feet.

Tuskegee Under Charges.

MONTGOMERY (Ala.) Feb. 5.—As a result of allegations made by citizens of Tuskegee, Ala., that the Tuskegee Railway, which operates trains between Tuskegee and Chehaw, a distance of five miles, discriminates in the matter of freight and passenger rates in favor of the Tuskegee Industrial Institute, of which Booker T. Washington is president and founder, the State Railroad Commission has ordered an investigation.

MAROONED AT LIGHTHOUSE.

Party of Bay Shore People Held by Ice for Five Days.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EAST MORICHES (L. I.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Capt. Morgan Hafele, with the launch Loafer, on Sunday took on board Mrs. Norman Barnes, Miss Grace Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. William McGinley and Mr. and Mrs. Lafferty, all of Bay Shore, and Miss Carrie Barnes of Brooklyn, and started across the bay to the lighthouse on Fire Island Beach.

Later in the afternoon a start for home was made, and soon after the launch ran on a sand bar. A rescue party from the lighthouse and life saving station brought the party to the lighthouse. They were there held prisoners by the ice until yesterday, when they started for home, traveling down the beach twenty miles to a point where it was possible to cross the bay and reach home.

SEVERE PENALTY.

CAPTAIN MAY BE DISGRACED.

FINDING OF COURT-MARTIAL IS AGAINST QUALTROUGH.

Admiral Sperry Gives Approval to Verdict and It Is Forwarded to Washington Without Being Made Public—Rumor Says Accused Will Be Dismissed from Service.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

GIBRALTAR, Feb. 5.—The findings of the court-martial that heard the evidence against Capt. Edward F. Qualtrough of the battleship Georgia, on a charge of intoxication at Tangier during a reception, were approved by Rear-Admiral Sperry, at 8 o'clock this evening, and fowarded to Washington.

The findings were not made public here, but it is stated with certainty that Capt. Qualtrough was not acquitted. It is believed, on the contrary, that the findings are of so grave a nature that he will not be restored to duty.

The rumor is abroad in the fleet tonight that should the findings be approved by the Navy Department at Washington, Capt. Qualtrough will be disgraced and possibly dismissed from the service.

It was learned tonight that Lieutenant-Commander George Kline will be in command of the Georgia for the voyage home from this port.

Among the officers of the fleet, much sympathy is expressed for Capt. Qualtrough.

VAN WAGENEN MISSING.

Chicago Police Unable to Locate Los Angeles Mining Man After Disappearance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Central Station detectives are searching for Daniel Van Wagenen, 65 years old, a wealthy mining engineer and mine owner of Los Angeles, who has been a guest at the Hotel Brevoort since Thursday.

His disappearance was reported to the police tonight by G. P. Floyd, a guest at the hotel, and a business associate. Up to a late hour tonight no trace of the missing man had been found by the police.

From what the police could learn of the disappearance, Van Wagenen left the hotel at 11 o'clock this morning and went to a downtown bank to draw some money. He was to have attended a meeting of mine owners and engineers in the afternoon. When he failed to appear tonight Floyd went to the police and asked them to assist in a search for him. At first it was thought that Van Wagenen might have gone to the home of a brother, E. F. Van Wagenen, secretary of the Jewell Iron Company, No. 153 La Salle street, who lives at No. 724 Warren avenue, but he was not there.

The detectives started a search in downtown hotels but failed to find him. Floyd requested that the disappearance be not made public.

The store of the Mammoth Supply Company at Mammoth, Utah, was dynamited early yesterday morning. The charge was fired in the cellar. Two clerks asleep in the store were stunned and unable to talk for two hours, but were not injured otherwise. The damage amounts to about $1000. The only theory so far advanced is that the crime was committed by some one to whom the company had denied credit.

LABOR.

STRIKERS IN LOSING FIGHT.

Business Men of Omaha, Are With Employers.

Union Garment Workers Now Without Jobs.

Plenty of Help Found to Take Vacant Places.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In conference with representatives of the Novelty Skirt Company, the Business Men's Association of Omaha today decided to lend all possible financial and moral support to the company in its contest with the striking union garment workers who walked out of its shops on a strike several weeks ago.

The association also decided to give its support to the three other firms whose union garment workers threaten to go out on a strike. The striking garment workers demand recognition of the union, a nine-hour day and a weekly instead of bi-weekly pay day.

The skirt company refuses to accede to their demand and has been so successful in bringing in garment workers to take the places of the strikers that the cause of the strikers is already practically lost.

The Business Men's Association includes in its membership all the leading business houses in the city and is unalterably opposed to labor unions.

STRIKERS KILLED IN MELEE.

ATTACKED SHOP.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One man was killed and several were seriously injured in an attack made by strike sympathizers on the tailoring factory of Jacob Greenfield, at No. 1 Second street, late this afternoon.

Most of the employés of the shop struck two weeks ago. Eight stitchers and pressers remained at work. In an effort to get them out the strikers, accompanied by a hundred or more sympathizers, smashed in the door and, armed with sticks or weapons, grabbed up in the place, assaulted every one in reach. The fight raged until a policeman ran in and began to lay about him with his club. Then everybody was able, ran. The dead man was identified as Soloman Kahn, a striker.

Union Thieves Jump Bail.

BISBEE (Ariz.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] D. H. Williams of Portland, Or., was arrested here today, charged with embezzling $1400 four years ago from the Leather Makers' Union of Portland. They jumped $1500 bail soon after their release and are now in Mexico.

Troops Charge Strikers.

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Feb. 5.—As a result of violence being offered today by the striking miners at the Tremont coal mine, Belle Vernon, Pa., near here, to the non-union miners who went to work yesterday, a troop of State constabulary charged the strikers today. Several persons on both sides were slightly injured. An additional detachment of Pennsylvania police will arrive at Belle Vernon from Greensburg some time during the day.

Foreign Laborers Riot.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5.—Angered because one of their number had been dismissed when he became disorderly, 400 Hungarian, Italian and Bulgarian laborers, who are laying a gas-pipe line near Alexandria, clashed today, and in the general melee several revolver shots were fired. One of the Italians was shot in the leg, but not seriously injured.

CLASS RUSH MAY BE FATAL.

One Indiana Student Dying, Four Others Seriously Injured in College Sport.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VALPARAISO (Ind.) Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With one student dying and four others, one a Chicago boy, seriously injured, officials of Valparaiso University are trying to hush up details of a class rush that is declared to have been one of the most serious in the history of Middle Western colleges.

Cass L. Wolfer, president of a scientific department class, is under the care of four physicians, but it is feared he cannot live. He was trampled on and kicked by half a hundred students at the climax of the rush.

The rush was the culmination of a two days' fight between the scientific and the law departments.

The names of the other injured students are kept secret.

TO BUY LINCOLN RELICS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds today agreed to a favorable report on the Rodenburg bill, to purchase the Oldroyd collection of Lincoln relics, now located in the house in Washington, in which Lincoln died. The bill also provides for the purchase of property adjoining the house in order that the house in which Lincoln died may be made fireproof.

PRESIDENT H IN STATE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—While President Roosevelt is greatly displeased with the action yesterday of the California Assembly in passing the Japanese school segregation bill, he is apparently satisfied that Mr. Gillett and Speaker Stanton take a view of the situation, and that they will press upon the Assembly the importance of reconsidering its action when the matter comes up next Wednesday.

There is reason to believe the Japanese question occupied much of the cabinet meeting today. Doubtless other telegrams have passed between the President and the Governor on the subject, but if so they have not been made public at the White House. In fact, today Secretary Loeb said there was nothing to give out bearing

NEVADA ASSE PASS ANT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS

CARSON (Nev.) Feb. 5.—The Nevada Assembly this afternoon passed the Gillen anti-alien land bill, which provides that no Asiatics, including the Japanese, shall own land or land mortgages in the State.

The measure passed in the lower house without any opposition, but it is believed the Senate will practically kill the purpose of the bill, so far as it is aimed at the Japanese, by amendments.

Both the Assembly and the Senate this afternoon adjourned until Monday.

The anti-alien bill introduced by Gillen is as follows:

Section 1. Any non-resident alien, person, or corporation, except subjects of the Chinese and Japanese empires, may take, hold and enjoy any real property or any interest in lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the State of Nevada as fully, freely and upon the same terms and conditions as any resident citizen, person or domestic corporation.

public schools of San Francisco, and the denial of that right to the children of its citizens residing there, constituted a denial to them of the privileges, liberties and rights relating to the rights of residence accorded to the subjects and citizens of the most favored nations.

TREATY VIOLATION.

"Our government acquiesced in the views expressed by Japan, and to enforce that nation's rights under its treaty, commenced an action in the Circuit Court of the United States to enjoin the school board of San Francisco from carrying out the provisions of said resolution. It was alleged in the bill in equity filed therein that the passage of this resolution violated the treaty between Japan and this country, and prevented the United States from carrying out its treaty obligations to the empire of Japan and to its citizens and subjects as is the right and duty of the United States and imperatively demanded by the national interests.

"This action was never tried, but was dismissed on the withdrawal by the school board of San Francisco of its resolution complained of.

"Every one supposed that this vexed question was settled. In fact, the people of the State had about forgotten it, and were no longer paying much attention to it until the bill under consideration was introduced in the Assembly. There has been no general demand for such legislation, there is no immediate or present danger to our schools, and no bad influence exists therein, by reason of the attendance of any Japanese pupils, so far as is known. In fact, there are but very few Japanese pupils attending our public schools, and there is no occasion at present, at least, for any unnecessary alarm.

DEBATABLE SUBJECT.

"It is claimed by Japan and admitted by the authorities in Washington, that the bill if passed, will be in violation of the treaty existing between the two governments. Without expressing any opinion upon this subject, it being a debatable one, I wish to call your attention to the views of Japan and conceded so far by our government, to be correct. There is contained in the present treaty with Japan the following language, to wit: 'In whatever relates to rights of residence and travel, . . . the citizens or subject of each contracting party shall enjoy in the territories of the other the same privileges, liberties and rights, . . . of the most favored nation.'

"The rights of residence in a nation secures police protection to both person and property; the right to engage in business; the right to the protection of the courts, and the laws of the land; the right to own and dispose of property; the right to attend places of public amusement; the right to seek pleasure and enjoyment and the right to acquire an education.

"By our Constitution and laws the State of California has provided a free public school system where certain privileges have been provided for all resident children, native born and aliens. To support this school system money is raised by taxation levied upon the property of both citizens and aliens. The law also provides for the compulsory attendance at school of all resident children, whether of aliens or citizens. To our public schools are admitted the children of subjects of all European nations. This is a great privilege which our State extends to them. This right is given to them by virtue of their residence within the State and is part of our public policy to encourage education and to improve and develop the minds and character of those who make their homes here independent of their citizenship.

JAPAN'S CLAIMS.

"Japan, under its treaty, being one of the favored nations, and being jealous of the rights of its citizens, claims for them and their children the same rights and privileges as are accorded the subjects of other favored nations. This claim our government recognizes and stands ready to enforce. If the treaty, as claimed, guarantees to Japanese children the rights and privileges accorded to the children of aliens of other nations, then those rights and privileges, so long as the treaty remains, should be observed, and if the morals and citizenship are to be considered thereby, then the treaty, insofar as it guarantees that right,

PRESIDENT HAS FAITH IN STATE OFFICIALS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—While President Roosevelt is greatly displeased with the action yesterday of the California Assembly in passing the Japanese school segregation bill, he is apparently satisfied that Governor Gillett and Speaker Stanton take a broad view of the situation, and that the responsibility rests upon the Assembly the question of reconsidering its action when the matter comes up next Wednesday.

There is reason to believe the Japanese question occupied much of the Cabinet meeting today. Doubtless telegrams have passed between the President and the Governor on the subject, but if so they have not been made public at the White House.

In fact, today Secretary Loeb said there was nothing to give out bearing on the Japanese question. At the Japanese embassy no expression of any kind could be secured.

In official quarters confidence is expressed that the cordial relations existing between the United States and Japan will continue.

It was emphatically denied tonight by Navy Department officials that it was contemplated that a part of the battleship fleet might be returned to the Pacific soon after their arrival at Hampton Roads, on February 22.

Vice-President and General Manager Schwerin of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company called at the White House after the Cabinet meeting, but did not see the President.

Mr. Schwerin said he wishes to tell the President there was no truth in the reports that the steamship lines, at least so far as his company was concerned, were at the back of the anti-Japanese agitation.

NEVADA ASSEMBLYMEN PASS ANTI-JAP BILL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CARSON (Nev.) Feb. 5.—The Nevada Assembly this afternoon passed the Giffen anti-alien land bill, which provides that no Asiatics, including the Japanese, shall own real estate or land mortgages in the State. The measure passed in the lower house without any opposition, but it is believed the Senate will practically defeat the purpose of the bill, so far as it is aimed at the Japanese, by amendment.

Both the Assembly and the Senate this afternoon adjourned until Monday.

The anti-alien bill introduced by Giffen is as follows:

Section 1. Any non-resident alien, any corporation, except subjects of the Chinese and Japanese empires, may take, hold and enjoy any real property or any interest in lands, tenements or hereditaments within the State of Nevada as fully, freely and entirely and upon the same terms and conditions as any resident citizen, person or body corporation.

Sec. 2. The right of eminent domain is hereby granted to such non-resident or foreign corporations upon the same terms and conditions as the same is granted to resident or domestic corporations.

Sec. 3. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer any other or further rights under the statutes of limitations than those at present existing.

The Senate showed its disposition on anti-Japanese legislation this morning when the Dodge Assembly resolution asking for a war fleet in the Pacific and which referred to the Japanese as a "menace to American peace" came up. The resolution passed the Assembly unanimously, and was reported favorably by the committee to the Senate, but when it was placed on third reading, Woodbury (Rep.) moved that the measure be tabled. His motion prevailed, without a dissenting vote, the Democrats voting with him.

This afternoon Senator Newland's letter from Washington was read to the Senate. The copy used was that sent out by the Associated Press and printed in a Reno paper this morning. As soon as the letter was read the Senate adjourned until Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

EXECUTIVE APPEALS.

public schools of San Francisco, and he asked of that right to the children of Japanese residing there, consistent and denial to them of the privileges, liberties and rights relating to the rights of residence accorded to the subjects and citizens of the most favored nations.

TREATY VIOLATION.

"Our government acquiesced in the views stated by Japan, and to enforce that nation's rights under its treaty commenced an action in the district court of the United States to restrain the school board of San Francisco from carrying out the provisions of said resolution. It was alleged in the bill in equity filed therein that the passage of this resolution violated the treaty between Japan and this country and prevented the United States from carrying out its treaty obligations to the empire of Japan and to its citizens and subjects as is the right and duty of the United States and imperatively demanded by the national interest.

"This action was never tried, but was dismissed on the withdrawal by the school board of San Francisco of the resolution complained of.

"Every one supposed that this vexed question was settled. In fact, the people of the State had about forgotten it, there being no longer paying much attention to it until the bill under consideration was introduced in the Assembly. There has been no general demand for such legislation, there is no immediate or present danger to our people, and no bad influence exists now, by reason of the attendance of Japanese pupils, so far as is known. In fact, there are but very few Japanese pupils attending our public schools, and there is no occasion at present, at least, for any unnecessary action.

DEBATABLE SUBJECT.

"It is claimed by Japan and admitted by the authorities in Washington, that the bill if passed, will be in violation of the treaty existing between the two governments. Without expressing any opinion upon this subject, it being a debatable one, I wish to call your attention to the views of Japan and conceded so far by our government to be correct. There is contained in the present treaty with Japan the following language, to wit: 'As to whatever relates to rights of residence and travel, . . . the citizens or subject of each contracting party shall enjoy in the territories of the other the same privileges, liberties and rights, . . . of the most favored nation.'

"The rights of residence in a nation secures police protection to both person and property; the right to engage in business; the right to the protection of the courts, and the laws of the land; the right to own and dispose of property; the right to attend places of public amusement; the right to seek pleasure and enjoyment and the right to acquire an education. Our Constitution and laws the State of California has provided a public school system where certain privileges have been provided for resident children, native born and aliens. To support this school system money is raised by taxation upon the property of both citizens and aliens. The law also provides for the compulsory attendance of resident children, whether of native or citizens. To our public schools are admitted the children of a majority of all European nations. This is a great privilege which our State extends to them. This right is given to them by virtue of their residence within the State and is part of our settled policy to encourage education and improve and develop the minds and character of those who make their future independent of their citizenship.

JAPAN'S CLAIMS.

"Japan, under its treaty, being one of the favored nations, and being jealous of the rights of its citizens, claims that they and their children the same rights and privileges as are accorded to the subjects of other favored nations. This claim our government recognizes and stands ready to enforce. If such right, as claimed, guarantees to Japanese children the rights and privileges accorded to the children of aliens of other nations, then those rights and privileges, so long as the treaty exists, should be observed, and if the residence and citizenship are to be acquired thereby, then the treaty, when it guarantees that right, should be annulled by the general government, as this State has no power to do so.

"While the treaty with Japan does not, and cannot, require a State to establish or maintain a system of public schools, or to admit alien residents therein, it is contended by the authorities in Washington that the United States can, by treaty, assure to the resident citizens of that nation a treatment and enjoyment of rights and privileges equal to those afforded to the citizens of any other foreign nation, and if a State should see fit to extend privileges to alien residents, as well as to citizen residents, the State will not be allowed to discriminate against the citizens of that country with which the treaty has been made. If the State grants certain privileges to the citizens of the foreign country, it cannot deny them to the citizens of another having the same rights by treaty.

"It is further contented that if a State chooses to supply education, as a governmental function, it cannot discriminate by excluding from its public schools the alien children of any particular nation enjoying treaty rights. In speaking of the action of the school board at San Francisco, Secretary Root said:

ROOT'S STATEMENT.

"'No State can set up its laws as against the grant of any particular right, privilege or immunity, any more than against the grant of any other right, privilege or immunity. No State can say a treaty may grant to alien residents equality of treatment as to property, but not as to education.

"'There were questions of policy, questions of national interest, and State interest arising under the administration of the treaty and regarding the application of this provision to the conditions existing on the Pacific Coast.

"'The best interest of the whole country is always the true interest of every State and city, and the protection of the interests of every locality in the country is always the true interest of the nation.'

"It is certain that the majority of the committee will report back a bill of some kind, but the direct primary people say it will be no improvement over the present system of party conventions and nominations.

Senators Estudillo, Wright and Stetson, the minority members of the committee, probably will report in favor of the bill as originally drawn, and so long as it is in any stage less than a law.

Figuratively speaking, President Roosevelt has not yet received his breath, so hard and unexpected a blow to his Japanese policy is the Japanese school legislation, partly enacted yesterday.

The President is wondering whether the members of the California delegation in the two houses of Congress have been entirely frank with him in the discussions of the anti-Japanese feeling in the Legislature. He can think of no explanation better than the California Congressmen failed to give him accurate appraisement of the temper of their people and their lawmakers.

A violent outburst is expected in the Japanese newspapers as soon as they are fully advised as to the character of the legislation, so that the Taft administration will have a difficult situation on its hands from the first day of its existence.

JUDGES WAIT ON JAPANESE.

GOV. GILLETT IS TOO BUSY TO CONSIDER APPOINTMENTS.

Three Additional Members of Los Angeles County Bench Provided for; Thirty Days Allowed for Selection—Bill to Prohibit Saloons on the Aqueduct Will Probably Win.

BY S. FRANK GREAVES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Gillett will sign within the next week the bill through which three additional judges will be provided for the Superior Court of Los Angeles county. It may be a month thereafter, however, before he appoints the men to fill the places, for he is given thirty days to make the selections. So far the Governor has paid no attention to this matter, though his office is piled high with letters and telegrams recommending various candidates. His main concern now is to see that the Legislature passes no bills inimical to the friendly relations that exist between the United States and Japan, and it is certain that he will pay little or no attention to the Los Angeles matter until the bigger question is out of the way.

R. A. Ling is the only aspirant for judicial honors who is on the ground, but the names of a dozen or more candidates have been submitted to the Governor, those most prominently mentioned by the Los Angeles delegation in the Legislature being George R. Davis and former Judge G. A. Gibbs of Pasadena, William Rhodes Hervey, Judson Davis and W. H. Jamison of Los Angeles. It is the belief of the men of the South that the selections will be made from among these five names.

"DRY" AQUEDUCT WINNING.

TRANSUE'S BILL FAVORED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Assurances were given today by legislators familiar with the situation that Assemblyman Transue will secure the passage of his bill which aims to prevent the establishment of saloons within four miles of any camp of men engaged in pushing the Los Angeles aqueduct through to completion. The bill has been held up for several days owing to the objections of Assemblymen from various sections who believe the measure would hit some of their constituents. A compromise is in sight though, under which the needed protection will be thrown around the Owens River project while no corns will be trod upon in any other sections.

An ally of the Los Angeles aqueduct has come in the person of a representative of the Western Pacific Railroad, now building into California. This company desires a law similar to that outlined in the Transue bill, and its coöperation with the friends of the aqueduct will aid materially in obtaining the desired legislation.

DIRECT PRIMARY BILL.

AMENDED OUT OF SHAPE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Satisfied that they never will get out of the Senate Committee on Elections and Election Laws such a bill as they desire, the supporters of the direct primary are laying plans to have their original bill brought onto the floor of the Senate and there fought out to the finish. Already the bill has been amended out of all semblance to its former self, and there is no telling what will happen to it within the next few days.

It is certain that the majority of the committee will report back a bill of some kind, but the direct primary people say it will be no improvement over the present system of party conventions and nominations.

Senators Estudillo, Wright and Stetson, the minority members of the committee, probably will report in favor of the bill as originally drawn, and the Senate already is lining up for the tussle. At the present stage of the situation it is believed the bill is in a fair way to go through without amendment.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

Policemen Watch Youngsters Attempt to Rob Store and Arrest Them as They Smash Window.

While Policemen Riggs and Fitzgerald stood across the street watching the lads, Earl Schubin, 13 years old, and John Bruce, 15 years old, attempted to break into the hardware store at No. 715 East First street, at 1 o'clock this morning. At the sound of crashing windows the officers arrested the boys. Schubin lives at No. 24 Vignes street and Bruce at No. 137 South Gless street. The boys admitted at Central Police Station that they were attempting to rob the store.

A public-spirited individual, who withholds his name, has purchased the Tissot collection of pictures, illustrating the Old Testament, and will place them where art lovers will have a chance to view them. The pictures have been on exhibition at the Fifth Avenue Art Gallery, and when offered for sale at an upset price of $40,000, there were no bidders. When no offers were made last evening, the auctioneers announced the sale to the unknown philanthropist.

GROOMING COUNTS

But it cannot make a Fair Skin or a Glossy Coat.

Women with good complexions cannot be homely. Creams, lotions, washes and powders cannot make a fair skin. Every horseman knows that the satin coat of his thoroughbred comes from the animal's "all-right" condition. Let the horse get "off his feed" and his coat turns dull. Currying, brushing and rubbing will give him a clean coat, but cannot produce the coveted smoothness and gloss of the horse's skin, which is his complexion. The ladies will see the point.

Longboat Lopes Over Long Marathon Route.

Dusky Bride of Month Cheers Indian Runner.

Englishman Opens Long Lead, but Breaks Down.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN (New York) Feb. 5.—Maintaining an even, swinging stride, that rarely varied throughout the race, Tom Longboat, the Onondaga Indian from Canada, won the laurels of an indoor Marathon race tonight at Madison Square Garden, when victory seemed almost within the grasp of the plucky Englishman, Alfred Shrubb, who collapsed in the twenty-fifth mile, leaving the Indian to finish the race of twenty-six miles, 385 yards, alone.

Longboat's time was 2:53:40 2-5, which is nearly eight minutes behind the record made by Dorando, the Italian, in his race with John Hayes, the Olympic Marathon winner, last fall. The Indian finished in fine fettle, and was in nowise distressed.

The vast garden was thronged with excited thousands, who cheered the two contestants. Shrubb, as was predicted by his followers, went out in front at the gunfire, with a pace that was remarkable.

DELAY AT START.

There was some delay in getting the race started, but at 9:18 the runners were lined up and a minute later were sent away.

Shrubb immediately flashed in the lead, and assuming a fast pace, gradually increased the distance between himself and the Indian runner.

Shrubb's tactics soon became plain. He quickened his pace after going a lap or so, and though Longboat ran with easy strides, it was evident that the pace was too stiff for him. When Shrubb finished the third lap the Indian was a third of a lap behind, and from the to the end of the first mile, which Shrubb finished in 4:32, the Indian slowly but surely fell behind.

At the end of the mile, Longboat was three-quarters of a lap behind, and at the finish of the next, or eleventh lap, the Indian just trailed after the English runner, a lap behind.

At the end of the second mile Shrubb was leading by nearly a lap and a half. The time for the two miles was 10:15 4-5.

Shrubb's almost perfect action in running brought him the admiration of the crowd, expressed frequently in cheers and shouts of encouragement. Longboat, with his usual lope, however, had a host of friends, who did not seem to lose confidence as the Englishman drew into a comfortable lead.

SLOWING UP.

It was noted that while Shrubb had gained two laps in the first three miles, he had added only an additional half lap in the next two miles. Shrubb's plan, it appeared, was to run a fast mile or two, during which he made decided gains, and then he would steady down to a trot, apparently to reserve his wind and strength.

His sprints always created an uproar in the crowd, the spectators cheering him frantically. He gained two and a half laps in the second five miles, and was five laps, or half a mile, ahead, when the ten miles was finished. The time for the ten-mile mark was 57:22 3-5.

Longboat's time for the ten miles in his race with Dorando was 58m. 57 1-5s., nearly a minute and a half behind Shrubb's time tonight.

Maintaining his fast pace Shrubb increased his lead to six laps at the twelfth mile, but the Indian was not to be worried out of his long swinging strides until near the fifteenth mile, when he shook himself and picked up about fifty yards.

Shrubb, however, continued to open the distance between himself and the pursuing Indian, and the fifteenth mile mark found the Englishman six and one-half laps ahead. Shrubb's time for the fifteen miles was 1h. 23m. 28 4-5s.

The time for the twenty-mile mark was 2h. 1m. 28 4-5s., with Shrubb eight laps ahead.

SHRUBB STOPS.

Shrubb, in the twenty-first mile, suddenly stopped to change his shoes. During his brief absence from the track Longboat gained one of his lost laps, but Shrubb coming on the course again, started out at a lively clip with the evident intention of regaining his lead.

Pandemonium broke loose in the garden during the twenty-second mile when Shrubb came down to a walk for a few yards. It was apparent that he was in some distress, but he soon was off again, with a swinging stride, though at a slower pace.

Cheered on by his bride and the shouts of his friends, Longboat increased his pace, and soon began to cut down rapidly the lead of the now fast tiring Englishman.

The end of the twenty-third mile found Longboat only four laps behind Shrubb, who frequently broke his pace and walked to rest himself. The Indian, in the first half of the twenty-fourth mile, brought forth a hurricane of applause by regaining another lap on his rival.

Shrubb was in evident distress, and it was only a game effort on his part that kept him struggling on.

Thousands of spectators yelled and cheered the Indian as he slowly moved up abreast of the Englishman, who was but a scant lap ahead as the pair moved on the second lap of the twenty-fifth mile.

Longboat ran without any seeming distress. Shrubb fell back to a walk. Longboat quickly took the lead. The Englishman collapsed on the track, leaving the triumphant Longboat to finish the race alone.

Previous to the Marathon, the five-mile match between Robert Hallen of New York and Mike Spring of Brooklyn, in which Spring was allowed a handicap of ten seconds, was won by Hallen by one and three-quarters laps; time, 27:20 1-5.

Sturges Unable to Hold His End up for Coronado and Visitors Score Totals.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 5.—The Annandale Club of Pasadena is winner of the Coronado golf championship. George W. Sturges, the last hope of the Coronado Country Club, was beaten by M. H. Mumford of the Annandales in the semi-finals yesterday, 6 up and 5 to play.

The supremacy now lies between Mr. Eaton and T. P. Mumford, both of the Annandale Club, the latter having defeated F. W. Jacobs of Annandale, his opponent in the semi-finals, 5 up and 4 to play.

JAFFE TIES MARSHALL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The third game of the series of ten played between Frank J. Marshall and Charles Jaffe at the Rice Chess Club was drawn after twenty-seven moves, Jaffe threatening then to draw they game by perpetual check. Marshall was enabled to win a pawn on the eighteenth move. Jaffe also won a pawn two moves later, but it looked like a Grecian gift, for Marshall now began to force things still more.

In the desperate struggle Jaffe made to save the game he sacrificed a king on his twenty-sixth turn and a move later he gave away a rook. By taking the rook Marshall enabled Jaffe to draw the game by perpetual check. An analysis of the end game showed that Marshall could have easily won the game if he had left the adversary's rook on the board.

ABOVE THE CLOUDS.

BALLOONS TO SAIL ON PLEASURE TRIP.

THE two large balloons, the United States and American, are to make a short flight from Chutes Park Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Ordinary gas is being used and the work of inflating is progressing satisfactorily. At a late hour last night the American, which will be piloted by Capt. A. E. Meuller, was nearly filled, and the United States, which is to be handled by Roy Knabenshue, was more than one-half full.

The flight will in no way be a race, as it is expected that the large bags will be in the air for only a few hours. The trip is to be made for weather observations, and to arouse interest in the sport of ballooning.

Each of the balloons is to carry four men, including the pilots. They are to be Capt. Meuller, Roy Knabenshue, W. D. Fuller of the Weather Bureau, Lieut. C. K. Currie of the United States Corps of Engineers, a reporter from each of the morning papers, and a representative of the Associated Press.

Fifteen or twenty of the Chutes Park homing pigeons are to be taken along, and will be used to send back messages of the location and conditions of the balloons and men.

BASEBALL GAME TODAY.

Second Game of Series Between St. Vincent's and Polytechnic at Chutes Park.

The St. Vincent's College and Los Angeles Polytechnic High School baseball teams will meet in the second game of their series at Chutes Park this afternoon, providing the weather clears off and the grounds are not too wet to allow a fast game. Both teams have been somewhat handicapped of late in regard to practice, but the good form which the squads have shown in their previous games is enough to assure a creditable contest. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

It is probable that the Saints will have Foster Couts and Kerfoot on the mound, while Polytechnic intends to send Capt. "Monk" Pierce on the slab. Poly seems to be a trifle weak in her pitching department this season since Lafferty has joined the Saints.

The line-up will be as follows:

| St. Vincent's. | | Polytechnic. |
|---|---|---|
| Kerfoot, Couts | pitcher | M. Pierce |
| O'Connor | catcher | T. Pierce |
| Workman | first base | Manning |
| Shute | second base | Omstead |
| Sullivan | third base | Thornton |
| Ybarrando | shortstop | Swartz |
| Griff Kennedy | center field | Newman |
| Callahan | left field | Hendrickson |

Game Is Postponed.

Because of the rain, the protested basketball game between Whittier and Polytechnic high schools for the championship of the County League, was not played yesterday, as arranged by the officials of the league. The contest is to be held as soon next week as possible and the winner is then to play Glendale, High School for the championship of the entire county.

Game Is Postponed.

The basketball game that was to have been played between St. Vincent's College and Glendale High School yesterday afternoon, at Glendale, was postponed because of the rain. The contest was to have been a practice game preparatory to the Y.M.C.A. series and will probably be played next week.

Monrovia Meet.

Polytechnic's second track team is to meet Monrovia High School this afternoon at Monrovia unless rain prevents. The team was organized two weeks ago and this is the first contest scheduled.

HOGAN KEEPS BUSY.

Signs Two More New Ball Players. Dolly Gray Consents to Sign for Large Salary.

"Happy" Hogan of the Vernon ball team has signed Pitcher Coy to heave for the club this season. He also has Bill Harkins, an infielder, who has been doing fine work for the team at El Centro, in the Imperial Valley. There are others in sight.

Dolly Gray will go to the Washington team when the time comes to report, even though he asked for a much higher salary than he received on the Los Angeles team last year. It has been common talk among a few fans who said they knew that Gray received $250 a month last year, or a total of $1750 for the season of seven months. Late advices from Washington state that Manager Cantillon sent Dolly a contract naming $2500 as his salary, but that Gray sent back a demand for more.

This week, however, Gray expressed himself as satisfied, and will probably take the chance of grabbing $416 of easy money every month, which is $104 a week, or $15 a day for seven days. Dozens of bank cashiers do not get that much money for working hard, and they certainly do not draw $54 a day for working two days each week for two hours.

ANOTHER MATCH.

HYLAND AND M'FARLAND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Packy McFarland and Fighting Dick Hyland were tonight matched to fight twenty rounds before Coffroth's Mission-street arena on Washington's Birthday, February 22. Hyland backed down on his demand for a twenty-five-round fight when he saw that it would not be agreed upon and the balance of the conditions were easy to name.

Eddie Smith of Oakland was selected to referee the match. The lightweights are to make 133 pounds at 5 o'clock on the morning of the match and will take 50 per cent. of the gross, to be divided 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser.

Monte Attell and Jimmy Reagan, the bantamweight who recently was given a decision over Jimmy Walsh, were matched for twenty rounds as a preliminary. They are to fight at 116 pounds at 10 o'clock on the day of the contest. Tiv Kreling is to referee.

Final Basketball Game.

The final game of basketball between Occidental and Pomona College is to be played at Occidental Monday afternoon.

Wallabies Get but One Night's Rest Before Playing California Team in Rugby.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERKELEY, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Wallaby Rugby team arrived tonight direct from New York and will play the California 'varsity tomorrow as scheduled. The Australians stood the trip well and appear in good condition.

The university men have been in strict training for two weeks and are in good condition for the game. Rain has interfered with their practice, but Coach Schaefter expects them to play a good game.

Lawton, who was expected to play as 'varsity fullback, will be out of the game on account of injuries sustained in practice. Abbott of the freshmen team will be substituted. The 'varsity tomorrow will line-up as follows:

Wing-forward, Swartz; front rank, Markwart and Phleger; side rank, Bennett and Carpenter; lock, Hansen; rear rank, Pauly of San Diego and Swim; half, Dwiggins; five-eighths, Capt. Cerf and Elliott; wings, Watts and Evans of Pomona; center, Harris; full, Abbott.

Markwart, Phleger, Pauly, Capt. Cerf, Elliott, Watts, Swartz, Harris and Dwiggins played against Stanford last November. The other men, with the exception of Swim, were members of the freshmen team of last fall.

Harness Matinee.

The next harness-horse matinée of the Los Angeles Driving Club will be held Saturday, February 20, and not today as was intended last week. The continued rains have kept the Agricultural Park track too soft for the horses to work on, and for this reason the races were postponed. It was intended to have the matinée February 22, but the club has given the date to the Iowa Society, which will hold its annual picnic that day. The society will lay off the center of the field to represent Iowa by counties.

Three-Cushion Billiards.

Voorhees and Davidson played a cracking good game of three-cushion billiards last night, as one of the scheduled contests in the tourney now going on in Henry Berry's rooms on South Spring street. Voorhees won by a score of 50 to 29 and deserved the victory, for he made four runs of 3 and one of 5, and played fine billiards all the way. Davidson's high run was 2 and he excelled on bank shots, but he was not up to his game.

CHICAGO SHOW CROWDS COME.

Factory Men from Country's Four Corners Arrive.

Exhibit Will Outshine All Previous Displays.

Los Angeles to Be Well Represented at Coliseum.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Automobile manufacturers, technical experts, factory superintendents, dealers, agents, salesmen; in fact, every one connected with or interested in the construction of motor cars and their accessories, are hurrying to Chicago to be on hand for the annual automobile exhibition, which opens at the Coliseum and First Regiment Armory tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The advance guard reached the city yesterday and today, many of them coming direct from the Philadelphia show, which had just closed. Tomorrow and throughout all of next week these visitors will be dropping into Chicago to get the only look possible at a national show of motor cars, for this exhibit, held under the auspices of the National Association of Automobile Manufacturers, is the only one in the country generally patronized by all factions in the automobile industry.

Among the prominent automobilists connected with the manufacture of motor cars who are already here, or on their way to the local show, are the following:

N. A. Hawkins, sales manager, Ford Motor Company; W. C. Leland, secretary, and H. M. Leland, general manager, Cadillac Motor Car Company; C. C. Hildebrand, sales manager, Stevens-Duryea Company; Elmer and Edgar Apperson, Apperson Bros. Automobile Company; Thomas B. Jeffery and Charles T. Jeffery, makers of the 'Rambler'; Charles Singer, Jr., secretary, and William Botto, sales manager, Palmer and Singer Company; Charles Clifton, treasurer, J. Elmer Pratt, sales manager, and R. O. Patten, assistant sales manager, Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Company; Windsor White, president, Rollin White, superintendent of the factory, Walter White, vice-president and sales manager, A. R. Warner, secretary, and C. A. Hawkins of San Francisco, general western manager, The White Company; H. O. Smith, president, G. A. Weidely, vice-president and superintendent, R. I. Eads, sales manager, Premier Motor Manufacturing Company; Hugh Chalmers, president, and Lee Counselman, sales manager, Chalmers-Detroit Motor Company; George Crane, sales manager, Knox Automobile Company; E. L. Thomas, vice-president, E. R. Thomas Motor Company; W. R. Johnston of San Francisco, Coast manager for the Stromberg carburetter; Paul La Croix of the Renault, and a number of other New York dealers, who are coming on to get a look at a show nearly twice as big as those they are used to seeing in Gotham.

Los Angeles is well represented at the Chicago show. Those who are already there are Leon T. Shettler, Reo and Kisselkar agent; Norman W. Church, Coast representative of the Stoddard-Dayton; P. A. Renton, Great Smith; H. O. Harrison, Peerless, Oldsmobiles and Apperson cars; Edward Julian, Frederic Pabst, Walter Cathers, of the Auto Vehicle Company, and W. L. Moreland, formerly of the Durocar Company, who is planning to start another factory on the Coast.

TIGER CUBS BEAT U.S.C.

Preps Play Fierce Game of Basketball Which Requires Extra Period for Completion.

Occidental Academy, 24; U.S.C. Academy, 21.

In the hottest basketball game of the season at Occidental the Tiger Cubs defeated U.S.C. Academy yesterday afternoon in a match that had to be prolonged five minutes in order to make possible a decision. When the referee's final whistle blew in the second half the score was 21 to 21, and after two minutes of play in the extended period, Gilkey registered a free throw, and Sammy McClung was awarded a goal on a foul, giving the home team the game.

In a series of two games the teams have broken even, and a third match may be played this week. The quintettes were so evenly matched that time alone decided the outcome. U.S.C. led during the first half, but at the beginning of the second period Occidental began to pull up and soon tied the score. The lead alternated between the teams during the remainder of the game.

Beeson and Hummel played a strong game for the Methodists. Sammy McClung and Gilkey showed up best for the Tigers. The Highlanders were without the services of McDowell, a regular forward, who is out of the game for the remainder of the season on account of a sprained ankle.

The line-up:

| Occidental. | | U.S.C. |
|---|---|---|
| McClung | forward | Hummel |
| Trask | forward | Dall |
| Gilkey | center | Chas. Reiche |
| Haisch | guard | C. Reiche |
| Underhill | guard | Beeson |

Length of halves, 20 minutes. Goals from field, Beeson, 6; McClung, 4; Dall, 3; Hummel, 1; Gilkey, 2; Trask, 1; Dunlap, 1. Goals from fouls, Beeson, 3; McClung, 5; Gilkey, 1. Referee, Braden.

HELENA (Mont.) Feb. 5.—The House today passed an anti-bookmaking and pool-selling measure. It limits racing to fourteen days in any county, and tools may be sold on these events anywhere within the State. Bookmaking on all foreign events is barred.

Track Meet Postponed.

The annual interclass track meet which was to have been held at Occidental College this afternoon has been postponed until next week, as the track is too muddy to be used.

WISE TALKS

By the "Office Boy"

There is nothing in pessimism. The man who continually refuses to see the sunlight, who always mopes in the shadows, who knows no love, no charity, no good will toward his fellowman—oh, what a miserable existence must be his. God gives us sorrows to offset our joys, and tears to act as a check upon our mirth, but he does not intend the tears to last always, nor the sorrows to make us confirmed mourners. Cheer up! Smile! Be merry! Cast your troubles out of your heart. Throw them into the well of forgetfulness and forget to preserve the key. Meet your fellowman with a kind word and a firm grasp of the hand. Pat him on the back and give him the words of advice and encouragement for which his heart is probably longing. Be natural. Be yourself. Don't let the monster Hate enter into your thoughts, and you will find that life is more full of roses than of thorns, and that you are more noble, better, and happier for the words of cheer on your lips and the sunshine in your soul. Trading at cheerful stores helps a lot, where a salesman is not reprimanded if he don't make a sale. Do you know half the stores expect a salesman to tell you whether they have the article you want or not? Make the sale anyway. Sell you anything. That's all wrong. You know and your friends know when you get some old style article that that salesman has sold you a lemon. And if you ever do patronize that store again, you fight shy of the clerk. The Silverwood Stores take the opposite view of things. Every salesman tries to wait upon you so kindly and intelligently that you'll go away smiling, even if you don't buy, "The man knows his business, and I'll bet that's a white establishment." My mission is to induce you to visit our stores, to urge you to do your trading with us. I realize if I can only get you started, you'll like us and our wares. Won't you drop in and get acquainted? Ask us questions. Use our telephones. Our stores are awfully homelike.

SATURDAY, FEBRU

AMATEURISH.

BOSS BUNGLER LEAVES CHAOS

President Peixotto Railroad Officers' Ticket.

Ignorant of Conditions He Meddles in Affairs.

Southern Commission Mus Unravel Tangle.

Sidney S. Peixotto of San Francisco president of the Pacific Athletic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union and mogul of amateur athletics in the north, tarried in Los Angeles long enough to stir local athletic affairs into a muddle that may endanger the harmony which now exists in southern A.A.U. circles.

At the meeting of the local commissioner of the A.A.U., held Wednesday night in order that Mr. Peixotto might arrange to organize Southern California athletics upon an independent basis, he railroaded the business through without fully considering the athletic conditions here, and the whole performance, according to a strict interpretation of the A.A.U. rules, was conducted illegally.

As the delegates who voted for the new officers represented prospective and not actual members of the A.A.U., it is asserted that the persons elected could be prohibited from exercising the authority of their positions if it were so desired. The new commission, it is said, has no legal standing, and only is to be regarded as a tentative organization.

George W. Braden, chairman of the local A.A.U. commission, made the arrangements to have present delegates from institutions which had consented to become members of the A.A.U. at the meeting Wednesday night, and had done practically all the work in preparation for the organization of the independent commission. Braden's associates naturally thought that he would be elected president of the new commission, but Peixotto, uninformed as to Braden's work on the commission, insisted him for an inferior position, and chose Charles Raitt as his candidate for the presidency.

TO FINISH WORK.

Although Braden has been pressed with professional duties that threatened to force him to resign from the A.A.U. commission in the near future, he was willing and somewhat anxious to manage local A.A.U. affairs until the commission had been put on a solid foundation, as he had had practically full charge of the preliminary arrangements. However, he did not demur to Peixotto's proposition, and Raitt was elected president of the new commission. Raitt did not want the place, but as Peixotto insisted upon his taking it, he consented.

After Peixotto left the city, the former members of the old commission and some of the delegates began to realize that Braden should have been elected to the presidency of the new commission, and they began to repent their action in blindly following the plan laid down by Peixotto.

Tuesday rumors were rife in amateur athletic circles that Raitt would be requested to make way for Braden at the head of the commission, and an effort would be made to unravel the general bungling that resulted from Peixotto's railroading system.

ANOTHER MEETING.

Raitt, Braden and other members of the new commission are to meet today to discuss the situation. Raitt says he accepted the position reluctantly, and will be glad to resign in favor of Braden if the best interests of local amateur sports could be served in that way. Braden says he will assume the presidency if the members of the commission wish to make the change.

Braden and Raitt seem to think that they have been placed in a false light by the action that was taken at the meeting, and the A.A.U. members who believe that Braden should be at the head of the new commission claim that Peixotto bungled the job when he attempted to break into the local athletic situation.

Legally, by rules of the A.A.U., the commission has not the right to organize with a president and other officers until such time as the national body declares it an institution independent of the P.A.A., and if this be true this election or the one which may take place to reseat Braden will be entirely out of place, except as a theatrical paper organization. In that case Braden would still be in power as chairman of the commission, appointed by Peixotto, and not as president of the commission, which office does not exist.

In similar manner, delegates and other officers not now members of the commission are mere straw men and not officers, in fact, until Southern California shall have been organized into a district of its own, which eventually is expected. Then may a president and other officers hold office in fact.

EMERYVILLE RACES.

ENGLISH MAIL DISQUALIFIED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, Feb. 5.—English Mail won the two-year-old race at Emeryville today, but was disqualified for fouling and placed last. The colt interfered with Warfare and others and then carried Judge Quinn to the inside fence, winning from that youngster by a neck. Scoville made a claim of foul.

John Milken, owner of English Mail, stood to win thousands of dollars. It was one of the best-played "good things" of the season. Fine weather prevailed and the track is rapidly drying out. Results:

Futurity course, selling: Plausible, 118 (Keogh,) won; Constantia, 127 (Van Dusen,) second; Agnolo, 129 (Gelbert,) third; time, 1:12 1-5. Flying Dance, Sungil, Hal, Handmaiden, Sidsilver, Queen Bessie, Celeres, Silver Knight and Bill Curtis finished as named.

BOOKIES TRIM THE SUCKERS.

SEVEN RACES ENOUGH TO "GET" THE GAMBLERS.

Old Plugs Chase Each Other Around in the Mud at Arcadia Track and Take Turns at Winning—Events Are Put on These Days to Give Skates Chance to Win.

The bookmakers got some more money away from the suckers out at the Arcadia race track yesterday, in pursuance of the reported policy to skin the sports every day until the end of the final day's racing. The track was heavy, and the races were all for cheap plugs of no class, but the events were good enough for the gamblers to throw away their money, and that is all the bookies are here for.

No one noticed the time made, for no one cares for that, but a big lot of the gamblers did care about the fourth race, in which the very well-liked Hasty Agnes was beaten by the outsider, Donald McDonald, as a matter of course. John A. also beat the suckers' horse, but the judges put him last for some alleged foul. Results:

Seven furlongs: Haber, 114 (Powers,) won; Joseph K., 103 (Rice,) second; Sam Bernard, 114 (McGee,) third; time 1:27 1-5. Friar of Elgin, Bright Albert, Liberto, Pinaud, The Borgian, Wisteriar, Astral II and Byron also ran. Viriando, Paul I and Town Topics scratched.

Five furlongs: Maid of Gotham, 108 (Goldstein,) won; Rosslare, 108 (Dugan,) second; Belle of Brass, 103 (Page,) third; time 1:01 3-5. Almena, Miss Naomi, Balerian, Glenart, Nebraska Lass, Bold, Hattie Hoffman, Pomare and Belle of Menard also ran. Lanita, Fore, Vibrate and Galsina scratched.

Seven furlongs: Snowball, 105 (Butwell,) won; Grande Dame, 100 (Goldstein,) second; Norfolk, 108 (McGee,) third; time 1:26. Wise Child, Ed Ball, La Londe, Rey Del Mundo and Pacific Electric also ran. Arcourt, Skyo, Rubinon and Pretension scratched.

Mile: Donald McDonald, 101 (Dugan,) won; Hasty Agnes, 104 (Page,) second; Red Gauntlet, 112 (Powers,) third; time 1:40. John A. finished second, but was placed last for fouling. Magazine scratched.

Mile and one-quarter: Meringo, 108 (Aubuchon,) won; Harry Scott, 114 (Powers,) second; Lord Stanhope, 105 (Dugan,) third; time 2:08 2-5. Charley Paine also ran.

Six furlongs: Star Thistle, 107 (Howard,) won; Right Sort, 104 (McGee,) second; Inclement, 107 (Russell,) third; time 1:13 2-5. Uncle Walter, Servience, Woolwinder, Tungsten and Orphan Boy also ran. Empire Expedition, Likely Dieudonne, Little Flush, Short Cut, Provedore and Nasmerito scratched.

Seven furlongs: Mar. Randolph won, Voorhees second, Homeless third; time 1:27 1-5. Albion H., Hannibal Bey, King Leopold, Woodthorpe and Trill also ran. Sen. Barrett and Guiding Star scratched.

FIVE TEAMS ARE TIED.

Root and Folger and Other Teams Cover Nearly Thousand Miles in Forty Hours.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the close of the fortieth hour in the six-day bicycle race in Convention Hall tonight, the five leading teams had ridden 993 miles and nine laps. The teams traveled along at a fairly even pace all day today. The slowest riding was twenty-two miles and the best was twenty-four in the thirty-ninth hour. Eddie Root won the final mile, with Fred Hill a close second and Jimmy Moran third.

The biggest crowd of the week was out to see the semi-finals, and there was plenty doing to amuse the bugs. At 7 o'clock tonight it was announced that Devonvitch and Mackey had retired from the race on account of a lack of good wheels. However, an hour later, the Russian took the track and it was announced that he would finish the race by himself. When he took the track he was five miles behind his wheeling comrades, but the crowd gave him a glad hand, and to show his appreciation he whooped 'em up and pilfered a pair of laps.

The team standings:

Root and Fogler, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Hill and Demara, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Moran and Kramer, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Walker and Palmer, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Bardgett and Mitton, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Wiley and Cameron, 993 miles, 8 laps.

Wilcox and Senhouse, 993 miles, 7 laps.

Devonvitch, 993 miles, 9 laps.

Track Meet Postponed.

The U.S.C.-Los Angeles High track meet, which was to have been held at Bovard Field today, has been postponed until early in the week, because of the wet grounds.

Eighteen persons, including women and children, were carried out of a blazing tenement house in Lorimer street, Brooklyn, by policemen early yesterday. The property loss was about $16,000

WELSH SIGNS TO FIGHT ERNE.

CONTEST TO TAKE PLACE AT NEW ORLEANS.

Boys Are to Box at the Lightweight Limit, and Englishman Is on His Way to Battleground—Philadelphian Is Tough Man to Handle. One of Best Scraps Promised.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Freddie Welsh, the English boxer, is matched to meet Young Erne of Philadelphia in a twenty-round mill at the West Side Athletic Club, this city, on Saturday, February 20. The officials of the West Side clinched this match last night when telegrams were received from both men agreeing to terms.

This scrap should be one of the best pulled off here in years. The agreement is that both are to weigh 133 pounds at 6 o'clock. The West Side Athletic Club has been working for some time to stage a star bout for the Mardi Gras season. Welsh left Los Angeles for New Orleans today.

SAN PEDRO BOUTS.

SPORTS SEE KNOCKOUTS.

The San Pedro Athletic Club presented a good card of fights last night to a house crowded with sports, about twenty-five being present from this city. There were four bouts on the list and both the main event and the semi-final furnished knockouts.

The main event was fifteen rounds between Martin Benson of San Pedro and Jimmie Maier of Los Angeles and the end came quickly, for Maier knocked out Benson in the first round. In the semi-final between Jeannie Davis of Watts and Jack Sharkey of Los Angeles, Davis put out Sharkey in the fourth round with a right smash to the jaw.

The first prelim between Billy Capelle and Young Miller was won by Capelle on a decision and in the second, Joe Livermore and Young Pico fought a four round draw. Charley Anslinger was referee.

M'CAREY'S CARD.

SEVEN FIGHTS TUESDAY.

Fight bugs who like plenty of action will have all they want next Tuesday evening at McCarey's pavilion, when the Pacific Athletic Club will stage a card made up of seven contests. The complete programme is as follows:

Frank Picato and Charlie Dalton, ten rounds.

Jack Burns and Jim Cameron, ten rounds.

Young McGovern and Kid Cleveland, four rounds.

Jim Andrews and Frank Nelson, four rounds.

Young Turner and Tattooed Kid, four rounds.

Hoosier Kid and Bill Bentley, four rounds.

Chester Moss and Dan Cullen, four rounds.

Although this will constitute forty rounds of boxing should all of the bouts go the limit, there will be no delay in pulling off the contests on schedule time. The card is to begin at 8 o'clock and the four-round lads will have their gloves on and ready to fight in the order of their matches.

Picato is training at the pavilion, and yesterday put in a busy period, weighing 137½ pounds after his exercise. He will have no trouble in making the 133 at 4:30 o'clock, according to Roy Page, who is looking after the Pknockout kid."

Dalton went through his stunts at Doyle's camp yesterday and was much lighter than Picato when his day's work ended. Dalton seems to have more spirit than usual and he declared that he would go into this battle prepared to win and show the fans that he is not a back number.

Jack Burns also is training at Vernon and showing well. He does not expect to find Cameron easy, but Jack expects to be victorious. Cameron was at the pavilion and showed activity. He has improved in his form and would not be recognized as the green fighter who first tackled Frank Holbrook.

The preliminaries are of the better class and embrace some of the best of the lesser lights. Young McGovern will be seen again, his opponent being Kid Cleveland, the lively negro boxer of Santa Anita. Cleveland and McGovern will weigh about 112 pounds and the meeting of the two should result in a red-hot battle.

Frank Nelson is tipped off by the Chicago contingent as a welterweight of considerable ability and he has been trying to get on in Los Angeles and show the fans just how good he is. Andrews is one of the toughest 145-pound duskies in the city and may give Nelson all he wants when they book up for their four-round bout.

The bugs generally want to see Chester Moss in action again, and he will go on with Dan Cullen of Chicago, who will make his initial appearance in Southern California. Cullen is a good boxer and hopes to make it interesting for Moss.

BORROWED BABY FOR SUIT.

Wife Seeking Divorce Attempts to Palm Off Orphan for Her Own Child.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BELLINGHAM, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because she had no child as the issue of her marriage with James Welch, whom she was suing for divorce, and because she wished in spite of the fact to secure alimony from him, Mrs. Cora Welch borrowed a baby from an orphanage at Georgetown, Wash., and attempted to palm it off on her husband and on the court as her own and Welch's. This was the testimony given today in the divorce suit of the Welches and as a result of the showing made, the plaintiff was denied the decree she asked and the defendant was given one without even having filed a cross-complaint.

The principal witness in the case was the matron of the orphanage, who testified that Mrs. Welch had secured from the home the child in question, stating that she wished to adopt it.

At the time she filed suit, Mrs. Welch secured from the defendant $400 suit money, telling the court that she was soon to become a mother. She went to Georgetown immediately afterward and returned with a child, which she declared had been born to her there.

TAKES GUN BY MUZZLE.

PETALUMA, Feb. 5.—Robert Cockrill, the twenty-year-old son of Dr. Bruce Cockrill of Bloomfield, was accidentally shot and injured today while hunting with his brother. While taking a "pump" shotgun from the boat by the muzzle, the gun was discharged, inflicting a fearful wound in the young man's side and shoulder. His brother was compelled to half carry him for two miles before medical assistance could be secured. His condition is critical.

Fire at Charlottesville, Va., yesterday destroyed property valued at $220,000. The blaze originated in the building of the Charlottesville Hardware Company on Main street.

petition—that is, necessitating the appointments being made under the spoils system. Every man competent to speak with authority because of his knowledge of and familiarity with the work of those censuses, has stated that the result was to produce extravagance and demoralization."

After quoting from official reports on the support of his position, the President continues:

FRAUD ON PUBLIC.

"In view of the temporary character of the work, it would be well to waive the requirements of the civil service law as regards geographical apportionments, but the appointees should be chosen by competitive examination from the lists provided by the Civil Service Commission. The non-competitive examination in a case like this is not only vicious, but is in effect a fraud upon the public. No essential change is effected by providing that it be conducted by the Civil Service Commission, and to provide that the employés shall be selected without regard to political party affiliations is empty and misleading, unless, at the same time, it is made effective in the only way in which it is possible to make it effective—that is, by providing that the examination shall be made competitive.

"I also recommend that if provision is made that the census printing work may be done outside the Government Printing Office, it shall be explicitly provided that the government authorities shall see that the eight-hour law is applied in effective fashion to those outside offices.

"Outside of these matters, I believe that the bill is on the whole satisfactory and represents an improvement upon previous legislation on the subject."

SEES FIRST RAILROAD.

Octogenarian of Alturas Views Train on New Road After Long Isolation.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALTURAS, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Uncle Mart Henderson, 83 years old, of Dorris Creek in this county, had never seen a railroad train of any kind until he came to Alturas a few days ago on business and saw a train of the Nevada-California Oregon Railroad, switching here.

This road was only recently completed to Alturas and its trains have been objects of interest to many residents of the Upper Country, who seldom go far enough from home to see the railroads. Henderson is one of the most prominent men in the county and has served as Supervisor.

He came here before the railroads were built and has remained here steadily since, going not even so far from home as Reno. He was content to wait until a railroad should be built into the county before seeing what one was like in reality.

GIRL CONCEALS IDENTITY.

Examined for Sanity She Refuses to Answer Questions and Secret Is Protected.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the saddest cases that has ever come before the Superior Court of this county was heard today when the sanity of a nineteen-year-old girl, giving the name of Viola Edwards, was considered.

It was learned that the name was fictitious, and every effort to secure the correct one was blocked by the court ordering the interrogation covering this part of the testimony left blank. She became ill first in December. She remained silent through all of the proceedings today, refusing to answer any questions.

She is almost a skeleton, and refuses to eat. There is but little chance of her living long.

LAY-OFF AT SHOPS.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Southern Pacific Company gave notices to most of its shop employés in Sacramento today of a lay-off tomorrow and while no official statement to the effect has been made it is generally understood that all departments will go on a five-day basis for awhile.

The recent floods, preventing the operation of as much rolling stock as usual, is the reason assigned for the lay-off. Instead of laying off a few men entirely, all are laid off one day a week.

When traffic becomes normal again the regular schedule will go into effect. For many months the men have all been working eight hours daily instead of nine.

To Be Thrown Open This Month.

The eighth grand Hiohe Extension opening will occur February 28. Attend the meetings daily and evening, ground floor, Chamber of Commerce, or write for the details of the Homeseekers' Club plan now being successfully operated for the eighth time.

Seven other great openings during the past four years have become the scenes of profit making experience for land buyers.

This Eighth Extention is all under irrigation, which produces crops sufficient to pay for itself this year, and such an opportunity as this and our previous colonies cannot occur again, at the old time low wholesale prices.

BELL.

FOR SALE—MR. HOMESEEKER, HAVE you seen Bell? If not you have not yet been the most desirable place in Southern California for suburban homes. We have the best water in the State, and well equipped water works, which go with the land. We have the best soil, and a magnificent view of the mountains and sea. The Whittier fast line or the Salt Lake will take you to the heart of the city in 20 minutes. Why live on a cramped city lot when you can buy a home for much less and have land enough to raise your own chickens, vegetables, fruit, etc., and where you can truly get the full benefit of the pure air, sunshine; in fact comforts of the country, and at the same time have all the advantages of the city? The opportunity to get a cheap home so close in is passing away, and on account of great improvements under way we predict that all property here will double in value in the next few years. We have arranged to show you around. Will you come? A few opportunities; 1-acre home, $1250; ¼-acre home, $1500; 1-½ acre home, $1500; 2-acre home, $2500; 2-acre model poultry ranch, $4000; 10-acre ranch, highly improved, $10,000; also lots and vacant acres. Mr. Meisourier will do the rest. Ask for the secretary of the Bell Water Co. A. B. SHAUB, Bell, Cal.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Moneta-avenue Fire.

Fire of unknown origin last night caused $140 damage to a feed store and contents owned by Sandoz & Lynde at Thirty-seventh street and Moneta avenue.

Massachusetts Officers.

The Massachusetts Society has elected Mrs. E. M. Grant, president, Mrs. Marshall, vice-president; Mr. Thayer, 2nd vice-president; William S. Ridell, secretary; and Philip Savay, treasurer.

Will Give Prizes.

A list of prizes to be given in connection with the Elks' carnival and athletic contests, next July, is being prepared by M. H. Flint, chairman of the Executive Committee. He is also superintending the mailing of thousands of circulars and special invitations.

For Young Folks.

The special dance and entertainment to be given by the Michigan Society of Southern California this evening in Blanchard Hall was first organized by the young members of the organization, but now everybody is joining to make of it a reunion of former residents of the Wolverine State.

King Bee Arrested.

John Nelson, who is the organizer and first supreme president of the Benevolent and Fraternal Order of Bees, was arrested last night at Second street and Broadway by Under Sheriff Hayden of Ventura, on the charge of defrauding a Ventura innkeeper of $100. Despite several appeals to friends, Nelson was unable to procure bail. He will be taken north today.

Surprise to Bride's Parents.

Genevieve Macdonald, daughter of former Senator Macdonald of Tuolumne county, was married to H. F. Gerry of Denver, Colo., and Ten Sleep, Wyo., in Pasadena, at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Gerry has been a resident of Los Angeles for some time. Mr. Gerry was a government scout in Cuba. He has made arrangements to engage in business in Los Angeles. The marriage was a surprise to the bride's parents, who are in San Francisco.

Salt Lake Elks Coming.

Monday morning 700 Salt Lake Elks and friends are expected in Los Angeles on their fourth annual tour. Three special trains bearing them will leave today over the Salt Lake route. They will make the Angelus their headquarters here, and will remain the entire week. Saturday of next week they will go to San Diego, and will again return here the following Monday. Elaborate preparations are made by the local Elks to entertain the visiting herd.

BREVITIES.

Now is the time to figure on your meat bill. You can save money at the Newmarket. Meat prices are advancing all along the line, but we sell only for cash and do not deliver. Our meats are from very choice fat young stall fed steers, and are very tender and sweet. Stop buying meat on credit and bring the cash to the Newmarket and save from 2c to 5c per lb. on your meat. Our daily prices: Boiling beef, 6c per lb.; pot roasts, 8c lb.; rib steak, 10c lb.; prime rib roasts, best end, 15c lb.; thick end, 12½c lb.; corned beef, 6c lb.; legs of young mutton, 12½c lb.; shoulders mutton, 9c lb.; veal roasts, 12½c to 15c lb.; pork roasts, 10c, 12½c and 15c lb.; bacon, sugar cured, 15c lb.; hams, eastern, 14c lb. Bring your cash to the leaders of high quality and low prices, where you get good meat, good weight, good service, a "square deal." Newmarket, 532-34 South Broadway, between 6th and 6th.

LINCOLN DAY ARRANGEMENTS.

TWO GREAT MEETINGS IN THIS CITY ON FRIDAY.

Grand Army of the Republic Calls for General Assembly of Patriotic Societies—Civic Societies and Lincoln Family Club Provide for Notable Oration in Evening.

Two great patriotic meeting are now scheduled to commemorate the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, on February 12. Both will be held in Simpson Auditorium, one in the afternoon and the other on the evening of that day.

The General Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic will announce a full programme for the afternoon meeting, and the feature of the evening meeting will be an oration by Timothy Wilfred Coakley of Boston.

Timothy Wilfred Coakley, of Boston, Lincoln birthday orator at Simpson Auditorium next Friday evening.

The patriotic organizations will assemble on Hope street, between Sixth and Seventh, at 1:30 p.m., and form a column under their respective commands, and will move to Simpson Auditorium promptly at 1:45, where the exercises will begin at 2 o'clock. The formation of the column will be as follows:

Los Angeles Veteran Fife and Drum Corps.
Grand marshal, W. S. Daubenspeck; aides, William Shock, J. S. Wilson, C. R. Stevens, James E. Brockway, George N. Lockwood, George B. Copelin, D. R. Young, F. W. Heidel.
Stanton Post, No. 55, G.A.R.
Kennesaw Post, No. 106, G.A.R.
Bartlett-Logan Post, No. 6, G.A.R.
The Lincoln Family Club.
Stanton Woman's Relief Corps.
Kennesaw Woman's Relief Corps.
Bartlett-Logan Woman's Relief Corps.

Union Circle, Ladies of the G.A.R.
Lawton Circle, Ladies of the G.A.R.
Rosecrans Camp, No. 2, Sons of Veterans.
Auxiliary to Sons of Veterans.
Daughters of Veterans.
Roosevelt Camp, No. 9, Spanish War Veterans.
Ladies' Auxiliary to Spanish War Veterans.

THE EVENING ORATION.

The Centenary Committee, formed of representatives of the New England Society, the Civic League and the Lincoln Family Club, held a second meeting yesterday, and J. M. Guinn, assistant adjutant-general of the G.A.R., Department of California and Nevada, was added to the Committee on Entertainment. The programme was confirmed as follows: Chairman, Hon. J. J. Gosper; declamation, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech," Stanley Hale; reminiscences of the Lincoln Family, Walter G. Lincoln; Lincoln Oration, Timothy Wilfred Coakley.

Platform tickets will be issued to representatives of State, Federal and Municipal governments, and leaders of the various civic and religious societies, through E. P. Vernon of the New England Society, and W. G. Lincoln, 424 San Fernando building. A military band will be secured for the occasion.

IN THE SCHOOLS.

The bill making the day a legal holiday, and which has been signed by the Governor, provides that "all public schools throughout the State shall hold sessions in the forenoon of that day, in order to allow the customary exercises in memory of the martyred President." In accordance with this provision, the Grand Army Committee has invited about sixty members of the G.A.R. and representative citizens to address the pupils of the different schools.

The New York Society will celebrate the anniversary in the evening, in Maple Hall, Figueroa and Lincoln streets, when C. C. McComas will give reminiscences of Lincoln. There will be music, and a dinner will be served to all wearers of the New York badge.

COLORED PEOPLE'S TRIBUTE.

A memorial exercise has been arranged by Bethel Mission, to be held in Washington Amusement Hall, No. 1512 East Twelfth street, at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of the 12th inst. The following programme is announced:

Invocation, Rev. C. C. Halford; "Hail Columbia," colored orchestra; song, George A. Beavers; paper, "Early Environment of Abraham Lincoln," Mrs. B. Wright; vocal duett, Mrs. William Buford and Miss I. Stewart; address, "Results of Emancipation," Rev. J. G. Edmunds; "Educational Advancement of the Negro," Prof. E. L. Chew; "Marching Through Georgia," Mrs. Buford and chorus; patriotic songs, Lincoln Day Quartette, Mme. Linn, Mrs. A. Hulbert, James Spicer and W. Robinson.

THE RECOIL.

STEPHENS DECLINES RECALL NOMINATION.

"Our Set" Now Looking Around for Another Candidate—Is There Conflict Between Recall Provision and New Section of City Charter?

(Copy)

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 5, 1909.

Judge John D. Works,

Chairman of Citizens' Meeting for Naming of a Candidate for Mayor.

Dear Sir:

I regret to find myself compelled by the condition of my wife's health to decline the nomination tendered me by the assembly of citizens over which you presided last Monday.

I explained to the meeting that Mrs. Stephens was too ill for the matter to be decided immediately. Since then I have been hoping that when she was better we could reach a conclusion in favor of my acceptance.

That hope did not terminate until today. I am now satisfied that the stress of my campaign and administration as Mayor would be more than she could endure with safety. I can not accept the nomination.

I wish, however, you would convey to the gentlemen associated with you in this movement my complete sympathy with what they are undertaking to do. I believe a crisis has come in the condition of affairs in this city, and the method you have adopted of correcting the existing evils is the only one practicable at this time. I shall be glad to assist in the work in any way that I can, and I would have been proud to lead as your candidate. Coming as it did from a large gathering of citizens irrespective of party, I look upon it as one of the greatest compliments ever tendered me in my life. To lead in such a contest is an honor of which any man may well be proud, and I am confident that we will experience no difficulty in finding a candidate and that he will be triumphantly elected.

Sincerely yours, WM. D. STEPHENS.

It had been surmised that Mr. Stephens would come to this decision and his letter occasioned no surprise. He has let the recall party take an easy fall.

The letter was sent to Mr. Works yesterday afternoon and its contents were known to the recall leaders soon after it was received. Talk of another candidate was heard at once and the name of A. J. Wallace, Councilman from the Fifth Ward and now ill at home, was most favorably mentioned. There is a movement against Wallace among the recall set, however, that may make his nomination impossible, especially as it is not known that he will be able to enter upon a hard campaign. Other names mentioned were those of Tommy Woolwine, Harry R. Callender, James Slauson, Joseph H. Call and Albert M. Stephens. The use of the name of Callender was without any pretended authority.

Dr. Howton announced yesterday afternoon that he would be willing to be a candidate. Dr. John R. Haynes has been talked of and J. B. Irvine has also been mentioned. Tommy Woolwine seems the logical candidate; but the recallers may have to fall back on Judge McNutt.

CHARTER QUESTION.

A new question has been sprung in the recall agitation. It concerns what many believe to be a serious conflict between the recall section of the city charter and the amendment adopted on Tuesday for direct primary nominations. The recall provision says that any person whom it is sought to remove may be a candidate to succeed himself and unless he otherwise requests in writing his name shall be placed on the ballot without nomination. Charter Amendment No. 4, which carried on Tuesday, provides that all candidates shall be nominated at a primary election and that the two persons receiving the highest vote shall be the only candidates. If the amendments are confirmed by the Legislature and go into effect within the usual time there is speculation as to how the law would be construed as to nominees for a recall election.

WOMAN'S HAND RULES "HUBBY."

LOVE'S DREAM FORGOTTEN IN SPIRITED ARGUMENT.

Landlord, Whom Summoned, Gets Shock at Unusual Sight—Telephone and Mother Play Parts in Preventing Domestic War That Would Have Encouraged an Undertaker.

Flourishing a large revolver, Mrs. Harry Venters of No. 216½ West Second street held her husband at bay yesterday afternoon until the arrival of patrolmen from the Central Police Station. Venters was locked up in the City Jail, for his wife alleged he had threatened to kill her. The case will be investigated. The revolver, a 44-caliber, is kept as evidence. The size of the weapon and the fact that Mrs. Venters handled it as though she meant business apparently prevented more active trouble betwen the man and woman.

According to the story told the officers the couple separated some time ago but became reconciled. Yesterday morning they engaged in an argument over money and the quarrel was renewed in the early afternoon.

The woman alleges Venters came toward her and said: "If you make any outcry, or try to get out of this room, I will kill you."

Undaunted, she turned to the dresser, seized the big gun, cocked it, and pointed it at his breast.

Then, at his wife's command, Venters rang the bell for the landlord. That personage arrived in a few minutes and was astounded at the unusual sight. Mrs. Venters told him to telephone for her parents and then return.

The landlord obeyed. When the parents arrived, they persuaded the woman to give up her weapon.

As the landlord was about to leave the room he was told by Venters that if he heard the bell ring again, he must telephone the police.

The bell was called into service a few moments later, and officers were summoned who took charge of the man and the gun.

"RECALLER" WANTED.

Man Circulating Petitions Against Mayor Harper Sought by Police on Check-Forgery Charge.

Detectives are searching for Russel P. Cole, who is circulating petitions for the recall of Mayor Harper, and who is wanted on a forgery charge.

Cole was formerly employed as a clerk in Attorney Earl Rogers's law offices. The detectives hold a check signed with Rogers's name and with the name of W. H. Dehm, alleged to be a forgery. The officers state that several other worthless checks have been circulated by Cole, according to complaints.

"LUCKY" IN FACT, AS IN NAME.

Baldwin Winning Race With Disease and His Doctor Expects Patient to Recover.

E. J. Baldwin has again lived up to his nickname of "Lucky," and has rallied from the severe attacks of Wednesday and Thursday. Last night Dr. Trueworthy stated that his patient had made a marked gain, and that he expects to fully recover.

"The asthmatic ailment from which Baldwin has been suffering, has been a great drain on his vitality, but he has weathered the worst of the attack," said the doctor. "I am really surprised at the wonderful recuperative powers of my patient. At times it seemed as if he could not possibly live, but tonight he is resting quietly. However, the danger is not past by any means."

Baldwin has every confidence in his ability to throw off the disease, and said just before one of his worst spells, yesterday, that he would be out at the race track in two or three days. His physician stated that this is not possible, as he cannot leave the house in less than two week, without risk of an immediate relapse, even should his recovery from now on be very rapid.

Like all sufferers from asthmatic ailments, Baldwin was in great distress during his attacks, and Dr. Trueworthy feared his patient's heart would fail, as that organ was very weak.

ON OUTER EDGE.

Southern California Gets but Small Overflow of Storm Which Drenched North.

Although the rainfall was fairly large in northern parts of the State yesterday, Los Angeles and neighborhood escaped all but the outer edge of the storm. The total precipitation here in the twenty-four hours up to 1 o'clock this morning was .14 of an inch.

At Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 5.—A drizzling rain fell all day. At 6 o'clock .16 inch had been registered, making a total for the season of 11.20 inches.

Steady Rain at San Pedro.

SAN PEDRO, Feb. 5.—Rain has been falling steadily since noon. Tonight the wind is from the southeast.

Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 5.—It began to rain here early this morning, and there were showers throughout the day. These brought the total precipitation for the season above the 11-inch mark.

Drizzle at Santa Ana.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] During most of the day a fine drizzle has fallen, but as yet it has not developed into a shower. Clear weather would be appreciated by orange and vegetable pickers, celery cutters and grain ranchers. The fall for the season is 9.50. While it rained in the southern end of the county yesterday, none fell here.

WILL ENTERTAIN VISITORS.

The Chamber of Commerce will entertain 200 excursionists from Spokane, Wash., next Friday. The party started yesterday for its trip down the Coast. Stops will be made in the principal cities en route.

LEPROSY SCARE GENERAL.

Scores Telephone for Information About Disease With Which Candy Man Suffers.

Scores of inquiries were received yesterday by the health department relative to the movements of Samuel Bernick, the victim of leprosy, prior to his arrest on Thursday afternoon.

He has had the disease in its most malignant form for three years, and during that time has sold candy to thousands of school children and patrons of the theaters at his small stand at Temple and Spring streets.

His chief trade was with pupils of the Los Angeles High School, who passed that corner on their way to and from school, but he was also accustomed to peddle his wares in front of various theaters.

Yesterday, many of those who fear that they may have come in contact with the man at some time, telephoned for information.

"Was Bernick at the corner of Temple and Spring at 3 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon?" asked one woman.

When assured that he probably was, the woman muttered: "Oh, Lord! I bet all the children have got the leprosy."

Every man, women and child who felt pains in the stomach or head yesterday called on the health department for information as to the symptoms of leprosy. It is altogether unlikely than any one contracted it.

CRUEL FATE.

COSTS HIM LOVE AND THE ARMY.

FORMER SCOTCH GUARDSMAN SORELY AFFLICTED.

Son of Wealthy Parents Forced to Break Engagement and Resign Commission Because of Insomnia. Loses Consciousness and Doctors Work in Vain.

T. F. M. Williamson, the son of wealthy parents in Scotland and formerly a captain in the Royal Scotch Guards, stationed at Glasgow, is in the Receiving Hospital. He is suffering from a malady which puzzles the surgeons.

Early last evening he fainted at the Hotel Van Nuys, and the efforts of Dr. C. W. Cook to revive him were futile. After he had been taken to the hospital, surgeons worked over him for several hours, but without result.

Then, as suddenly as he was stricken, Williamson recovered consciousness and talked to the surgeons, though unintelligibly. It is learned from friends that he once befors had a similar attack.

The affliction is believed to be due to insomnia, from which he has suffered for three years and which cost him not only a domestic life, for which he pined, but also his career in the army.

Three years ago, when he lived in Haddington, Scotland, and was a captain in the Guards, he wooed and won the daughter of a prominent family. Then he was seized with insomnia, and a year ago, by the advice of his physicians, he broke off his engagement and also resigned his commission in the army.

He came to the United States in the hope that the change might benefit him, and visited Los Angeles because his aunt, Mrs. Jean G. McCracken of No. 315 Avenue 31, lives here.

He arrived in the city in June and, believing that physical work would improve his health, secured a position as laborer on a ranch at Duarte. Later he went to the ranch of W. K. Stewart in Covina, where he has since been employed.

But his insomnia continued and he recently told friends that he had not slept soundly more than twenty times in a year.

Tuesday he came to the city and registered at the Natick. When he was awake most of the night he sought relief in liquor.

Yesterday he entered the Van Nuys buffet and drank some whisky. A few seconds later he fell to the floor.

To a fellow-guest at the Natick, Williamson stated yesterday that he has often wondered why he did not shoot himself.

BREWERIES ORGANIZE.

Shutting Off "Blind Pigs" and Showing Importance of the Industry Among Other Objects.

The brewing interests yesterday organized the Southern California Brewers' Association. The members of the new organization are the Maier, Los Angeles, Mathie, San Diego Consolidated and Anaheim Union companies; also Adloff & Hauerwass, representing the Wieland Brewing Company of San Francisco, and the Rainier Bottling Company, representing the Seattle Brewing and Malting Company.

The object of the organization is to improve the condition of the retail liquor houses as much as possible, and to form a combine against "blind pigs." Also to promote and foster the brewing industry in Southern California, for the interchange of ideas among the members leading to the practice of economy, to improve the quality and service, and maintain a friendly spirit.

Fred Maier was elected president; J. H. Zitt, vice-president, and William Kraemer, secretary and treasurer. The membership-at-large constitutes an advisory board.

One of the plans of the association is to start a campaign of education and enlightment to show the people of Southern California the importance of the brewing industry.

The most stringent rule of the new organization is directed against the illegal sale of liquor. It has decided that members will not sell beer to any dealer who is without a license, or who does not do a legitimate business.

TOO FAST FOR HIM.

Driver of Truck, Unable to Get Out of Way of Hollywood Trolley, Gets Hurt.

Running at high speed, a Hollywood interurban car last night crashed into a four-mule truck of the Pioneer Truck Company, on Sunset boulevard, near Golden Gate avenue. One of the mules was killed, another was severely injured, the wagon was smashed, and the driver, Fred Rich of No. 1637 Carlton street, slightly hurt.

Rich was taken to the Receiving Hospital and treated for a strained back. He says he saw the car coming, that he tried to drive off the tracks, but the coach bore down on him so rapidly he was only able to turn his leaders off when the collision occurred.

NUMBER ONE.

FIRST VICTIM OF NEW ACT.

Santa Anita Horseman Now in County Jail.

Anti-Race Track Bill Said to Be Responsible.

Unusual Proceeding to Hold Defendant Here.

The passage by the State Senate on Thursday of the act which will kill horse racing in California bore its first fruit in Los Angeles yesterday. Because the act passed, John Armour, a well-known horseman, who has been running a string of horses at Santa Anita, was arrested last night at Arcadia, by Costable Osterhoit, and he spent the night in the County Jail.

Had the act failed to pass the complainant against Armour would have simply preferred charges to rule Armour off the American turf for life—which he considered sweeter revenge.

Another interesting feature is that Armour was arrested upon an order of Superior Judge W. P. James, because it was represented to the court that he intended to remove himself from its jurisdiction, in connection with a civil action which has been brought against him. This, too, is a rare procedure.

O. F. Humes, a trainer at the track, who is said to be interested in one of the books, claims that on January 19 he gave Armour money with which to bid in Mary F., a horse that ran second in a selling race. Armour did bid in the horse for $200 at the auction, and secured the pony.

As he was leading the animal to his stables he was accosted by the owner of the horse, who told Armour that it was all he had in the world, and asked if he could not buy back the runner. Armour consented to consider an offer, and several days later sold the horse to the original owner for $1100.

Hume declares he could neither get the horse from Armour, nor $900, which he claims he advanced to Armour to bid it in. Armour denies Hume ever gave him $900.

Nevertheless Hume brought a civil suit against Armour to recover the $500, and to friends declared his belief that the anti-race track bill would not pass, and that he would take steps to have Armour ruled off all American tracks for life.

But when the bill was passed he expressed fear that Armour would attempt to evade the civil suit, and then secured the order from Judge James which has placed Armour in jail.

Armour declares the deal is a frame-up.

NIGHT FUNERAL CORTEGE.

Led by Band and Singing Mourners, First Observance Here of Salvation Army Custom.

Pedestrians on Hill street at 7:30 o'clock last night were surprised at the unusual spectacle of a funeral procession led by a brass band and singing mourners. It is a time-honored custom of the Salvation Army but followed here for the first time.

John Goddid, an officer of the army, died Wednesday night at his home at No. 415 South Flower street. The procession started at Pierce Bros.' undertaking rooms, and made its way to the army's headquarters at No. 409 Hill street. There was music by the band and singing the entire length of the route, and at the hall the service was for the most part musical. After it, the body was escorted back to Pierce Bros.' parlors. There, this morning, a second service will be conducted by the board of relief of the Odd Fellows' lodge, of which Goddid was a member. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

MYSTERY OF WOUND.

Oakland Man Found Wandering in Dazed Condition With Laceration on Back of Head.

J. V. Johnson, a real estate man of Oakland, was found wandering in a dazed condition last night, at Pico and Hoover streets, by Patrolman Yarrow, and when taken to the Receiving Hospital was found to be suffering from a deep laceration on the back of the skull. How he received the injury Johnson cannot tell.

The wound indicates that he was struck with a blunt instrument, but he told the detectives that no money or other valuables were missing from his clothes. Johnson says he had only two drinks during the day, a cocktail in a Main-street saloon and another in a Spring-street resort. He believes he was drugged. The last he can remember was boarding a street car.

HERE FOR PRISONER.

M. V. D. Miller, deputy sheriff of Warren county, Tenn., arrived in the city last night for William W. Wallace, who was arrested several days ago at the request of the Tennessee authorities. It is charged that Wallace, who was Clerk of Warren county, is $4000 short in his accounts. Wallace's wife and family, now in San Francisco, do not know of his arrest.

WHERE IS MISSING BOY?

Left Home of His Parents Two Weeks Ago and Has not Been Heard from Since.

Henry LaRue, son of H. E. LaRue, a carpenter, living at No. 1174 East Thirty-eight street, left his home two weeks ago today and no trace has been found of him since. He had been attending a physical culture class on Broadway, for seven weeks, and the last his mother saw of him was when he told her he was going to the class. He is large for his size, being 5 ft. 4 in. tall, and weighing about 140 pounds; though but 15 years of age. He has a dark complexion, brown eyes and brown, wavy hair. He wore the gray coat shown in the picture, gray cap, gray cotton shirt, and brown pantaloons, when he left home. His parents' telephone number is South 1521.

WOOD SCARCE.

OBLIGED TO BUY TIES ABROAD.

NORTHWEST CANNOT FURNISH NEEDED SUPPLY.

Southern Pacific Purchases Four Million Sleepers from Japan—Timber Agent Says Every Railroad Must Soon Seek Them Outside the United States—Plans in Mexico.

A total of 4,000,000 ties has been purchased in Japan for the construction of the branch lines of the Southern Pacific in Mexico.

The timber supply of the Northwest has been so depleted during recent years that it was impossible to secure the necessary supply there.

C. T. Weir, timber agent of the railroad company in Mexico, arrived at the Hollenbeck yesterday, and will leave today for San Francisco, from whence he will sail for Japan.

"Practically three companies," he said, "own, or control, all the timber lands in Washington and Oregon, not included in the government reserves. This makes it hard to secure ties, as much of this land is being held for the time when lumber is higher than at present. The supply of redwood is very short, and about twelve companies own all of it.

"We have been purchasing a great deal of timber during the last four years. I should estimate the total at about 15,000,000 feet. Nearly all of this will go into our lines in Mexico.

"We can purchase oak ties in Japan and lay them down in Mexico for about the same price we have to pay for fir ties in this country, and the oak ties last three times as long.

"Japan has recently been opening up large forests on one of the northern islands and has been offering ties for sale for the last two years. Other railroads in the United States are buying from the Orient and it will not be long before all ties are purchased abroad.

"The life of a tie is about five years and it requires about 3000 of them to every mile of railroad. Eventually, I think, cement ties will be used."

Mr. Weir stated that the Southern Pacific expects to run trains into Mazatlan by April, but that it will require several years to complete the line to Guadalajara, where it will join a branch of the Mexican Central and afford a direct route to the capital of Mexico.

HER PROMPTNESS HIS UNDOING.

Woman Misses Suit Case, Gives Alarm and Other Guests Catch Light-Fingered Fellow.

James Price was caught, last night, in the act of burglarizing the rooms of E. Casting in the Franklin apartment-house at No. 141 North Broadway, and was detained until the arrival of detectives.

The young man had first entered the room of Mrs. Sylvia Stukey and stolen a suit case. Just after he had left, she noticed that the case was gone and immediately notified the landlady, Mrs. Mary Leslie. Other guests heard of the robbery and investigated. As Casting reached his apartments he noticed that they were lighted, and as he opened the door he saw Price appropriating a suit of clothes and a pair of shoes.

STRUCK BY CAR.

Charles Setelmeyer, 42 years of age, a professional gardener, living at No. 6 East Colorado street, Pasadena, was struck by a street car at Spring and Market streets last night, and sustained several cuts about the head. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

E. L. Hutchinson, who watched the canvass of the charter amendment election returns, says suit will be begun to enjoin the certification of them to the Legislature.

A number of Los Angeles merchants brought suit yesterday to have advertising contracts with the Mercantile Promoting Company declared void.

A San Pedro man filed a petition against the municipality, asking $1000 damages for a deep excavation in front of his property, which left his lot "up in the air."

Judge Wilbur decided in the John H. Sheffield case that the accused might be admitted to probation before commitment.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SUIT TO ENJOIN AMENDMENTS?

HUTCHISON SAYS ONE WILL BE BROUGHT TODAY.

Certificate of Result of the Election of Tuesday Is Authorized by the Council and Has Been Executed by City Clerk—Mayor's Signature Now Needed.

Acting under the instructions of the Council at its final session yesterday in canvassing the returns of the charter amendment election, the City Attorney completed the certificate of the result last evening, and it was signed by the City Clerk. It now wants only the signature of the Mayor to make it valid for submission to the Legislature, now in session at Sacramento.

The final session found E. L. Hutchison present. Hutchison said yesterday afternoon that he is preparing to interpose legal objections to the certification of the returns. He said these objections will probably be based on the alleged irregularities in the returns themselves, to be ventilated by means of an injunction suit. Hutchison was reluctant to disclose much about his purposes, but intimated that action by one of the courts will be sought this morning.

If not obstructed, the City Attorney will take the certificate to Sacramento Monday or Tuesday. He is to attend the session of the Legislature to discuss several bills affecting Los Angeles that are now in the hands of committees. He will particularly devote his work to opposition to the San Pedro harbor measure introduced by Senator Savage, and in this others will assist him.

Election officials who figured that the all-night count of the tedious charter election ballots would bring double remuneration, are now declaring they have been "stung." Bills at the rate of $12 for each official have been filed with the returns, and have been turned down by the Finance Committee of the Council.

"I'm blamed glad I didn't vote to increase your salaries," said one officer when told yesterday that only $5 for the long service could be allowed. This is the rate fixed by the city ordinance for special elections, and the Council will insist on its observance. Seeing so many special elections in sight, they are conserving the available money to meet them. Even some have suggested a special bond election to provide funds for the expenses of the other special elections in sight.

Gross Receipt Tax.

The Home Telephone Company yesterday paid into the city treasury $15,222.74 as its special franchise tax of 2 per cent. on its gross receipts for the year 1908. This is the only utility company that pays a percentage of its gross receipts.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

WORKING SAME GAMBLE GAME.

LOCAL MERCHANTS WAKE UP AND BRING SUITS.

Ask Court to Declare Contracts for Advertising Scheme and Drawing for Shopworn Piano Void and to Prevent Their Transfer to San Francisco Collection Agency.

A number of merchants doing business in the southeast section of Los Angeles brought suit yesterday, in the Superior Court, against H. O. Barrett and J. A. Codon, doing business under the firm name of the Mercantile Promoting Company, and the Manufacturers' Mercantile Company, the latter corporation doing business in San Francisco. The plaintiffs in the case are J. M. Poundstone & Son, Pentero & Rogers, M. DePierro & Sons, Shimmer Drug Company, Mallman Grocery Company, and others.

The plaintiffs assert that in September, 1907, the defendants organized or attempted to organize an Advertising Club, composed of certain business enterprises owned and controlled by the plaintiffs. It is also alleged that in consideration of the payment of sums ranging from $25 to $50 each, they were to participate in an advertising scheme, including, among other things, a piano contest, when an instrument, said to be worth $400, was to be disposed of by a ticket scheme.

This scheme was to be confined exclusively to merchants in the southeast part of the city, and no business house other than those fronting on Central avenue south of Thirtieth street, should be advertised. It is also alleged that as an inducement for the plaintiffs to engage in the scheme, persons were to be employed by the defendants to solicit trade for the houses represented, and that churches and lodges were to be worked in the same behalf.

It was also agreed, it is asserted, that tickets were to be issued for the piano drawing of assorted denominations, and display cards of the business of the plaintiffs and the piano sale, should be printed in one of the newspapers of Los Angeles, with a full-page display for more than four months beginning September 25, 1907.

It is alleged the defendants have not complied with the agreement and contrary to its import have taken in more than one business of the same character, nor did they solicit business for the plaintiffs as was agreed. It is also said the piano to be disposed of is not worth $400, but $85, and is shopworn, and such an instrument that nobody would desire to possess it.

It is also set out that the Mercantile Promoting Company has or is about to transfer its contracts with the plaintiffs to the Manufacturers' Mercantile Company of San Francisco, a collection concern, and that it will be a great hardship for the plaintiffs to go to San Francisco, to defend the same. They therefore ask that the contract be declared void, and the defendants be enjoined from transferring or disposing of the same.

HOW ABOUT IT?
CAN COW WALK STRAIGHT?

The trial of H. F. Keeler, a cattle raiser of Lancaster, on charges preferred by the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was before Justice Summerfield and a jury yesterday afternoon. The matter will be resumed this morning.

During the progress of the hearing Harry Vreeland, a witness who said he was an expert in the cattle business and knew all about roundups on the ranges, testified in behalf of the accused. He declared that when he saw the cow, upon whose emaciated condition the cruelty charge against Keeler is based, she was busy licking her sides; "and I never heard of a sick cow doing that."

Deputy Dist.-Atty. Blair sought to bring out the fact hat the cow was suffering from inattention on the part of Keeler, and was unable to walk straight, when the witness interrupting, said:

"I have been in the cattle business a good many years, and I have yet to see a straight cow path or a cow walk straight. They run straight, but I never heard of a cow walking straight."

A question in regard to the authenticity of a cow picture, supposed to represent the animal in question, having arisen, the court took a recess. One of the features of the case was the questioning of the witness by members of the jury, who seemed to know something about the cow business themselves.

PRISONER HAS HOPE.
PROBATION MAY BE GRANTED.

Judge Wilbur has practically decided the lengthy Sheffield case. John H. Sheffield was convicted of a statutory offense and sentenced to ten years in prison at Folsom. An appeal of his case was taken to the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the lower court affirmed. Application was then made to admit the prisoner to probation, and that was the rock upon which a number of attorneys split.

Judge Wilbur yesterday announced that he had made a close study of the case and reached the conclusion that at the time of the sentence and before commitment of the prisoner, the court has the power to grant probation. Whether it has the power to reduce the sentence is not so clear in the mind of the court. Sheffield was given until February 19 to produce witnesses in his behalf with a possible view of admitting him to probation, if the facts warrant the exercise of such clemency.

WHEN IS DESERTION?
WAITS EIGHTEEN YEARS.

To wait eighteen years after the desertion of his wife before instituting proceedings for a divorce, and then be denied the decree, was the experience of Alfred O. Newling, in his action against Henrietta Newling, before Judge Monroe, yesterday. It was in evidence that the couple were married in British Columbia in July, 1891, and that in October she deserted him. He came to Los Angeles about twelve years ago, and the couple have not been living together since her first desertion.

Judge Monroe denied the decree for the present, on two grounds. One was that he did not know whether desertion was a cause for divorce in British Columbia, and there had been no evidence except that of the husband that they had not lived together since he had come to this city. Corroboration of this was necessary. Now the attorney for Newling will search the law library to see what the statutes of the Dominion are on the subject of divorce.

Fumi Fugimotto, a dainty little Japanese woman, was the complainant in the suit brought against Bruhel Fugimotto, charging him with cruelty and failure to provide. The testimony was taken through the interpreter, Fujii, and although Judge James granted the decree, he said the testimony was not very satisfactory. The couple were married in Tokyo, in 1905, but during their life in Los Angeles the treatment of the woman by her husband was cruel in the extreme.

PRISON SUITS HIM.
WHAT BEFELL ANANIAS?

In Judge Wilbur's court yesterday, Newton Barnes, who pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, said he did not care to apply for probation. He declared that he wanted to be sent to prison in order that he might get away from some of his bad associates in Los Angeles, who got him into this trouble.

"Five years in Folsom," said the court. "Can't you make it San Quentin?" asked the accused. But the change was not made. San Quentin appears to be the favorite prison with the unfortunates brought up for sentence.

Paul Kane was also before Judge Wilbur, on the charge of robbing his room-mate. When arraigned a week ago Kane had informed the court that his wife was dead and his children being cared for by his mother, a condition found to be untrue. When asked why he had told the lie, Kane confessed that he expected to be sent to prison and wanted to get off as easily as possible. Judge Wilbur was mad clear through, and said with some show of feeling: "Young man you ought to read the chapter of the Bible that tells of the fate that befell Ananias on a certain occasion. It might do you some good." The case was continued for another week.

CUT DOWN STREET.
LOT UP IN THE AIR.

Walter M. Brown began an action in the Superior Court yesterday against the city of San Pedro, asking damages in $1000. The plaintiff says he is the owner of lot 4, in block 11, of Peck's Grand View tract there, bounded on the north by Twenty-first street and south by an alley, and Twenty-first street and said alley constitute the only ways in which he has access to his lot.

It is further alleged that the defendant has wrongfully, without authority, and without making proper compensation, entered upon Twenty-first street and excavated and removed the earth to the depth of twenty feet and to a width of sixty feet in front of his lot, making the street useless and impassable and utterly destroying its value to him.

The plaintiff further says that in December he presented his bill for $1600 to the Council of San Pedro, for the damage done his property, and that body refused to pay it.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.
BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SENT TO JAIL. Frank Higgins, who pleaded guilty to assault upon George F. Ford, was given sixty days in the County Jail by Judge Willis yesterday.

ANNULMENT ASKED. Ruby Smith, alias Ruby Tiernan, filed a suit in the Superior Court yesterday, asking for the annulment of her marriage with Joseph Tiernan. She claims the ceremony was performed in Los Angeles November 18, 1908, and that at the time Tiernan had a wife living, of whom plaintiff had no knowledge.

ADJUDGED INSANE. Gus Bell, who formerly resided at Los Angeles street and Ceres avenue, was found insane in Judge Rives's court yesterday, and ordered sent to the State Hospital for the Insane.

RELEASED ON BOND. W. E. Rennie, the building contractor who was brought to the city a few days ago to answer to a charge of embezzling $600 on a building contract, was released from the County Jail last night on $1500 bail.

HELD TO ANSWER. E. H. Learned, C. H. Learned and J. F. Asbell of Glendale were arrested last night on complaint of J. D. Peverly, charged with digging up valuable trees on the land of the complainant, and they deposited $100 cash bail each for their appearance in Justice Pierce's court this morning at 10 o'clock.

TO LOOK IT OVER. A detective of the District Attorney's office went to San Luis Obispo yesterday to ascertain whether Mrs. Fay Loewenstein, arrested on the charge of securing money and property from George W. Harmer, owns the ranch she claimed in the deal with the Santa Monica man.

RECEIVER APPOINTED. Judge Houser yesterday appointed G. A. Gibbs as receiver of the property of Thomas H. Nelmes, the young Pasadena business man, who was recently sued for divorce by Mrs. Lizzie W. Nelmes. Former Judge Gibbs has taken charge of the property. The decree granting an interlocutory divorce has been signed by Judge Houser, but a division of the property remains to be adjusted.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the White Star Oil Company, capital stock $1,000,000; Yuca Tree Mining Company, capital stock $1,000,000; the Craftsman Company, capital stock $25,000; Vernon Athletic Company, capital stock $25,000; Elizabeth Lake Gun Club, no capital stock.

EXPERT TESTIMONY. Roy Knabenshue, the airship man, has been summoned to court in the case of G. M. Slyter against Smith & Klassen, for recision of a contract, now on trial before Judge Hutton. The plaintiff asks also for the return of $458 alleged to have been paid for installing a six-horse-power motor on a light buggy. Slyter claims the work was not properly done, and that not to exceed three-horse power was generated by the motor. Knabenshue will testify this morning as an expert.

PSYCHIC'S AIRY ASSETS.

Russian Speculator in Mystery and Oriental Rugs Formally Declared Involuntary Bankrupt.

Dr. Oriof N. Orlow, Russian savant, psychic and speculator, was formally declared to be a bankrupt yesterday by Lynn Helm, special master. For months several of his creditors have been trying to get the tangled affairs of the doctor straightened out. They filed a petition in the United States District Court, asking that Orlow be adjudged a bankrupt.

The psychic proceeded to exercise his gentle art of suggestion, and straightway several persons who supposed he owed them money, declared that they would consider themselves paid. But others were more obdurate, and had Dr. Orlow subjected to a searching examination as to his hidden source of wealth. He blandly assured all concerned that his books and papers had been burned in the San Francisco fire, but that he had title to much property, if he could find the deeds.

Among the hard-hearted creditors were Miss Mary Zill and Miss Margaret Walsh. The latter claimed $139 for services as nurse. Miss Zill claimed $24 was due her for labor performed.

Mr. Helm finds that Orlow had debts amounting to $44,783.30 at the time the bankruptcy was filed last August, but that since then the indebtedness has apparently been reduced $6000 or $7000 by settlements. No definite estimate of the doctor's assets is given in the opinion, but according to his own assertions, he has $80,000 worth of oriental goods.

Dr. Orlow is said to have posed as a Russian nobleman in Chicago years ago. Later he went to San Francisco, where he taught mystic cults and sold rugs as a side line. After coming to Los Angeles, he gathered a coterie of persons psychically inclined about him, and has dabbled more or less in real estate.

Creditors state that Orlow's property will not bring more than $20,000, and that the most they can hope is a settlement on the basis of 50 cents on the dollar.

WOMAN SCARES SIX-FOOTER.

Shoemaker Says He Ran When She Sailed Down on Him With Chair and Club.

Samuel Weinberger, a shoemaker of No. 822 West Third street, yesterday charged Mrs. Max Golden with having attacked him with a chair and club.

He is more than six feet tall, but told Deputy District Attorney Keetch that when the woman "sailed down" upon him, he beat a hasty retreat and hurried to the Police Station.

The shoemaker stated that he had been ordered to move from his shop and to pay $20 rent, and that when he tendered $10, declaring that he did not owe any more, hostilities commenced.

MURPHY RELEASED.

No Such Person as Wicher, Whose Name He Was Alleged to Have Forged, Found.

A charge of forgery against J. McCloud Murphy, vice-president of the Electro-Purification Company, was dismissed yesterday when the case was called for preliminary examination in Justice Rose's Police Court. Murphy was alleged to have forged the name of Fred Wicher to a check for $41.56. The detectives were unable to find any one of that name.

RED SENTENCED TO JAIL.

Michael Miller, alias Joseph H. N. Longy, the rabid anarchist, who was accused of sending threatening letters to local business men, was found guilty yesterday by a jury in the United States District Court. Judge Weilborn sentenced him to six months in the County Jail, in addition to a nominal fine. Miller has been in confinement since last July, and that was taken into consideration in imposing sentence.

TINY JAP BIG SHOW.

Oriental Mite Takes Unexpected Role at "Mother Goose Party" in All Saints Church.

Little Takihashi, mite of a Japanese, wearing a mixture of several styles of clothing, a red riding coat of English design, a Washington lace collar and cuffs, a Parisian tile, black tights and a pair of rubber boots, was the real attraction in the "Mother Goose Party" given by the young people and Sunday-school pupils of All Saints Episcopal Church at Conaty Hall last night.

With his ludicrous make up, his shiny black hair and his dancing, twinkling eyes, the Oriental midget managed to take a part never expected of him, for his name was not even mentioned on the programme. There were many other laughable situations, mostly left off the programme or unexpected, that delighted the small audience.

"Alice in Wonderland" formed the principal portion of the entertainment. The young ladies in charge of the affair were Miss Gertrude Lee Knight and Dorothy Bond. E. C. Maxwell, as the Baron Munchausen, played the leading male role, with the exception of that taken by little Takihashi.

CRUDE ATTACK ON SAFE.

Burglars Try to Get in With Sledge and Crowbar, but Fail, Then Loot Desks.

The offices of the National Mill and Lumber Company at Nos. 634-46 Aliso street, were entered Thursday night by burglars, who, failing in an attempt to wreck the safe, ransacked the desks in the place. A fine revolver, a fountain pen, a manicure set, and some lunch comprised the loot.

Entrance was obtained by the use of a sledge hammer and jimmy. The attack on the safe was crude. The robbers hammered off the knob and then battered the combination. Failing to get results, they wheeled the safe to the middle of the floor and tried to pry out the bottom with a crowbar. They then gave up and broke open the desks.

FORAKER TO TRY ARIZONA.

Ohio Senator May Seek to Regain His Seat by Moving to New State.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 4.—A special from Washington to the Phoenix Republican says:

"Members of the Senate are seriously discussing the rumor that Senator Foraker in the event of Statehood will seek a residence in Arizona for the purpose of representing that State in the Senate. It is said that overtures have been made to him by prominent citizens of the Territory, both Republican and Democratic, and he has been assured of the esteem in which he is held by all classes and all parties.

"Senators who have talked of this probability express a hope that it may result in the return of Mr. Foraker to the Senate notwithstanding the temporary interruption of his career in Ohio. There is no other member of the Senate so admired by his colleagues for his ability as Mr. Foraker. All of them unite in the verdict that his retirement would be a loss to the body and the nation."

HADLEY WILL CALLED FORGERY.

Administrator for Somerville Hermit Will Attack Validity of Document Found in London.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BOSTON, Feb. 5.—It is the belief, expressed by Boston attorneys that the will of the late Benjamin Hadley, the Somerville hermit, found recently on a doorstep in England, disposing of property valued at $500,000, is a forgery.

Michael F. Farrell of this city, administrator of the estate of Mr. Hadley, last night declared that charges would be brought against four persons in England for forgery and conspiracy.

Mr. Hadley was believed here to have died intestate. Recently, however, an announcement came from London that Mr. Hadley's will had been found on a doorstep in that city. In the alleged will was a bequest to President Roosevelt of $10,000, which the President has refused to accept.

VICTIMS OF A LABOR STRIKE.

APPALLING BLOODSHED IN LABOR CONFLICTS.

Startling Number of Persons Injured in the United Railroads Strike at San Francisco by the Rioting Union Mobs and Sympathizers.

The appalling price paid by the United Railroads of San Francisco and their employés for industrial freedom is set forth in a report by Eugene W. B. Coffey, to the president, and not heretofore published, giving the casualties of the strike of 1907. The Times has long sought the exact facts and now gives them for the sake of the truth—"lest we forget, lest we forget."

In a war of street fights like that, a record of every case is not made; but the number of street-car men who came into the hands of the surgeons, dead or wounded, was 887.

It is estimated that over 50 per cent of the men employed by the United Railroads were hurt during the bloody days of the strike. In a field battle that would be considered an amazing percentage.

Those who witnessed that war in San Francisco will ever forget the quiet, unshrinking bravery of the men who took out their cars in the face of howling, murderous mobs, or of the picturesque, dashing courage of Darrell Mullally, the young assistant to the intrepid and resourceful Calhoun, who organized a "flying squadron" of gun men who rushed in automobiles to the scene of every fight with a dare-devil "nerve" that failed to inspire the outnumbered and overpowered platform men. Mr. Funston stated that he never saw greater courage displayed on a battlefield than was shown on the cars during the days of the strike.

The report of Surgeon Coffey, giving the list of casualties, is as follows:

SURGICAL DEPARTMENT,
UNITED RAILROADS,
San Francisco, Feb. 13, 1908.

Patrick Calhoun, Esq., president United Railroads of San Francisco.

Dear Sir: I hereby hand you a report of the surgical work performed by myself and staff during the "strike" period, May 4, 1907, to December 31, 1907. Preliminary to giving an itemized statement as to the nature of injuries treated by this department, I wish to state that we divided our work of the surgical staff to the respective hospitals and car houses in which employés were housed.

The employés housed at the following stations: Turk and Fillmore, Kearny and Mason, California and Presidio avenue, Haight-street barn, Eighteenth, Geneva, Twenty-fourth and Utah. The total number of employés in the service of the company varied from month to month, to wit:

| | |
|---|---|
| May 4, 1907, no record, about | 200 |
| May 13, 1907 | 880 |
| May 31, 1907 | 1008 |
| June 1, 1907 | 1251 |
| September 1, 1907 | 1437 |
| October 1, 1907 | 1610 |
| November 1, 1907 | 1696 |
| December 1, 1907 | 1828 |

In addition to the list herewith presented we had a clinical service at the Mission, where simple dressings, such as bruises, slight cuts, etc., were applied, as well as clinical record recorded. The daily average about ten dressings a day.

Members of the staff visiting the hospitals were kept in touch as often as required. During the early days of the "strike" there was a doctor constantly at the barn where the cars ran as high as twenty to thirty-five a day; that is, the Turk street barn. These were for bruises, cuts and abrasions, etc., as a result of violence, as from bricks, clubs and various other foreign missiles that were thrown at the employés running the cars. Other more serious cases were removed to the hospitals.

There was a systematic sanitary arrangement in all car barns. The medical staff kept constant watch upon the various habitations of our men looking after the sanitary or hygienic surroundings. We established what we call a hospital corps. These men were selected from the employés who impressed us with their knowledge of such matters and had such appearance of cleanliness that they would naturally exact a similar method of living from their associates. They also saw to it that the barns were kept thoroughly clean; the beds kept in good condition; the floors kept clean and antiseptic spray used for elimination of fleas and vermin. By being in touch with this corps we were able to keep our barns in a thoroughly sanitary condition.

During the early days of the "strike," when the men were closely housed, we got up various athletic sports, such as boxing. This was a diversion to the men.

The commissary department was under the able jurisdiction of Mr. Finigan, our present purchasing agent. The food was of the best the market could afford, and was daily inspected by either Mr. Finigan or one of his assistants. At no time during the housing of these men had we any complaint against the food, nor was there ever any development of acute indigestion or ptomaine poisoning or any gastro or intestinal disturbance as the result of cooking, or the food supplied. These improvised habitations that were fixed up in so short a period of time had all the facilities of a barracks. At no time during this period did any contagious case develop, irrespective of the fact that measles and cases of smallpox were prevalent in the city at various times during these months.

We were charged through the public press by the union leaders of housing contagious diseases and having men covered with vermin. This can be readily disproved by the records of the Board of Health. Their inspectors constantly visited these barns and established a good bill of health at each of their visits.

The number of surgical cases treated at the various hospitals and barns of which records was kept, were 657.

The number of fatalities were—one man killed through violence.

As mentioned before, the clinical cases treated at the various barns during the excitement of the early days of the "strike" are not enumerated in the list, as we did not keep a record of the same. We treated simple bruises, cuts, black eyes and trivial injuries not requiring hospital attention which, as mentioned before, averaged ten a day, in addition to the list of cases hereto attached.

Attached find list of individuals and the nature of their injuries treated at the various hospitals:

Surely we could have at least afforded to allow the Japanese boys who are here to get the benefit of our schools. We are pusillanimous when we refuse any human being the benefit of education. The dignity of the Japanese will not allow them to consent to be segregated like lepers.

STEPHENS AND HARPER.

The expected has happened in the formal announcement of Mr. William D. Stephens that on account of the serious illness of his wife he cannot accept the nomination for Mayor on the recall ticket. It was not to be supposed that Mr. Stephens would adopt any other course under the circumstances. He has clearly seen his duty after due deliberation and he has taken action commanding the esteem of his fellow-citizens whether or not they agree with his expressed sentiments as to the recall movement.

As for The Times, it could not have supported Mr. Stephens nominated on a recall ticket and it never will support anybody put in nomination under that iniquitous device.

The Times has never indorsed Harper and never will, although it will do all in its power to defeat the present recall game or any other—opposing on principle that vicious, dangerous, unfair and un-American institution.

We notice that the toy Express has amused itself from day to day of late by quoting from articles and headlines in The Times criticising the Harper administration. Good reading matter! We are glad that the readers of the Express have had it presented to them—illuminating flashes in a dreary waste.

The Times fought against the election of Harper and declared that to turn over the city government to him and the elements surrounding him and controlling him would be a grave mistake. A majority of the voters thought otherwise. If the advice of The Times had been heeded and if a large number of Republicans had not been beguiled by a few tricksters now working the recall game, Dr. Lindley would have been elected Mayor in spite of the treachery of the Express.

The Times has no word to retract of its criticisms of the Harper administration, which the Express seems to take so much delight in reproducing. This journal was the first to call attention to the remissness of the police department, and it gave explicit evidence, with names, locations, dates and circumstances, of the open violation of law. The Times continued these exposures as long as it was essential to the well-being of Los Angeles and refrained from nauseating the public or bedaubing the good name of the city.

The Times foresaw what would happen if Harper should be elected and warned the people. They chose him Mayor—and thereupon The Times bore witness to the flaws in his administration, as above stated. There can be no misunderstanding as to these things on the part of any person of honest mind who has made himself acquainted with recent history.

The Mayor, however, is a fellow-citizen, a fellow-man, a neighbor and co-worker, and deserves the fair play which the Express and Herald have refused him—and which The Times proposes that he shall have. He is entitled to protection against libels and libelers, and from sly whisperings and innuendoes, circulated by word of mouth by his defamers, but which they dare not print. He is not to be condemned by cunning and baseless insinuations.

The Times still has nothing but disapproval and condemnation for the promoters of the present recall movement against the Mayor. It is a senseless and needless movement in view of the fact that the Mayor's term of office will nearly have expired ere a recall election can be held. It was started and engineered for the purpose of gratifying private grudges at public expense. The movement is of illegitimate birth.

Los Angeles has made one trial of the recall, with disastrous results. As in this instance it was employed for the vicious purpose of satisfying personal grievances. It is this inherent and infamous potentiality in the recall that leads The Times to so strenuously fight it. The device was unrecognized by the founders of our government and runs counter to the underlying principles of the American Constitution, in that it substitutes minority persecution for majority rule. If it required the signatures of 51 per cent. of the voters and gave some opportunity for redress to an officer unjustly attacked, there would be some equity in it. As it stands now, it enables a comparatively small proportion of the whole number of voters to harass a public servant, put him to shame and distress, and financial ruin—and he has no recourse against those who have wronged him.

Not for Harper, but against the recall as embodied in the city charter and against the Recall Set, bossed by Willard, Earl and Lissner—first, last and all the time—this is, was, has always been and will ever be the attitude of The Times.

The recallers should not forget at this crisis the only winning recaller that Los Angeles ever had, our old acquaintance, ex-Councilman Wowtown.

THE ORANGE SEASON.

It is now harvest time for oranges in Southern California. Since the year began in marketing this crop, November 1, 1908, to the present date, the business has been small. From February 1 to June 30 is the period when the great crop of navels moves in force.

To date since November 1 there have gone East 5672 carloads of citrus fruit, of which 4568 were oranges and 1104 lemons. In the same period of last season shipments amounted to a total of 5840 cars, of which 4779 were oranges and 1061 lemons. This shows that the marketing this year is nearly the same as last, the total deficit being only 168 cars, 211 fewer cars of oranges and 43 more cars of lemons.

During the first month of the season oranges moved slowly because the crop did not mature as early as in the previous year. The demand for holiday fruit made up some of the deficit created in the first four weeks, and during January the market was good. The somewhat persistent rains of the last two or three weeks checked business a little.

February 3, the last day for which reports are in at this writing, there went out 185 cars of oranges and twelve of lemons. That is about a normal movement for early February.

The crop of navels is now at its prime. The fruit shipped from November 1 to about the end of January usually is not quite mature. The only excuse for sending this to market is that the people at the East demand it. It is not fruit that is notoriously unripe. It has a high color, is of good size, and merely somewhat less sweet than when perfectly ripe. Those whose daily diet is so largely made up of vegetables out of cellars and pits, who feed generously on buckwheat cakes and sausage, "New England boiled dinners," "hog and hominy," and other hearty foods have a keen tooth for oranges, even although a trifle more piquant than "our taste;" and the citrus acid is good for their health.

But with the advent of February, California oranges are delicious. By March they become sweeter and more and more so in April and May. Our fruit is always a little sharper in the acid than that from Florida, and is much preferred after the taste has been acquired. The navels now sent East are in the best condition. The color is high; the sizes are the most popular; the flavor is excellent; and the weight indicates that there has been no puffing, but the pulp is solid.

The market has been good at almost all points. Prices have been somewhat better than in the first three months of last year. The business depression which came on as the season opened in 1908 was felt with some severity in the orange market. The consumption of fruit is general now; but when the people are out of work they are out of pocket, and curtail expenses very much. Last year the market picked up later, and the season turned out normally good. This season so far, with the people more generally employed, the demand for oranges has taken all at fairly good prices. Heavy offerings early in the season sometimes glut markets, but this condition was avoided in November and December of this year. This week reports from New York show that fancy fruit sells up to $3.50 per box, choice going at $2.50 and standard falling but little below $2. It may be well to remind some readers that it costs about $1.50 per box to get fruit from the trees in California to the auction rooms in eastern cities. Capital invested and cost of cultivation make it necessary that the grower get $1 per box, average, on the trees, or the business is not profitable.

The future is always a guess. Growers and shippers look for a fairly good season to the close. The weather has been on the whole favorable. The early cold snap did some injury to the fruit. It came when most of the crop was green, and unable to resist the cold. Had it come at this time when the fruit is mature no damage would have followed. The fruit which suffered is all gone. An orange nipped with frost falls from the tree in a short period. The excellent quality of the oranges this season makes a good foundation on which to build hopes of a successful year.

The Florida crop is about all out of the way. What was left was caught in the cold weather of last month, and will not be good enough to be a dangerous rival of our better oranges.

The apple crop at the East was small last year, and what is now left, bought at high prices, stored at considerable cost, and losses discounted, is selling at unusually high prices.

Ordinarily about this time strawberries from the Gulf States begin to go to northern markets in trainloads; week by week the crop farther north comes in, until July, when the fruit is ripe in Canada. But after the frosts of last week there will be few February strawberries. If warm weather follows they may be ripe in Arkansas in March, in Missouri in April. The price of oranges will depend a good deal on the weather in the States along the lower Mississippi. The excessive cold there cuts off not only small fruits but green "garden truck," also a competitor of oranges.

Of course much depends on our spring. It is not probable that any more cold weather will trouble us this year. But heavy rains might delay picking, and puff up and split the fruit.

There remains the volume of the crop to discuss. Expert guessers come close to the number of boxes. Those without experience are almost always wildly wide of the mark.

Several interests make estimates from time to time. This has been done in the last ten days. There is a difference of 5000 cars in the guesses. However, the railroads and the heaviest shippers nearly agree. Their estimates are a crop of 30,000 carloads all told, including lemons.

The crop will be in the main divided about as last year, when the total shipments were between 29,000 and 30,000 carloads. About the only difference will be that the proportion of Valencias increases steadily year by year. These will not be shipped until about the time the navels are all out of the way. They go to market between July 1 and November 1, some of them always lapping over into the next season.

Now see the Recall Set get out with their lariats and try to rope in a victim to stand for Mayor on their unpopular grudge ticket.

COUNTY DIVISION BILL.

The Willis county division bill, now before the Legislature, which stands a very good chance of being enacted in substantially its present form, is the most equitable and best drawn measure relating to this matter that The Times has seen. County division is always a troublesome problem and the divisionists generally insist that their demands shall be considered without regard to the rights of the rest of the county. The Willis bill gives due consideration to the interests of taxpayers outside of the territory seeking to be set off.

This proposed law requires that 65 per cent. of the qualified electors of any territory proposed for a new county shall petition the Supervisors and in addition it calls for a petition signed by 50 per cent. of the electors of the entire county or counties affected by such a change. To carry the election it provides that there must be an affirmative vote of 65 per cent. of the electors in the proposed new county and in addition the affirmative vote of at least 50 per cent. of the electors in the entire county or counties affected.

Counties should not be mangled and chopped up, offhand, at the behest of a few dissatisfied or ambitious precincts or hamlets, with no heed given to the equities of the great body of the citizens. The Willis bill guarantees caution and fairness and impedes precipitancy, jobbery and wildcatting. The State needs a law like this.

How would it do to nominate Tommy Woolwine for Mayor on the recoil ticket, with Dr. Wowtown as an alternate?

WHO "DONE" IT?

"I done it; I done it." Willie Hearst's old cry is now taken up by a little toy newspaper in Los Angeles which hugs to itself the credit for the enactment of an anti-race-track-gambling law.

But who enacted the law? As The Times understands it, 'twas done by the members of a Republican Legislature—by regular Republicans who were vilified and libeled by the sheet which now makes this ridiculous claim.

The anti-gambling law was passed by men whom that toy newspaper and its partisans denounced as tricksters, whose pledges to give the State such a law would be violated.

When The Times announced last autumn that one of the first things the new Legislature would do would be to place such a law on the statute books it was accused, by this gang, of sinister motives, of seeking to deceive, of perpetrating a hoax. How about it?

The gentlemen of the Legislature have promptly fulfilled their promises to the people—and it was a glorious day for California when they did so. An awful curse will be lifted from the State by the operation of this law.

From the Evening Express of Friday, November 30, 1906: "The Times is now supporting Dr. Walter Lindley." Huh! Correct. Would it not have been a good thing for the city if Dr. Lindley had been elected?

BY THEIR WORKS.

We take particular pleasure in asking attention to the record made at Sacramento by the regular Republican members of Senate and Assembly from Southern California. When these citizens were nominated for election they were abused without limit. So was the convention which nominated them, and so were all who voted for them. A treacherous clique, whose real purpose was to elect Theodore Bell United States Senator, and its organs everywhere were vituperative in their criticism of all who refused to join in their treasonous game.

These regular Republican Assemblymen and Senators have almost to a man stood straight for every good bill put forward, and have done effective work against every vicious bill introduced.

Meantime some of the Leaguers whose secret purpose was to make Bell Senator have shown their real sentiments in favoring the most pernicious measures introduced in the Legislature. Masquerading under the name of both Lincoln and Roosevelt, they have turned a deaf ear to the pleading of the President and promoted the dangerous bills which create bad feeling between our country and Japan.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

A gentleman named Bryan who was lost on a prairie by the Platte in a political cyclone November 3, 1908, has reappeared. He has brought back with him his lungs, tongue and picturesque diction.

On his reappearance (not for the last time) he proceeds to pay his addresses to Charles E. Hughes, by the grace of the people Governor of New York. Listen; in the words of W. J. B., Gov. Hughes's "hands are red with the blood of the two-cent bill."

Horror of horrors, what a massacre was there, my countrymen! Men have been guilty of murder ere now and have died the death in expiation of their crimes in some instances. Others have gone unwhipped of justice who should have been flogged naked through the world. The primal murderer of humankind had a mark put on him, so that Cain was the first marked man of history or fable.

But what shall be done to the Governor of New York whose hands reek, so to speak, with the blood of the two-cent rate bill? Herod shed the blood of the innocents, Lady Macbeth shrieked, "Out, damned spot," and sighed, "The incarnadined seas shall not wash clean this little hand." But the blood of that poor victim, the two-cent rate bill, that had done no wrong, and merited a better fate!

Really we expected better things of Charles E. Hughes, who we thought would "hold it the very stuff of the conscience to do no contrived murder," and lo, his hands are red with the blood of the two-cent rate bill. After this there is nothing serious in humanity. We may expect to hear many revolving weeks roll by that Mr. Hughes has met a lion in the jungle and is coming home with "blood on the face of the moon."

The assertion that the "machine" was beaten Tuesday's charter election is amusing. Which machine? Lissner's? The old political machine had no active part in the election; but all the bosses were voting and rooting for the direct primary. Every keen political boss in sight sees in it a golden opportunity for feathering his own nest and for trolling other nests. They never have lifted a hand against it. The truth is that the Lissner machine is overwhelmed with disappointment because the vote on the amendments it favored was so small. The result demonstrated that when the anti-machine forces are massed against class the recallers will be largely outvoted. That is as plain as the multiplication table to any political "figgerer." The recall callers are simply giving cards to the anti-machine "liberal element"—strengthening its hand.

BY COMETTE.

Strong is the sign for ruddy gold.
This day let bartering be bold.

On this 37th day Jupiter is in ecliptic conjunction with the moon. The age of the moon is 18 days. Neptune is in trine and with Jupiter is in benefic aspect to the moon.

The lunation is favorable for "celebration and praise" during the remainder of this month.

An excellent period begins now for commerce and for matters connected with money.

Gold is in the sign over dealings in merchandise, whether buying or selling.

The time is excellent for opening new shops, offices or beginning new business affairs.

Salesmen, whether in stores or on the road, should find this a very prosperous day, whose hours it will be well to push to the end of the period.

A good day also for all employés.

Bankers, clergymen, woolen dealers and professional people will benefit.

Women whose birthdate comes this day will be annoyed by letters, but will gain a long-distance end by remaining calm and just.

Men with this birthdate should "beware of Greeks bearing gifts." The only safe course will be to steer by the rules of strict honor.

Children born today are under signs suggesting conflicting impulses. Girls should receive careful study, as they will probably have high spiritual gifts. Boys will need most to be taught how to know opportunity and improve it.

STREAKS OF WIT.

Has a Permanent Residence.

An old woman, on being examined before a magistrate as to her place of legal settlement, was asked what reason she had for supposing her husband had a legal settlement in that town.

The old lady said:

"He was born and married there and they buried him there, and if that isn't settling there, what is?"—[Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Home Trader.

A surgeon in a western town, engaged to perform an operation of minor character upon a somewhat unsophisticated patient, asked him if he was willing to have only a local anesthetic.

"Sure," replied the other; "I believe in patronizing home industry whenever you can."

And he meant it.—[Lippincott's.

Good Reason for Change.

"Just plain John Brown?"

"That is all."

"But you used to have a middle name. Why did you drop it?"

"The man I was named for died and forgot to leave me any of his money."—[Philadelphia Press.

He Had Been Mentioned.

Admiring Constituent: Senator, your name has been mentioned in connection with a Cabinet position, hasn't it?

Senator Greatgunn: Er—yes, I believe it has. A weekly paper in my home county remarked the other day that any President who would offer me a place in his Cabinet would be darned hard up.—[Chicago Tribune.

A Hint for Others.

"Millicent is truly a considerate girl," says the damsel with the extended psyche knot.

"What makes you think so?" asks the one with the shiny nose.

"Her fiancé is troubled with dyspepsia, so she has the druggist mix pepsin with her face powder."—[Life.

Proof of His Devotion.

The young husband's face was aflame with deathless devotion.

"Pulsatilla," he exclaimed, clasping her to his heart, "I'll wear it, no matter what the boys at the office say! And I'll smoke 'em if they kill me."—[Chicago Tribune.

Richard Croker must still possess considerable wealth if he can afford to raise chickens.—[The Blade.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

Despite the rain, an unusually large audience attended the fourth concert of the Symphony Orchestra yesterday afternoon in the Auditorium Theater, and enjoyed to the utmost a very attractive programme.

As it was the centenary of the birth of Mendelssohn, the opening numbers of the two parts were devoted to two of the best-known and universally-loved works of the great composer. The Second Symphony in B Flat, with its familiar themes, was strongly rendered and enthusiastically received, as was also the beautiful, lighter overture, "Himkehr aus der Fremde." The closing Suite, "Sigurd Jorsalfar," with its quaint music, was the closing number. Of the three movements of the suite, the dreamy Intermezzo (Borgny's Dream) seemed the most pleasing.

Madame Frieda Langendorff, German dramatic soprano, was the soloist. Although Madame Langendorff did not appear to give the best of satisfaction at her individual recital last Tuesday evening, her work with the Symphony Orchestra displayed her talents in a different light, and was one of the achievements of her artistic career. Much praise must also be bestowed upon Director Hamilton for his masterly handling of the band of musicians under his baton, for both singer and orchestra were in perfect harmony throughout. Langendorff's numbers ran the gamut of the strongest human emotions, and most intense natural feelings. Her first number was the stupendous prison scene from Meyerbeer's "Prophete." This difficult aria, with its dramatic recitative, its many difficult passages and wide range, was sung with a dramatic intensity and surety that held the audience spellbound, and at its close Madame Langendorff was called again and again to the front, and finally had to respond to an insistent encore, which was Fr. Schubert's "Der Allmacht" ("The Almighty.") Mrs. M. Hennion Robinson accompanying. "Farewell to the Hills" (Jeanne d'Arc) by Tschaikowsky, was Madame Langendorff's closing offering, and it was given very beautifully and with a faultless interpretation. To this number she also responded with an encore.

The recital given by the Verdi School of Singing, Signor Pietro Buzzi, director, in Symphony Hall, last evening, was a very pleasing affair. The participants acquitted themselves with credit.

The evening's programme opened with a bass solo by Homer Pedigriff. Following this Miss Grace Talamantes sang charmingly, "Lascia ch'io Piagna," from the opera Rinaldo (Handel,) after which Miss Lillian Smith displayed excellent training and interpretative ability in several piano numbers and a vocal solo. Madame Evelyn Sheldon was next heard, singing "They Call Me Mimi," from La Boheme, in a manner that compelled the rendering of an encore. Misses Theta M. Lynn and Giulia Woods followed with soprano solos, and Mrs. Sheldon and Miss Talamantes then gave a duet from the opera "Madame Butterfly." The best number on the programme was the dramatic soprano solo by Miss Bessie Bulpin, "Elsa's Dream," from Wagner's Lohengrin. Miss Bulpin has a voice of purity, expressiveness and good intonation, and is rapidly forging to the front. Mrs. E. Sheldon and Misses Lynn and Plumstead acted as accompanists.

Miss Frieda Langendorff, whose splendid singing of yesterday afternoon showed her in a markedly different light from that shed by her rather indiscriminate programme of Tuesday night, will be heard in recital again this afternoon at Simpson Auditorium.

Vast Lumber, Mineral and Farm Lands Along Juan de Fuca Strait to Be Exploited When Canadian Government Grants Concession. Work in Arizona Progressing.

Los Angeles capital and brains will build a railroad in British Columbia, through the valuable timber lands lying between Victoria and Barkley Sound on Vancouver Island, if the plans of the projectors do not miscarry.

C. M. Shannon and B. F. Graham of this city, associated with C. L. Betterson, a well-known British Columbia capitalist, who expects to make Los Angeles his home, have formed a company and are endeavoring to secure certain concessions from the Canadian government to build a line to develop the great timber resources lying along the Juan de Fuca Strait, now provided with transportation by steamboat only.

The railroad will be a little more than 100 miles long and will cost $35,000 per mile. Sufficient capital has been interested and the negotiations with the Canadian authorities are progressing nicely. It is planned to commence immediate construction once these concessions are obtained.

The section to be traversed is very rich and extensive, comprising 500 square miles of timber land from which 30,000 feet of salable timber can be cut to the acre. It will require 100 cars a day for seventy years to carry this timber, amounting to 15,000,000,000 feet, to market. Fifty thousand acres are subject to cultivation and evidence of minerals is found throughout the whole section. Coal fields, absolutely undeveloped, lie along the proposed route, and magnificent water power can be had to furnish power for the railroad and industries, which may be located along the line.

If the project is carried out a car ferry from Victoria to the mainland will be included in the deal. According to the promoters, and they are men of standing, a great business is possible for the railroad when built, as shipments of lumber to the prairies will be followed by grain cargoes on the return trips, eventually leading to the development of a great grain port at Victoria.

More Outfits at Work.

The Mexico and Colorado Railway, the Phelps-Dodge line from Courtland, Ariz., to Douglas, is being pushed at all speed. Several new outfits were shipped to Courtland from Douglas last week, and others are to follow within a very short time. It is claimed by some that the company is having trouble over a right of way into Douglas, and that it may cut that town out as the junction with the Southern Pacific and make connection with the latter at a point several miles from Douglas. This is not believed by many in position to know, who assert that right of way into Douglas was secured some time ago.

Railroad Notes.

R. H. Ingram, superintendent of the Southern Pacific lines in Mexico, is visiting his family in this city.

A. T. Jackson, traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has returned from Redlands, where he was on a visit for several days.

C. E. Smith, general agent of the Erie Dispatch at Los Angeles, left last night for San Francisco, where he was called by the death of L. Harkness, who was with that line in the northern city.

J. W. Monahan, traveling passenger agent of the Burlington, has returned from a business trip to San Diego and the South.

Charles Blech, now rate clerk in the local office of the Southern Pacific, has resigned, and will enter service of the Gould lines as soliciting freight agent.

The Southern Pacific is fitting up a fine office at San Diego, which will compare favorably with any in the West. The counters are of onyx and partitions and fittings of polished mahogany. J. R. Downes, commercial agent, will be in charge, and A. Voris city ticket agent.

M. J. Sheridan has been appointed treasurer of the Pan-American Railway, with headquarters at Gambos, Mex. Erik Unger was appointed chief engineer at the same place.

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

You must know that they are Rust-Proof—absolutely so. Everybody ought to know this since the makers have been telling the story in newspapers, magazines, etc., and proving it for years. The new features which standardize them for all time and which are covered by an absolute guarantee are—

The bones, clasps and side steels are now as unbreakable as they are Rust-Proof—furthermore, they cannot punch through the corset fabric; the eyelets cannot pull out, and, both the eyelets and the metal parts of the hose supporters are rust-proof. The supporters are the famous SECURITY Rubber Button. Model 247, extra long, $3.00.

LITTLE BABY HORRIBLY BURNED

By Boiling Grease—Skin All Came off One Side of Face and Head—Tried an Ointment which Made It All Fester—Wee Sufferer Seemed Disfigured for Life.

CURED WITHOUT A MARK BY CUTICURA

"About a year and eight months ago my baby, aged ten months, was sitting on the mat beside the fender and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of the baby's face and head. One of the family ran and wiped the scald with a towel and you may think what a mess she made, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a chemist who told us to get a doctor, which we did. He tended her a week and gave me some stuff like lard to put on. But it all festered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. A woman close beside me told me to try Cuticura Ointment. I used about three boxes and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the scald had been. People used to ask me if that was the baby that was scalded and they would hardly believe me when I told them she was and what cured her face. Her skin is just like velvet and I have never been without Cuticura since. Cuticura cured three other children of ringworm besides, so I have good cause to thank it for what it has done. Mrs. Hare, 1, Henry St., South Shields, Durham, England, March 22, 1908."

CUTICURA

World's Favourite Emollient.

A single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning and scaly humours, eczemas, rashes and irritations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure in the majority of cases, when all else fails.

THE CONNECTION.

We left Peter and John standing before the council. After Peter spoke, their enemies felt helpless to oppose them, but dismissed them with a severe injunction not to preach again. The report of these two men to the rest of the disciples stirred their enthusiasm. It was followed by a prayer for strength to speak boldly in the face of the threat made against them. A token of God's approving presence was given them—the shaking of the place where they were assembled—and that was followed by a new reception of power from the Holy Spirit and a new boldness in speaking the word. One effect on the disciples is in our lesson.

THE LESSON.

I.

"A Sin Against the Church." (Verses 32-37.)

"And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul; neither said any of them that aught to the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

"And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace was upon them all.

"Neither was there any among them that lacked; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold.

"And laid them down at the apostles' feet; and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

"And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, the son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus.

"Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet."

(1.) Unity of Spirit and Community of Good.

These verses describe the state of things among the disciples and that shows how horrible was the lie that spoiled this noble unity. The disciples as a whole might be characterized by the term unity. They were one in spirit and temper and that was the result of three things—their new birth into the nature of Christ, their incorporation into the body of Christ, and their possession by the Holy Spirit. That unity is described in the phrase "of one heart and one soul," unity in feeling, and in purpose. They had the same experience of salvation, the same joy in Christ, the same allegiance to Him, the same purpose of His cause. A result of this was unity in testimony. They said the same thing; they testified to the same thing. They, therefore, testified in power. The voice of the one who spoke had in it the power of urgency of many voices, "and with power" they witnessed to the resurrection of Christ. It was not only unity in spirit and in testimony, but in comfort. They took care of each other. Their method of doing so was to have a common purse, as far as any one cared to go into such a plan, and out of that they met all wants.

(2.) An exceptional case.

It may be again said that this was practiced only in the church at Jerusalem and not elsewhere, that it was practiced there only temporarily, that the apostles never taught it as a duty either there or elsewhere, that it was entirely voluntary; that, as Peter told Ananias, he need not give up his possessions, if he did not want to, there must have been persons in that church who did not practice it and that their standing and fellowship were in no wise impaired. The spirit of the practice is permanent, for it is the spirit of fellowship and stewardship, and Christians must be ready to help each other with all the means of service in their possession. Those Christians even went so far as to convert their lands into money and put it in the hands of the apostles, for the good of all.

(3.) A big-hearted Christian.

One instance is given, though there were very many others, and that is given because the person was afterward a prominent man—Barnabas; because he was exceptionally useful just then as a consoling and inspiring speaker in their meetings, so that they called him "son of exhortation;" because he was a Levite and he shows that the official class were being won to Christ; because he was so thorough a convert, as seen in his leaving his home up on the island of Cyprus and converting lands into money for the Jews accounted lands more valuable. Against such unity and goodness is the sin of lying committed.

II.

"Sin Against God." (Verses 1-4)

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

"And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

"But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

"While it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not thine own power? Why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God."

(1.) Their names would lead us to expect better things, for "Ananias" means "Jehovah pities," and "Sapphira" means "comely."

(2.) The company they were in also makes it surprising.

(3.) It was a voluntary lie, not at all necessary, as Peter tells them, for there was no law of God or man to compel them to give up the land. He could have kept all of the money without doing wrong and could have given part of it, as he did, and held back the rest without doing wrong, provided he did not claim to be giving all.

(4.) It was a lie prompted by a contemptible motive—the motive of being very devout and unselfish and sympathetic.

(5.) It was a stupid lie, for it was an attempt to deceive God, and for the same reason it was blasphemous.

(7.) It was a satanic lie, for the devil himself inspired it, and they were his willing tools. Yet their responsibility was just the same. It was in their power to repel the diabolical suggestion or impulse, but they did not. It was an insult to God, deliberate and concerted.

III.

"A Sin Against Themselves." (Verses 5-11.)

"And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost; and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

"And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

"And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

"And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

"Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

"Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost; and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

"And great fear came upon all the church and upon as many as heard these things."

1. Suicide.

They killed themselves. They slew their hearts and their consciences by the lie itself. The most terrible penalty of sin is not any external punishment that can be visited on the sinner, but the hardening of the sinner, so that he will want to sin more, or at least will become insensible to anything good or sacred. When heart and conscience were slain, physical death was better than life. They sinned against their own souls in inviting punishment. The punishment was not arbitrary, but retributive. They were members of the church and the church must be relieved of them, and in a way to maintain its holiness and justice. Hypocrisy must be rebuked, else the modern slander that the church makes a specialty of hypocrites would have been a true charge.

2. Protection.

God took their lives to protect His church and administer a wholesome warning to any who were disposed to connect themselves with the church for gain. Peter hardly seems to have thought the punishment would come so soon; he must have been surprised. The effect of all this was to gather a crowd and fill them with awe, as they thought of such a sacred thing as the church, whose sanctity was manifested and protected so wonderfully. The Disciples impressed the people and were themselves awed by the manifest presence of God.

Note (1.) This retribution was from God and made the people sensible to God. (2.) It was without human vindictiveness, for not one word of unkindness was spoken. (3.) It was just, for Peter explained to Sapphira, especially, how they had sinned unnecessarily, and he graciously gave her a chance to abandon the purpose to deceive. (4.) It was kindly, for they buried the man with all the kindness possible and gave her time to repent. (5.) It was prompt and thorough, for there was just time enough to take him out for burial and return, when she came in.

The effect of all this was marked. It taught the church a lesson—that it must be kept pure and unspotted from the world. It taught the disciples, as persons, a lesson—that God was to be always with them, "keeping watch above His own." It taught the world a lesson—that they must not try to make gain of the church; that they are always in the hands of the living God. It taught our present age a lesson—that God will not allow men to make merchandise of His church. It set us an example at the very beginning of what God wanted His church to be till the end.

Thus the first persecution ended in calling out more of the power of the church and setting it into more intense and powerful witnessing for Christ. They will grow still more rapidly after the persecution and after this tragic fate of hypocrites.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

It was freely conceded that he was under no obligation to give all his substance, nor, indeed, any of it, but he must not lay his hands on that sacred reputation which he did not deserve. It is sadly easy to set this sin forth by modern illustration. The common understanding today, at least in the church, is that when a man attends its worship and participates in the communion he is a good man. It is not difficult for the blacked hypocrisy to avail itself of this presumption and pose before God's people as piety.—(Stifler.

Consciously or unconsciously the narrator of this story has thrown up into view the fearful mystery of sin. Sometimes we seem to concoct it alone and unaided. We deliberately conceive it in our heart. But again we feel caught and swept along by some impulse breathed into us from the outside. This it is that makes life so tragic. You may be innocent and well disposed, but the Zeit Geist, the spirit of society or business, satan the devil, whatever it is, seizes upon you and whirls you away. I will warrant you that Ananias could not have explained his sudden collapse without declaring that this awful something had thus, as it were, overpowered him. But mark this—he still felt it to be his own deed. The comfort of blaming the devil for our wrongdoing is short-lived. The final testimony of reflection, of consciousness, of the soul itself is, "Thou didst it!" "Thou conceivedest this thing in thine own heart."—(Goss.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

(1.) If one belongs to Christ and the church, to what extent do his belongings belong to them?

(2.) Is it wise to give away every thing we have.

(3.) How can every cent of our money be converted into character?

(4.) Is the acted lie always as bad as the spoken?

(5.) Does God settle with us here?

(6.) Would a similar case of punishment help the cause now?

(7.) Is the church ever exploited, these days, for personal gain or glory?

Christian Endeavor.

A WORLD FELLOWSHIP.

Terse Comments Upon the Christian Endeavor Topic for February 7: "Our Christian Endeavor Comrades the World Over."—Ps. lxxxiii, 1-4. (Christian Endeavor Day.)

By William T. Ellis.

The ties that bind men together are many and various. Strongest, of course, aside from blood kinship, is the possession of a common name, a common allegiance and a common interest. The national bond is thus most powerful. Of late, however, there has been such a remarkable increase of the spirit of internationalism that many thoughtful persons advocate the putting of the sense of world brotherhood ahead of all other claims. It is argued that the whole family should mean more to every member than any part of the family. Now the considerations which stress this world-consciousness are growing more numerous year by year. Among these must be numbered Christian Endeavor. Strongest in North America, the idea and the organization have traveled so rapidly and so widely that they are almost coextensive with Protestant Christianity.

Whatever helps a soul to look above and beyond its own immediate boundaries is surely of God.

Christian Endeavor is less a world fellowship than a local church method. It becomes a globe-girdling society only by being successful in its primary and most important sphere. They utterly misunderstand the genius of the young people's movement who do not perceive that it is essentially only a method of church work.

Well I recall a Christian Endeavor meeting at dusk of a blistering day in Allahabad, India. It was in Miss Forman's school for girls, and the lustrous-eyed, white-robed girls displayed the same interest in the service, and took part in about the same manner, as the ordinary American type of Endeavorers. The language of the lips was alien to me, but the spirit was perfectly familiar. All over the earth, in as many tongues as were heard at Pentecost, similar Christian Endeavor meetings are being held every week.

In one of the barrios outside of Manila, I ran across the curious fact that all the Protestant Christians were wearing Christian Endeavor badges. The reason was simple, and beautiful. They thought this badge the sign of a Christian, for the missionary, the best man they knew, wore a Christian Endeavor badge.

The rapid growth of the young people's movement is evidence of the readiness of the youth of Christendom to express themselves in spiritual terms. The old notion that youth must have its religion sugar-coated has been annihilated by the tremendous popularity of these societies which are fundamentally, inherently and rigorously religious. Young men and women are ready for a faith that makes appeal to the heroic in their spirits, and that gives their hands and feet and brains something to do. In a word, they desire to be endeavoring Christians.

The Christian Endeavor tie is, after all, only a strand in the universal Christian tie.

Christian Endeavor is "for Christ" because it is "for the church."

There is enough in the times to make one pessimistic; yet an observer of the deeper tendencies is heartened by many inspiring signs. One of these, the significance of which should be taken to heart, is the simple fact of the numerical strength of Christian Endeavor and kindred organizations. All these members have pledged themselves to daily prayer, daily Bible study, open testimony and activity in church work. Thus these young people are a force making for righteousness. They give promise of a better day; nay, more, they have helped to bring in that better day which now is.

"Inter" is one of the catch words of the modern young people's movement. It is interdenominational, intercontinental and inter-racial.

In that most cosmopolitan city on earth, Cairo, I once attended a Christian Endeavor social. There were at least half a dozen nationalities present, and as many shades of color. Turk, Armenian, Arab, Soudanese, Egyptian, French and Americans mingled socially in a jolly evening which did not differ greatly from a successful Christian Endeavor social in this land. But they did illustrate, to a peculiar degree, the motto of the society, "One is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren."

The newspapers of late have had considerable to say concerning the pledge of 1100 young people to try to live for two weeks as Jesus would do. The press treats this as if it were something new. Yet it really is only an emphasis of the Christian Endeavor pledge, taken by millions, to "strive to do whatever He would like to have me do."

News and Notes.

In connection with a recent union mission by Rev. "Billy" Sunday in Spokane, Wash., there was a general exchange of pulpits on one Sunday. The public was not informed as to who was to preach in any one church, and each pulpit held a man of a different denomination. The pastors of the big down-town churches were sent to the suburbs, and the men from small churches occupied the largest pulpits.

Southern Presbyterian men are arranging for a special train from every State in the South for the Laymen's Missionary Convention in Birmingham, Ala., February 16-18.

Seven denominations in Sandusky, O., unite monthly in union services.

The Congregationalist reports an eighty-year-old Narranganset Indian as sexton of a church at Slatersville, R. I.

A distinguished missionary of the American Board in China, Rev. Dr. William S. Ament, of Peking, died last month in San Francisco, while en route home for special medical treatment. Dr. Ament is the missionary who was pilloried by Mark Twain, after the Boxer troubles, on the charge of looting. It subsequently developed that the accusation was caused by a trifling mistake in a newspaper dispatch. As a matter of fact, Dr. Ament owned, but never displayed, two trunks full of elaborate silk banners and umbrellas of state, given to him by Chinese officials and citizens because of his assistance in settling Boxer claims.

The Federation of Churches in Chicago has appointed a specialist in boy's work to represent it at every session of the city's Juvenile Court, in the hope of helping the youthful prisoners.

The Emmanuel Movement is popularly supposed to exist only in the Protestant Episcopal Church, but the Wesley Methodist Church of Minneapolis reports having ministered, after the Emmanuel method, to 1500 persons during the past year. Weekly clinics are held, and six physicians and two college professors are associated with the pastor.

FEAR COMPETITION.

Operators in East Oppose Placing Oil on the Free List—Mexico's Heavy Tariff.

Pennsylvania oil men seem to be seriously alarmed over the prospect of foreign oil being placed on the free list at this session of Congress, and the Oil City Derrick, in an editorial, urges them to take the matter up vigorously. The great dread seems to be that Mexican petroleum, which is being developed to such an enormous extent on the eastern coast, may get into the Atlantic Coast market. Protest may be made at Washington.

The present tariff imposes a duty on either crude or refined oil only when the country from which it comes, in turn, charges American oil to get into its market. Then the duty is made equal to that imposed in such country.

Mexico puts a tax on all oil imported that, were it not for the absolute necessity of buying abroad, would be absolutely prohibitive. It affords the most complete protection for the new fields, which are already exporting, the Pearsons having tankers carrying some of their light product to Great Britain. With the duty lifted some might find its way to New York. At least Pennsylvania men are afraid it may.

California's interest in this lies chiefly in the fact that the oil of Mexico is being developed so largely by Los Angeles capital. There is no oil yet developed on the Mexican Pacific Coast. Competition from Canada is also dreaded in the East. The only oil imported into California is benzine, which the Standard has brought from Sumatra for refining at Point Richmond.

Not for Oil.

Col. Epes Randolph says it is not true that the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railroad is to drill for oil in Sonora or Sinaloa. The steel rig being built at the Llewellyn Iron Works in this city is for water drilling and there are no plans to prospect for oil yet. That the derrick was wanted for oil development was supposed by all who heard of it, including the builders.

Col. Randolph says the Harriman interests are drilling three wells in the State of Tamaulipas near Tampico on the Mexican Gulf, but they are not deep enough to give any assurance of the outcome.

San Pedro Investments

Third Subdivision Adjoining

LOMITA TOWNSITE

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC SUNDAY

These Lomita subdivisions have followed consecutively for three Sundays because the people wanted them. They are eagerly bought because they are in the Harbor district and because the soil is good, the water abundant and from an investment standpoint offer greater promise than any other land on the market. When you buy land adjoining Lomita townsite you not only get next to a future great suburb of San Pedro, but you get in the center of activity where millions will be spent.

Lomita Townsite is Close to Bixby Slough and Electric Line

This third subdivision adjoins the townsite and is platted like the others, in acre sizes, offering the safest, best and surest kind of investment. For fruit and garden purposes alone the quality of the soil and the liberality of the water supply are fully attested by the prosperous condition of the little farms and gardens surrounding.

Three Excursions Sunday Morning

Leaving This Office at 9, 10 and 11 o'clock

Do not miss this chance to get substantial holding in the Harbor district, and get it at an extremely low price. Every purchaser will make money and make it quickly, for the greatest development ever known in Southern California will surround the improvement of San Pedro Port and Harbor. The price is so low and terms so easy that the small investor must realize that this is his opportunity to participate in the rapid advances sure to follow development. Bring your money with you, as you will need it. Through a typographical error the price has been heretofore quoted at $350 and up the correct price is, as below, $375 and up.

LITTLE COLOR IN THIS HOME.

Unbusinesslike Methods Said to Be Responsible.

The Stricklin Memorial Home, the destined abiding place of aged negroes and abandoned children of that race, is no more. Originally indorsed by the Church Federation, Secretary Luther of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, it never got past the "paper stage" of its corporate existence. Yesterday the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association revoked its indorsement and the prompt resignation of the board of directors left H. Stricklin, the negro founder, high and dry.

He is still self-appointed president. According to the by-laws, drawn by himself, his office is in perpetuity. From year to year he will succeed himself in the empty honor of presiding over the directorate of ghosts and drawing imaginary checks against a closed account.

No suspicion of dishonesty or knavery attaches to the name of "President" Stricklin. He is merely regarded as unbusinesslike and too much of a visionary. His endeavors have been apparently actuated by a laudable desire to perpetuate his mother's name in a $100,000 structure devoted to the care of unfortunate negroes.

Stricklin is said to have aided in securing funds for the new Y.M.C.A. building, and in that way became acquainted with Secretary Luther. One day he confided to him his burning desire to found a home for indigent and feeble negroes. The idea seemed a good one and was taken up by the Church Federation.

FOR YOUNG AND OLD.

As then planned, subscriptions were to be secured for the erection of a suitable building, and abandoned children were to be admitted as well as the old folks. Upon the representations of Christian men and the showing made by Stricklin, he was given indorsement by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

At first he had several men of his own race as directors, but they withdrew in favor of some well-known business men. H. D. Colson, W. G. Tanner and others interested themselves in the project and prospects looked rosy.

After a time, the directors discovered that little progress was being made and that the money obtained from charitable people was being expended in unnecessary ways. Secretary Zeehandelaar of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association was asked to investigate.

He summoned Stricklin to his office and made him turn over his books and vouchers. The books were in a hopeless muddle, but it was learned that at least $578.40 had been collected, one check being for $180. The "president" was asked what had become of the money. He was unable to give any rational explanation, beyond stating that expenses were heavy. He said some of the collectors had kept a large part of the subscriptions as commissions.

DIRECTORS ALL RESIGN.

The investigation resulted in the revocation of the association's indorsement. The directors resigned, and all will refuse to have anything to do with the project, as long as it is managed by Stricklin. It may be that the scheme may be revived later under the auspices of some church or charitable organization.

The founder appears to be in hard luck. His little grocery at No. 2052 Santa Fe avenue is up under an attachment. He is very discouraged over the collapse of his pet scheme. He lays the blame on the poor solicitors, but admits his lack of business judgment.

Though incorporated as a charitable association, it is doubtful if the organization has ever been legal. Minutes and resolutions do not appear to have been kept according to law, and even the directors apparently held office without due formality. A small account was kept for a time at the Broadway Bank and Trust Company, but there is no balance.

Stricklin first gave out that he intended to donate the land on which a building would be erected, but he sold the lot some time ago, when he met vigorous opposition from property owners in the neighborhood.

If a home for colored persons is ever established, it is believed it will be necessary to purchase ground outside the city limits. To establish such an institution in any residential part of the city would meet with strong opposition from property owners.

DARK.

LITTLE COLOR IN THIS HOME.

Unbusinesslike Methods Said to Be Responsible.

The Stricklin Memorial Home, the destined abiding place of aged negroes and abandoned children of that race, is no more. Originally indorsed by the Church Federation, Secretary Luther of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, it never got past the "paper stage" of its corporate existence. Yesterday the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association revoked its indorsement and the recent resignation of the board of directors left H. Stricklin, the negro founder, high and dry.

He is still self-appointed president. According to the by-laws, drawn by himself, his office is in perpetuity. From year to year he will succeed himself to the empty honor of presiding over the directorate of ghosts and drawing imaginary checks against a closed account.

No suspicion of dishonesty or knavery attaches to the name of "President" Stricklin. He is merely regarded as unbusinesslike and too much of a visionary. His endeavors have been apparently actuated by a laudable desire to perpetuate his mother's name in a suitable structure devoted to the care of unfortunate ones.

Stricklin is said to have aided in securing funds for the new Y.M.C.A. building, and in that way became associated with Secretary Luther. One day he confided to him his burning desire to found a home for indigent and feeble negroes. The idea seemed a good one and was taken up by the Church Federation.

FOR YOUNG AND OLD.

As then planned, subscriptions were to be secured for the erection of a suitable building, and abandoned children were to be admitted as well as the old folks. Upon the representations of Christian men and the showing made by Stricklin, he was given indorsement by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

At first he had several men of his own race as directors, but they withdrew in favor of some well-known business men. H. D. Colson, W. G. Kerr and others interested themselves in the project and prospects looked rosy.

After a time, the directors discovered that little progress was being made and that the money obtained from charitable people was being expended in unnecessary ways. Secretary Zeehandelaar of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association was asked to investigate.

He summoned Stricklin to his office and made him turn over his books and vouchers. The books were in a hopeless muddle, but it was learned that at least $578.40 had been collected, one check being for $100. The "president" was asked what had become of the money. He was unable to give any rational explanation, beyond stating that expenses were heavy. He said some of the collectors had kept a large part of the subscriptions as commissions.

DIRECTORS ALL RESIGN.

The investigation resulted in the revocation of the association's indorsement. The directors resigned, and all will refuse to have anything to do with the project, as long as it is managed by Stricklin. It may be that the scheme may be revived later under the auspices of some church or charitable organization.

The founder appears to be in hard luck. His little grocery at No. 2053 Santa Fé avenue is tied up under an attachment. He is very discouraged over the collapse of his pet scheme. He lays the blame on the poor solicitors, but admits his lack of business judgment.

Though incorporated as a charitable association, it is doubtful if the organization has ever been legal. Minutes and resolutions do not appear to have been kept according to law, and even the directors apparently held office without due formality. A small amount was kept for a time at the Broadway Bank and Trust Company, but there is no balance.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

"If I lived in this climate," observed an eastern tourist, "I should have at least one room furnished entirely in bamboo, and I believe it would be my very own room, too. It is light, inexpensive and easily cared for, and withal so durable and so appropriate for a semi-tropic climate like this."

I quite agree with her. Go into any of the stores which make a specialty of bamboo furnishings and you will be surprised to see how completely and inexpensively you can fit up a room.

First, get the handsome and durable fiber matting for the floor. It is thirty-six inches wide and comes at from 30 cents a yard up, and literally lasts forever. It is so firmly woven that not a particle of dust can sift through it, and after a year's wear you may take it up and find the floor beneath as clean as when the matting was laid. It is by all means advisable to have a lining placed under it. This costs but 5 cents a yard and adds to both the appearance and the life of the matting.

You may get a pretty bamboo couch for $3.50, chairs at $1.50 each, and rockers at $3.25, with comfortable arm chairs in a novel triangular shape at $2. I would by all means get one of the redwood chests covered with bamboo. These come at $4 each and are so convenient for storing articles away from the moths. You might use your chest as a window seat and toss several Japanese crepe covered pillows on it. You may get a pretty writing desk for from $3.75 up, and a set of book shelves for as low as $1.25. A pretty library table with two drawers costs only $4.25, and you may have any number of small stands and tables at prices ranging from 40 cents up. At the Broadway shop where I saw and priced all these things, I saw a beautiful circular table with brass mountings for $2.50, and such pretty three-shelved fern stands for only $1.25 apiece, while music cabinets come at $4.25.

• •

The Whole House.

If you wish to go further and furnish your hall and dining-room and sleeping room as well in bamboo, you may find pretty and substantial hat racks as low as 75 cents, china cupboards with glass doors and several broad shelves for $8.50, dressing tables with swing mirrors at $5.50, bureaus at $10, and wash stands at $6. The most convenient shoe boxes I have seen anywhere are these bamboo-covered redwood boxes which cost but $2 and which, when closed, look like seats. Then there are the graceful settees which cost but $3.50, and the wide Roman seats for only $1.25; wall cabinets at 75 cents and less, and little foot rests as low as 25 cents each. For your curtains and hangings, get the pretty Japanese crepe in any colors you choose. It comes at 25 cents a yard and washes well.

• •

A Matrimonial Inducemnt.

All told, you can see from the above estimate that a four-room bungalow could be prettily and daintily furnished in bamboo for little more than $100. Add to this the necessary outlay for kitchen furniture and utensils and such other housekeeping necessities not included in the bamboo outfit, and it would be quite possible for a couple to set themselves up with very creditable household goods for less than $300. Think of it!

• •

Sweaters for Big and Little Tom.

Like Hamlet's ghost, the sweater simply will not down. Yesterday I saw in the bargain basement of a certain corner store, good, gray sweaters, with red borders and big white pearl buttons, of a size suitable for big Tom, at only 49 cents each. For little Tom there were some in similar style for 29 cents, so don't let the little chap fret any longer, mother, because he hasn't a sweater like the other boys.

• •

Educator Shoes and Suits.

While you are in this store buying sweaters, better take a look at the "Educator" shoes they offer for the youngsters at $2 per pair. The feet are so broad that there is plenty of room for the restless, wiggling toes of the most fly-away Buster Brown in existence. "We sell more of these than of any other style," remarked the girl in charge of that department.

Down in this same bargain basement were some splendid-quality Oxford ties in both russet and black, for women, at only $1.48 per pair. There was also a suit sale going on of tailored women's suits at $12.48—in all the popular novelty goods—in stripes and some in plain serges. It certainly pays to patronize the bargain basement.

• •

Here Was a Chance.

I have been watching for some time for some really good bargains in opera coats and long traveling cravenettes, shantung, silk or rubberized garments. Yesterday I discovered them. The first mentioned at a little shop up Broadway, where I beheld in the window two opera coats in broadcloth. One was in white, satin lined, with sage-green velvet collar and cuffs, and well tailored with silk military braid. The other was in Copenhagen blue broadcloth, cut with wide, full sleeves and trimmed with braid. Each was marked $16.50 and they were excellent value for the money.

The traveling and motoring coats I found at a certain high-class Broadway store. There was a rack of the regular $25 garments, and they were priced at exactly half. In the lot were some splendid cravenettes, steel-gray rubberized auto coats, pongee and shantung empire wraps. The fact that it was a rainy day gave excellent opportunity to the comparatively few women who ventured forth on shopping expeditions, and who were richly rewarded in these splendid garments at $12.50 each. I do not know whether any were left over for today or not. Better go see.

• •

Smooth Your Wrinkles.

A certain hardware store on Broadway always has in its windows a fine display of new and novel kitchen utensils. I never go past without stopping to look and inquire. Yesterday I saw some sleeve puffers which appealed to me as exactly the thing to keep our shirt-waist sleeves in order. When one wears a coat over her shirt waist it is bound to flatten and wrinkle the sleeves and these ingenious little puffers are just the thing to restore them to their pristine smoothness again. The puffer looks like nothing so much as a nickel darning ball—egg-shaped—mounted on a long rod. There is a clamp to attach to the table or window sill or whatever is most convenient, and a socket which the rod fits into. First you heat the ball, then drop the rod holding it into the socket which keeps it firm, and then slip your dress sleeve over the hot ball and press the wrinkles out.

• •

Flouncing Irons.

I saw, too, some fluting irons—practically the same sort that were in use years ago, and have now returned again to the market. These were on the same principle as a clothes wringer, only the rollers were crinkled to make the ruffles flute. Hot iron rods are inserted in the hollow cylinder rollers, and they are turned by a crank exactly like a clothes wringer. You simply run the ruffles through. These cost $4.50.

Then there were flouncing irons, too—long and slender and shaped like a pointed shoe. Some had asbestos tops with an adjustable nickle bottom and the slender, toothpick points were just adapted to run into the gathers. These come at 60 cents each. There were some of the small suit-case edition for use in traveling at 25 cents each.

• •

Measuring Spoons.

Handy sets of measuring spoons I saw at this same shop. They come in sets of three—for the quarter, half and full teaspoon measure and for the dessert and tablespoon. These handy little utensils cost but 15 or 25 cents, and save considerable time when the hurried housewife is mixing and compounding cakes and cookies, which require exact measurement.

• •

Under the Chimes.

In the window of a certain high-class Broadway jeweler I saw yesterday something very new and very smart in the way of a demitasse set for six. The quaint, long-spouted coffee pot and the half-dozen tiny cups were of clear and delicate white porcelain as dainty as the finest Haviland and were set in silver bands with cherry handles. There was an exquisite inlaid tray and six dainty silver spoons, also with cherry handles, and the whole elegant little outfit was priced at $67.50. For some favored woman of fortune, no more desirable Valentine gift could be chosen, nor none that would appeal more surely to the fancy of the average feminine heart.

• •

Fashion's Fancies.

A beautiful new hair ornament is the laurel leaf in enamel and frosty jewels.

Latest turbans are not so engulfing; they allow part of the front hair to be seen.

The latest French fancy in shoes is patent leather, with tan-colored tops and pearl buttons.

The deep cream color called café au lait and a pure chalk white are colors of the moment.

Some separate coats for dressy afternoon wear are entirely covered with "vermicelli" braiding.

One of the characteristic models of the present season is the coat with the fancy outline.

A peculiar feature of present-day fashions is the combination of thick and thin fabrics.

However extravagant styles may be in other ways, they are decidedly economical in materials.

The semi-princess dress is a style that looks well on either the slender or full figure.

A few of the white petticoats have a flounce embroidered in colored dots, pale pink and blue.

Toques have gained ground with remarkable rapidity, and are quite pushing out the larger hats.

A great effort is being made by tailors to keep the short-skirted tailor-made dress in vogue.

TO WELD LINK IN LONG LINE.

ONLY TEN-MILE GAP TO FILL UP TO MAZATLAN.

Col. Randolph Tells of Rapid Construction of New Harriman Road to Mexican West Coast Through Wonderfully Rich Country—Will not Parallel Phelps-Dodge Railway.

Another link has been completed in the great international system of Harriman railways and through Pullman service will be established between Los Angeles and Mazatlan, Mexico, via the Southern Pacific and the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railway, its Mexican extension, by March 1.

President Epes Randolph of the latter road, is in the city and states that only a ten-mile gap remains to be connected. Construction is in progress from both ends and rails will be joined within a very few days. The work will be extended to Guadalajara as fast as practicable and it will not be many months before trains will be running into that city.

"We have extended the line south from Guaymas to Mazatlan, practically speaking, and completed it as far north as Agua Prieta, and will continue the main line on into Douglas, following our original plans," said Col. Randolph, yesterday, "and ultimately will connect up between Courtland, into which camp we are now building, and Pearce.

"It is not our intention to parallel the Phelps-Dodge line from Nacozari to Douglas, as has been reported. One line is enough in that section and we are building railroads for business and not for amusement. It is true that we have a feeder leading to Nacozari, but this is not to be extended to Douglas nor has such a step been considered. Our main line to Douglas will not invade any of the territory reached by the Phelps-Dodge line."

Regarding work in Arizona, Col. Randolph stated that a force of 500 men and a large number of teams are at work on the extension from Pearce to Gleason and Courtland, which, he declared, have developed to such an extent that sufficient business is in sight to justify the line, which will be finished within thirty days. He denied that it was the intention to continue to Douglas, saying:

"Ultimately we will reach Douglas, this may be in sixty days or three years, but no definite plan has been reached."

Col. Randolph declared a tremendous business to be in sight for California in the rich country along the west coast and around Guadalajara, now being opened by the railroad. He is accompanied by his wife and will leave today for Arizona in his private car, Pocahontas.

The Men's Sweater Coats at 49c and the Calico at 3½c will make another stir.

H-O

The Truth in a Nutshell

Here's the truth about ordinary oatmeal in a nutshell—when you buy "rolled oats" or "crushed oats," rolled out flat and dried:—if you boiled them all day they wouldn't be cooked.

Oatmeal is only fit to eat when it has been steam-cooked by the H-O process—a patented process—which dextrinizes the starch in the oats, and gives you a rich, nourishing, easily digested oatmeal, ready for the table after ten minutes' boiling. A wholesome, delicious breakfast. Ask your grocer for H-O.

"I've got that want more H-O habit."

TRAFFIC'S TREND CHANGED.

Greater Volume Now Flowing from Northwest to Southeast, With Gulf Ports as Gateway.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The trend of traffic is changing radically and rapidly until it begins to appear as if in a short time the great volume of it would no longer flow between the East and West, but from the northeast to the southeast, and the great gateways for the foreign commerce of the country will be no longer a few towns of the Atlantic seaboard, but the numerous ports on the Gulf of Mexico.

It is some time since the change set in. It came silently and received little attention for a time from those most deeply interested. They failed to discern its significance until practically it had got beyond their control, and now that it has done so all they can do is to look on in astonishment not unmixed with alarm.

Fresh emphasis has been given to the change by the purchase by the Hill interests of the Colorado and Southern road for the Burlington. That purchase is regarded as an admission by some of the most experienced traffic men in the country that the change to which reference has been made not only has taken place, but in all probability will prove permanent.

These experienced traffic men are thoroughly convinced that, with the great increase of products following the rapid development of the northwestern section of country, easy lines of communication between it and the South and the Southeast have become an absolute necessity.

Attractive Booklet.

H. W. Porter, city ticket and passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, has received a copy of an extremely handsome booklet, which is being distributed throughout the East and Middle West by that road. It is profusely illustrated, the frontispiece in beautiful colors, and typical pictures of sunny California, bearing out the title "California, Winter's Summer Garden." Among the illustrations are some of Pasadena during the tournament of roses.

Coast Line Open.

Two trains were forwarded to San Francisco yesterday over the Coast Line, the first since the big land slide at Punta Gorda closed that route two weeks ago. Regular schedules will be resumed today by way of Santa Barbara.

LAWLER TO RETURN TODAY.

United States District Attorney Oscar Lawler will return home today from San Francisco. He has been attending to the government side of the appeal of the Santa Fé Railroad from the fine of $330,000 imposed by Federal Judge Wellborn, upon conviction of rebating. The railroad took the case to the Circuit Court of Appeal. There is no intimation as to when a decision may be expected.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA.

ONE DOLLAR IS ALL THEY GET.

HIGHWAYMEN RETURN TO SCENE OF PAST PLUNDER.

Held up South Pasadenan at Corner of Bank Street and Fair Oaks Avenue—Socialist Who Waylays School Principal to Beat Him Is Thrashed by Muscular Teacher.

Office of The Times, No. 38 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Feb. 5.—Encouraged by the success of their former venture, two men who tally with the poor description given of the pair who worked here about two weeks ago, held up T. J. Gifford at the corner of Bank street and Fair Oaks avenue, about 7:30 o'clock and escaped, after they had secured $1 and a bunch of keys. Gifford describes one man as tall, the other short. They stepped from behind a tree and one made him keep his hands elevated, while the other went through his pockets. Fortunately, he had left nearly all his change at home. He believes he will recover his keys. His home is at No. 1119 South Fair Oaks avenue.

Sergeant Sarigely and Patrolman Shelton, later arrested a man on South Fair Oaks avenue, who answers description of the smaller of the pair. They refuse to give out his name, or say anything about the arrest for fear the man's "pal" may take fright.

RETURN FROM EAST.

Chief of Police Favour and Constable Austin returned from the East last night, where they went a few days ago to take a man they arrested here on a forgery charge. They report bitterly cold weather in the central part of Kansas, and even as far west as Needles. They are glad to reach this city without being frozen, as they experienced a severe blizzard in Oklahoma.

TITLE TO PARK.

Should the Tournament of Roses Association sue the city and obtain title to Tournament Park, it might make illegal all the bonds sold by the city during the past three years. In advertising bonds for sale the city has mentioned that its assets include $48,000 for Tournament Park.

SOCIALIST IS THRASHED.

Believing that his boys were thrashed too severely by Principal Thompson of the Washington School, J. J. Hicks, who was arrested for speaking on the streets of Los Angeles, waylayed the pedagogue as the latter was on his way to school yesterday morning, and attempted to thrash him with a horsewhip. The athletic principal proved that his training had not been neglected. He at once clinched with the socialist, threw him to the ground and beat him severely before the police interfered.

The Hicks children have caused trouble in both the Lincoln and Washington schools, according to Superintendent Hamilton, and yesterday they provoked the ire of Principal Thompson. He punished the boys after school and Hicks tried to even the score.

WILL BE DELAYED.

Owing to the absence of Commissioner Hertel, it is probable the City Commissioners will be unable to reconsider the tree problem of Tournament Park at their meeting on Monday.

Directors of the Horse Show Association are planning to hold the show at Fiesta Park, Los Angeles.

VICTIM OF CIRCUMSTANCES.

Claiming that she unwittingly cashed the check of Miss Ella Wood, her friend, not knowing that there were no funds to the credit of that young woman in the bank, Mrs. C. H. Howard told such a straightforward story in Justice Klamroth's court yesterday morning that her friends and the court are convinced of her innocence.

Both the young women worked in a Pasadena store and while at lunch one day, Miss Wood asked Mrs. Howard to cash a check for her. Not suspecting that her friend had no funds in the bank, she willingly cashed the check. Her husband securing work in Azusa she moved there and Miss Wood shortly after left for Denver. The check was returned and Mrs. Howard's arrest followed. The case will be continued on Monday, but Mrs. Howard will probably be released on probation. The check was for $8.75.

MEETING TO DECIDE.

Supporters of the three men who are being asked through petitions to become candidates for Mayor are in favor of a meeting, at which one may be selected.

This policy seems the best for the men who are working for municipal water, as all three favor the purchase of the plants. The anti-water-bond faction is preparing to bring out a candidate.

LINCOLN CELEBRATION.

Both Pasadena High School and Throop Institute students will share in the celebration of the centennial of Lincoln's Birthday on February 12. They will attend the public meeting called by the ministers, which will be held in the First Methodist Church. Rev. Robert J. Burdette, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, Los Angeles, will be the speaker of the day, and Rev. Albert Hatcher Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city will preside.

TO TALK TO YOUNG MEN.

Rev. Matt Hughes, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will speak to young men in his church on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the meeting to be held under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A.

CARD PARTY.

About seventy guests of Hotel Green enjoyed a progressive card party in the spacious parlors of the hotel last evening. The arrangements were made by Mrs. George H. Lincoln of New York. She was assisted by her nephew, Hallett West, and by Miss Greenwood of Philadelphia and Miss Edith Heinrich of La Jolla, who passed the lone-hand markers. The score cards bore water-color sketches of Cupids driving butterflies, suggesting the approach of Valentine's Day.

The first prize for ladies, a silver and white gauze Turkish scarf, was won by Mrs. F. A. Holcomb. The second prize, a silver and cut-glass dish, by Mrs. Silkerson; the third, a silver tea caddy, by Mrs. Mack; the lone hand, a brass-covered writing pad, by Mrs. J. H. Holmes, and the consolation, a Japanese toy, by Mrs. Barth.

The first prize for men, a brass and crystal traveling clock, went to Miss Sutfield, who played a man's hand; the second, a silver card case, to Mrs. Chappelle, also playing a man's hand; the third, a leather-covered bridge set, to Mr. Litton, and the lone hand, a leather writing case, to Mr. Greenwood; the consolation went to Mr. Taylor.

There will be a dance in the Romanesque room of Hotel Green this evening. The usual sacred concert will be given by the hotel orchestra Sunday evening. A large private-car theater party will go down to Los Angeles, Tuesday evening, to see "The Red Mill." A masquerade party is one of the anticipated social events of the near future.

Among the arrivals at Hotel Green the past two days are Sarah J. Wyman, Westminster, Mass.; Mrs. Alice Palmer Mitchell, Meadville, Canada.; Mrs. W. H. Burritt, St. Louis, Mo.; W. P. Hazard, St. Louis, Mo.; Emil J. Henderson, San Francisco; George C. Lockwood and wife, Norwalk, Ct.; D. G. Gunn and wife, Banff, Canada; Mrs. Bigley, Mrs. Snider, Banff, Canada; Mrs. D. Salathe, Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ilsley, Middlebury, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chapin, Lebanon Lake, N. Y.; W. S. Fisher, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Mary F. Fisher, Denver; Downer McCord, Chicago; Mrs. F. C. Hick, New York City; Mary E. Bell, Mrs. J. A. Bell, Pittsburgh, Pa.; J. L. Swelger, Waterbury, Ct.; Charles F. Scott, San Francisco; A. V. Mann and wife, Muskegon, Mich.; Mrs. J. W. Grant, Miss Grant, Franklin, Pa.; J. C. Pettie, Miss Pettie, East Orange, N. J.; Sol Jokowski, New York; Mrs. A. E. Coleman, Mrs. R. T. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Stait, Chicago; Mrs. Philip C. Meyer, San Francisco; H. R. McLaughlin, Minneapolis, Minn.; O. F. Boughton and wife, Saratoga, N. Y.; Mrs. Agnes Mercer, Wausac, Wis.; Mrs. Frances Edwards, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Medill, Chicago; J. M. Lapp and wife, San Francisco; Edgar J. Sherman and wife, Boston; Miss Mary Manning, New York.

BRIDGE PARTY.

One of the largest functions of yesterday was the bridge party given by Mrs. Clayton H. Garvey of Palmetto Drive complimentary to Mrs. J. Albert Barnard, who has recently come to Pasadena to reside.

In the spacious drawingroom and reception hall tables were provided for the game. American Beauty roses, in tall vases and lilies of the valley in low moss-filled bowls adorned the rooms. After the games a collation was served in the dining-room, which was charming with American Beauty roses, lilies of the valley and ferns. All the table accessories were in soft crimson to correspond with the rose tint; silver candlesticks bore rose-colored tapers.

Those present were: Mmes. Lewis Farlow, Charles D. Callery, Walstein Root, George Gerald Guyer, Lawrence Newman, Robert T. Vandervort, Eben Clapp, Arthur Jerome Eddy, Freeman Ford, Harry Gray, Lawrence Huribut, John Lambert, Henry Vilas, Lloyd Macy, William McCay, Harry L. Thompson, J. Dawson Boyle, Henry T. Fuller, Edward Taylor, Helena Childs, Joseph D. Durand, H. I. Stuart, Henry H. Sinclair, C. F. Fairbanks, Mae Jerrems, Donald Jerrems, Frank Hawks, Tod Ford, Harrison L. Drummond, Frank McKee, Robbins B. G. Hodges, William R. Staats, H. Page Warden, Misses Jerrems and Auten. Mrs. Garvey will give a large five-hundred party today for another group of friends, also complimentary to Mrs. Barnard.

Mrs. John W. Hugus gave a luncheon yesterday at her home on South Grand avenue, in honor of Mrs. Edwin Eddy of San Francisco, who is her house guest. Covers were laid for Mmes. Fred Elmer Wilcox, William R. Staats, Harry Gray, Junius Brown, Charles D. Callery and Wellington Morse.

Mrs. Harlow W. Bailey gave a bridge luncheon yesterday at her home on San Rafael Heights. Early fruit blossoms were used in profusion as floral adornment, and in the diningroom Chetney roses and ferns decorated the table. Covers were laid for Mmes. Arthur A. Libby, H. Page Warden, Robert Pitcairn, Jr., Clifford Payson, Harrison I. Drummond, William Kerr, Tod Ford, Charles Crans Perkins, C. M. Tullock and Miss Florence Dwight.

FAREWELL DINNER.

Judge and Mrs. E. A. Armstrong, of Camden, N. J., who have been Marylanders for over a month, left for home last evening, via the Santa Fé. Manager and Mrs. Linnard, as a farewell, gave a dinner to them in the Maryland grillroom. Covers were laid for eight. The table floral decorations were orchids and maidenhair fern. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Linnard; and Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, who are on their honeymoon trip.

A party of about twenty went over to the Mason last night, in the Maryland special car, to witness "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." En route home, dinner was served on the car.

Among arrivals at the Maryland are Delbert Dinehart, Charles Stickles, Mrs. Charles Stickles, Miss Hattie Hoctor, Hudson, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Mask, Toronto, Can.; Tom Williams, New York City; W. E. Brothers, Jr., W. E. Brothers, Sr., Fred S. Kenfield, Chicago; J. R. Owens, Seattle; Mrs. John A. Bell, Mary E. Bell, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Melville E. Stone, wife of the president of the Associated Press, and Miss Stone, New York; Mrs. Clarence W. Simpson, Master Lewis L. Simpson, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Hunter, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. M. B. Bradley, Bay City, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ladd, Victor, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kahler, R. L. Baker, Jr., Des Moines, Iowa; A. C. Flumerfelt, Mrs. A. C. Flumerfelt, Victoria, B. C.; Mrs. F. A. Greenley, Miss T. W. Greenley, New York City; Mrs. W. St. John-Jones, the two Misses Jones, Cincinnati; Arthur Reynolds, Jeannette Reynolds, Des Moines; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gleason, Seattle; N. B. Durfee, Fall River, Mass.; William Bowring, Mrs. William Bowring, A. Bowring, Charter Oak; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perkins, Moorestown, Pa.

SAN PEDRO.

SAN PEDRO, Feb. 5.—The report of the customhouse for January, published today, makes an excellent showing for this port. During the month there arrived 120 steamers, 12 schooners and 3 barkentines, having a net tonnage of 91,334, and carrying in crews 3310 men. These vessels brought 38,857,000 feet of lumber, 24,110,000 shingles, 100,000 shakes, 12,843,000 laths, 34,517 rewood ties, 100 cattle, 2149 tons of grain, 789 tons of paper, 2396 tons of merchandise, 5000 barrels of fuel oil and 3528 passengers.

Domestic exports were 100 tons of sugar, 1440 tons of merchandise, 100,000 brick, 78,900 barrels of crude oil; 3733 passengers departed.

The foreign steamers arrived, with 4,318,000 pounds of nitrates, 465,950 pounds of sulphur, 1742 oak ties and timbers, 198 packages of saki, 2048 packages of merchandise, and 3,350,500 pounds of fertilizer. Foreign exports included 51 tons of asphalt and 39 tons of merchandise.

UNFORTUNATE.

FIRE CIRCLE AROUND GIRL.

SANTA MONICA CANYON MISS IS PAINFULLY BURNED.

Telephone Operator Who Was Afraid to Go Home in the Dark Marries Policeman Who Was Sent to Escort Her to Residence—Courtship Lasted Fortnight Only.

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 5.—Lou, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Reynolds of Santa Monica Cañon, was painfully burned at the breakfast hour this morning. The girl was assisting with the work in the kitchen when a cup filled with coal oil was accidentally upset on the stove. The flames shot up instantly, enveloping the girl and setting fire to her clothing as well as to the house. In the excitement that followed, she ran out of the dwelling, and before help reached her and the fire was put out, her body was burned from the waist to the feet. Her arms were also injured. The physicians say that while the wounds are painful and will make the girl an invalid for many weeks, no serious results are expected to follow.

B. Mills is here from Long Beach and has called a meeting of all persons interested in the organization of a local band. The meeting is to be held at the North Beach auditorium Monday evening.

There was much excitement this morning in the new oil field between Sawtelle and Beverly. At one of the wells being drilled on the Wolfskill ranch natural gas was encountered, and those who passed by on the electric cars were regaled with the sight of a shower of earth, rocks, smoke and steam.

ROMANCE OF THE DARK.

She was afraid to go home in the dark, and requested an escort from the telephone office, where she was working, to her home. The police department sent Patrolman L. L. Oakley. That was two weeks ago. The officer and the telephone operator had not met before. Last night they were married. The bride was Miss Letah Bradley, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. S. M. White at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ernest Vieweger, No. 1531 Seventh street.

ELKS DEBATE PROHIBITION.

Prohibition was the question debated by the Elks at their meeting last night. The discussion was brought about by the introduction of a resolution having for its object the prohibition of the sale of liquid refreshment at the Elks' clubhouse. The resolution failed of adoption.

Mayor Dudley is spending a few days in San Francisco.

Lawrence Berkley has been elected to the presidency of the High School student body.

The Santa Monica Choral Club has completed its organization, being a branch of the Santa Monica Women's club. Miss M. M. Dietrichson was chosen to the leadership.

SIERRA MADRE CHANGES.

City Attorney Resigns and Recorder Is Given the Post—Fillmore Likes Local School Building.

SIERRA MADRE, Feb. 5.—At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees held in the City Hall last evening James A. Madden tendered his resignation as City Recorder, and George B. Morgridge was appointed. Mr. Hass resigned as City Attorney and Mr. Madden was given the position.

The handsome school building is a source of civic pride. Three school trustees of the Fillmore district of Ventura county came to look it over yesterday with a view to duplicating it. They obtained plans and estimates and were well pleased with their visit.

LOOK FOR GOOD YEAR.

Real estate men are looking for a splendid year. With improved streets and the impending gas plant, and the many other improvements recently installed, a progressive class of people will be attracted here. Last year, in the face of the financial stringency, 103 new houses were built. Several new structures are now under way and others are planned.

S. R. G. Twycross reports the sale of a lot in the Monte Lardo tract to Los Angeles parties, who will build a residence thereon; a lot in the Cañon tract to Kansas parties, for a residence site; a lease of the house and grounds on Cañon avenue, belonging to Frederick R. Yerxa, to Mr. Lynch and wife of New York.

The A. N. Adams Realty Company has leased the Robinson cottage on North Baldwin to S. H. Wheeler and wife of Long Beach.

POMONA.

POMONA, Feb. 5.—H. J. Owens, who died at No. 957 Burlington avenue, Los Angeles, at the age of 72 years, resided here for a number of years. He was born in Albany, N. Y., but came here from Knoxville, Tenn., where he was a successful merchant. He leaves a widow and sister, Mrs. D. C. Whitten, who reside in Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held at the family residence, Los Angeles, Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. S. D. Thomson of the Independent Church of Christ, of which Mr. Owens was a trustee, officiating.

Public exercises commemorative of the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, Thursday afternoon. Rev. Dr. A. W. Lamport of Trinity Methodist Church will deliver the principal address.

Fred Barringer has sold his twelve-acre orange grove on Mesa avenue to J. Harris for $18,000, through the agency of C. E. Straight.

The annual banquet of the Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge was held this evening at the order's hall, a large number of members participating. The committee in charge was composed of Mmes. R. F. Gittings, Lloyd Clark, E. D. Huston and Messrs. Frank Clay and Fred Shaeffer.

DISINCORPORATION BLOCKED.

Belmont Heights Attorney Says Election for Purpose Cannot Be Legally Called Now.

BELMONT HEIGHTS, Feb. 5.—The citizens who have asked that a disincorporation election be called, and have presented a petition with sufficient legal signatures, find themselves blocked by the opinion of City Attorney Knight that no such election can be called in a city of the sixth class within two years of its birth.

Anticipating that this opinion will be given to the Trustees at their next meeting, it is probable that mandamus proceedings will be instituted.

LONG BEACH.

LEAK BREAKS EMBANKMENT.

CHANNEL IS NOW CHOKED BY QUANTITY OF MUD.

Harbor Project Delayed—Colorado Man, About to Go Home, Dies. Complaints About Shouting at Holiness Church—Citizens' Savings Bank May Be Reopened.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 5.—Through a leak that developed in the west wall of an embankment on the east side of the new harbor, just north of the Salt Lake drawbridge 200 feet of the embankbent were dumped into the channel and five large outlet pipes washed away.

The embankment formed part of a large enclosure, dyked on all sides, into which the dredgings were being run. The mud sank and the water returned to the channel through outlet pipes. The leak was discovered early, but before it could be checked, the embankment broke and thousands of barrels of mud and water poured back into the channel, choking it up and necessitating several weeks delay.

VACCINATION PROBLEM.

Superintendent Graham announced, this morning, that until otherwise notified, the students at the High School need not worry over the vaccination problem. He holds that they do not come under the classification of common schools, as applied to the grammar and primary grades. He wrote recently to the District Attorney relative to this view of the matter and having received no reply, assumes that it is the correct one to disprove this contention.

William H. Leavitt, of Colorado Springs, who has been visiting his son for the past six months, had made all preparations to return home but was taken suddenly ill, last night and died shortly after midnight of gastritis. He was 66 years old and leaves a widow and two children.

GARDENING FOR SCHOLARS.

The Y.W.C.A. intends to encourage practical gardening among the children of the public schools, and for this purpose vacant lots will be secured near the schools. The Board of Education will prepare these and furnish seeds and the water company will supply irrigation needed. Instructors will be furnished by the association.

Complaint was made to the police last night that the attendants at the Holiness Church on Fifth street and Atlantic avenue were disturbing the rest and quiet of residents in the neighborhood by their shouting and that the condition of a sick woman was rendered critical. The police hurried to the church, but the services were over. The pastor promised that the demonstrations would not be repeated.

CHAMBER'S OFFICERS.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce this morning elected these officers: President, P. E. Hatch; vice-presidents, W. H. Wallace and W. S. Pincoe; secretary, James A. Miller; treasurer, A. M. Goodhue. The president will name his committee later.

Depositors of the Citizens' Savings Bank, which was closed by the State Bank Examiners in the fall of 1907, met today at the auditorium, listened to the plans for the reopening of the institution and unanimously indorsed them.

The case of grand larceny against H. C. Scheurer, a wealthy citizen, has been dismissed by the District Attorney, it appearing that no theft was intended. Scheurer has been ill for several months.

FIEND POISONS DOG.

P. E. Hatch, president of the Long Beach National Bank, has asked the police to search for the fiend who poisoned his $200 dog last night. This was the third attempt to kill the animal, powdered glass being served in meat each time.

All "Badgers," whether visitors or residents, who are interested in the success of the Wisconsin picnic, to be held on Lincoln's Birthday, are earnestly requested to attend a meeting tonight at 2:30 o'clock, at the office of the Townsend-Dayman Investment Company, No. 125 East First street.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Redondo Lodge of Masons Holds Annual Meeting—Ellington Case Postponed Till Tuesday.

REDONDO, Feb. 5.—The local lodge of Masons held its annual meeting last night for the purpose of installing officers. Deputy Inspector Burke of Los Angeles was present. The outgoing Master, C. W. Grassel, acted as master of ceremonies. The meeting closed with the annual banquet to the outgoing officers. The new officers are: Worshipful Master, J. G. Stark; Senior Warden, D. J. Pitts; Junior Warden, A. J. Searing; Treasurer, Peter Brown; Secretary, A. M. Harter; Marshal, C. C. Mangold; Chaplain, Mr. Barnes; Senior Deacon, B. A. Furlong; Junior Deacon, George H. Anderson; Senior Steward, Ernest Heath; Junior Steward, Roy Culver; Tyler, Louis Von Rackerbrandt.

CASE POSTPONED.

The case of A. T. Ellington, a deputy sheriff at Moneta, charged with disturbing the peace of Mrs. Carrie Tucker, was called today in Judge Thomas's court. Deputy District Attorney Ford of Los Angeles was present for the purpose of prosecuting. The defendant's attorney, however, represented to the court that he had not had time to properly prepare for the trial, and the case was continued until Tuesday.

AWAITS COMMISSION.

The new postmaster, S. D. Barkley, expects to receive his commission within the next week or ten days. He was appointed on January 4.

HIS HANDS NOT CLEAN.

Land Suit Decided Against Santa Ana Man Opens Way for Saloons at Newport Beach.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 5.—By a decision in the Superior Court today, the clauses inserted in a large number of deeds to Newport Beach lots, prohibiting the sale of liquor on the property, are held ineffective. W. S. Collins brought suit against Frank Monaghan to cause to revert to him the title to a lot at the beach town on which C. A. Heim and John Cook ran a saloon in 1907-8.

Monaghan's attorneys declared Collins did not come into court with the clean hands required in a court of equity, that he, for a consideration of $25, had given a quitclaim deed to C. A. Barton for another lot, and had with Barton withdrawn the restricting clause so that the property might be used for saloon purposes. Judge West held that this act and other overtures made to and accepted by Collins showed his hands not clean. "The clause in the deeds," said the judge, "was made for the benefit of all the land of Newport Beach, yet the grantor removed the clause from one lot. Had it not been for the acts of Collins after the deed was made, the judge said the lot would have reverted to Collins."

E. E. Keech, attorney for the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company, today received from Assemblyman Richard Melrose, who is attorney for the Anaheim Union Water Company, copies of two bills introduced in the Assembly by Johnson of San Diego. They are Nos. 946 and 947. No. 946 provides that non-stockholders can compel irrigation corporations to deliver appropriated water to them, at rates to be established, and until rates are established at one and a half what is charged stockholders. Keech says that passage of the bill would make water companies common carriers. Newberry and the Irvine Company in Santa Ana cañon could compel the company to carry flood waters to them.

No. 947 provides that the capital stock of an irrigation company may be raised when three-fourths of the directors vote for it, and a majority of the stock gives its written consent. Keech believes that proposed law a good one.

Miss Elizabeth Spahn of Los Angeles applied for a marriage license yesterday afternoon for herself and H. O. Rock, both of Los Angeles. County Clerk Williams told her she would have to produce the man, the State law not allowing him to issue a license on the say-so of a woman. Miss Spahn telephoned to Los Angeles and at 8 o'clock last night Rock arrived, the license was secured and the couple were married by Justice of the Peace Smithwick.

STUDENTS IN COMEDY.

South Pasadena High School Ready for Mid-Year Entertainment Today. Waiting-room Desired.

SOUTH PASADENA, Feb. 5.—The mid-year entertainment of the South Pasadena High School will be held tomorrow. The students will present one of Rachel E. Baker's comedies entitled "Mr. Bob." The play deals with college life. The Boys' Glee Club will also take part.

People who use the long line Pacific Electric cars and transfer at the corner of Mission and Fair Oaks avenue, will petition the company to build a waiting-room at that point.

The regular monthly meeting of the Men's and Women's Bible School classes, taught by M. S. Lane and Mrs. M. R. Jones, met last evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Farrell, No. 1106 Meridian avenue. Refreshments were served and several new members joined.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met yesterday with Mrs. James Cairns, No. 311 Fair Oaks avenue. After an interesting programme, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Frost, missionaries at Mahoba, India, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McConnell, No. 1011 Monterey Road.

The Eastern Star will meet tomorrow afternoon to practice the initiatory services for Thursday next.

FAILS TO NOTICE STEPS.

Sister of Gen. Beveridge Seriously Injured While Shopping in Los Angeles—Is Past Eighty.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Agnes Patten of Evanston, Ill., sister of ex-Gov. Gen. Beveridge of this city and mother of J. A., George W. and Harry Patten, widely-known operators on the Chicago Board of Trade, was seriously injured in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Patten, in company with Mrs. Frances A. Roland, alighted from a Hollywood car on Fourth street and entered the side entrance of the Broadway Department Store. Passing through the book department she failed to notice the two steps leading down to the main floor, and fell on her left side and hip.

Temporary aid was given by Dr. Bozarth and she was taken to the Clara Barton Hospital, where Drs. Lasher and Campbell were called to attend her.

Mrs. Patten's hurt consists of a fracture of the left hip at the socket joint.

TROPICO.

TROPICO, Feb. 5.—W. R. Light, recently elected road foreman of the Tropico and Ivanhoe district, has assumed charge. He has a number of teams busy grading those portions of the various roads where the storm water makes inroads. Mr. Light is assisted by an advisory board appointed by A. M. Watson, president of the Tropico Improvement Association at the suggestion of Supervisor Fridham. This board is composed of Edward M. Lynch, W. C. Watches, H. W. Richardson, Fred Pittman and Charles Madsen.

Guy Maxwell, who recently graduated from the Van Der Nailein School of Mining and Civil Engineering, has returned to Oakland to accept a position as instructor in the department of metallurgy in the school. Mr. Maxwell graduated from Throop Polytechnic after completing his studies in the Tropico schools.

Man Who Passed Over Site of City Before There Was House on It Comments on Wonderful Advance. Christian Women's Board of Missions Holds District Convention.

REDLANDS, Feb. 5.—The City Tree Commission is looking to make of this city a "city beautiful," and at the same time contribute to the safety, convenience and economical administration of affairs. One improvement which is expected soon to be recommended by the Trustees is the use of cluster lights upon ornamental posts along the principal thoroughfares. The plan is to erect a post on each of the four corners of cross streets on Cajon and Orange, from the north line of the city limits to Summit avenue on the south.

There is much feeling over the matter, as it will become necessary to remove trees. Many say they would rather have the latter than the lights.

SEES TRANSFORMATION.

John Curr, a wealthy resident of Colorado Springs, with heavy interests in New York, who has spent many seasons in this section since before there was a Redlands, has arrived from the East with his daughter, Miss Curr, and they have taken apartments at La Casa Loma for the remainder of the season. In speaking of the changes Mr. Curr said: "A wonderful transform REDLANDS, Feb. 5.—The City Tree Association is looking to make of this city a "city beautiful," and at the same time contribute to the safety, convenience and economical administration of affairs. One improvement which is expected soon to be recommended by the Trustees is the use of electric lights upon ornamental posts along the principal thoroughfares. The plan is to erect a post on each of the four corners of cross streets on Cajon Street, from the north line of the city limits to Summit avenue on the south.

BEE TRANSFORMATION.

Jim Curr, a wealthy resident of Colorado Springs, with heavy interests in New York, who has spent many seasons in this section since before there was a Redlands, has arrived from the East with his daughter, Miss Curr, and they have taken apartments at the Casa Loma, for the remainder of the season. In speaking of the changes Mr. Curr said: "A wonderful transformation has taken place here, since I first visited Redlands, or rather the spot where Redlands now stands. I passed through this country with a party of friends in 1875, making the trip by stage. This was, of course, all the road had then. We camped over on the mountainside, where the Arrowhead Hotel now stands. While there was really little here at that time that could be called attractive, there was, of course, the glorious climate, which you will always have. Now you have this most beautiful city, and your rose is season in Redlands if you possibly help it. I was at La Casa Loma the first season it was open. Great improvements have been made to the hotel, not only in the interior arrangement, but in the service, and it is now all that could be asked and my daughter and I always enjoy our stay here."

Mr. Curr is heavily interested in-and-about Redlands, owning acreage and business property of much value.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Riverside district convention of auxiliaries to the Christian Women's Board of Missions held its annual meeting today in the Christian Church, Redlands. Delegates present from all the surrounding towns. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. R. Clark of this city, district manager. The morning devotionals were led by Daniel Trask of Rialto. Reports of the various auxiliaries of the district were made by Mrs. Anderson, Riverside; Mrs. Brown, Redlands; Mrs. Lowe, San Bernardino; Mrs. Smith, Rialto; Mrs. Bagby, Needles; Mrs. Clark, Colton. The principal address of the morning was made by Mrs. Hattie Brandt, a returned missionary from India, the subject was "The Children of India's." This afternoon Mrs. G. M. Webster of San Bernardino spoke on "Practical Auxiliary Work" and Dr. H. H. Guy of Los Angeles on "Our Own Centennial Enterprise." The address this evening was by W. G. Menzies of India. There were over 100 present at the meeting. The ladies of the local church served luncheon at noon.

IN A HURRY.

DIVORCED, SHE WEDS TOO SOON.

FREE OF ONE HUSBAND MONDAY MARRIES NEXT DAY.

In Ignorance of Law San Bernardino Woman Takes Another Partner Before Final Decree and Trouble Follows—Angeleno Fears Unknown Suicide Is Missing Son.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 5.—Mrs. Nora Leonard, who was divorced last Monday from Charles Leonard, on the following day married C. J. Hillyer of Ontario, at Yuma, and thereby stirred up trouble for herself. The decree issued to Mrs. Leonard by Judge Bledsoe does not become final for an entire year, and her marriage to her first husband is still in force.

This unpleasant development came to light today, when the court records were examined, and Judge Bledsoe was asked as to the nature of the decree. According to the laws of the State some one is guilty of bigamy.

Mrs. Leonard secured her decree on the grounds of desertion. She explained to the court that her husband, Charles Leonard, left her at Oakland two years ago.

According to the theory here, Mrs. Leonard and Hillyer are unintentional victims of the law, having supposed that the court's order granting her the right to assume her maiden name also gave her the right to take another husband, before she received her final decree.

MAY BE HIS SON.

C. W. Minniear of No. 1237 Thirty-ninth street, Los Angeles, was here today to investigate the circumstances surrounding the unknown man whose remains were found last Tuesday near Little Red Mountain. He fears that the unfortunate might be his missing son, Charles, who disappeared last September.

RUNS WILD.

Justina Arias ran wild in his home here last night, and before he could be controlled by the police, wrecked all the furniture and drove his mother and wife from the house. The cause of the trouble is unknown. He was sentenced to serve six months on the county rock pile today.

MINER MISSING.

F. W. Shonfeldt of the Soda Lake country, disappeared December 17, and his mining partner, a man named Reese, is here in search of him. According to Reese, the missing man had been to Los Angeles, and left there on the date mentioned, to return to the desert, but has not been seen since.

BUYS ORANGE GROVE.

Mrs. Martha Barnhill yesterday purchased a twelve-acre orange grove of Mrs. M. L. Ferguson, on the Colton Terrace, for $12,000. The trees are 16 years old. The present crop was sold for $4000.

FIFTY-YEAR FRANCHISE.

Ontario Grants It to Gas Company Which Also Plans Extension to Upland.

ONTARIO, Feb. 5.—The Trustees have granted to J. R. Anderson & Co. of Pasadena, a fifty-year franchise for gas mains here. The company expects to begin laying pipe by Mrach 1.

While the preliminary work is to be done by Anderson & Co., it is generally understood here that a stock company composed of Los Angeles, Pasadena and Ontario capital and known as the Ontario Gas Company, will be formed and assume control; in fact much of the capital needed for this enterprise has already been subscribed.

Plans have been drawn for one of the most up-to-date plants in Southern California to be erected at an estimated cost of $45,000.

Three hundred consumers have already signed for gas, which is an excellent percentage for this place.

The new company expects to be able to supply gas in five months' time and will lay twelve miles of pipe at once with an extension into Upland in the near future.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, Feb. 5.—The Chamber of Commerce has elected this board of directors: I. R. Schooley, Alfred Higgins, F. W. Grumm, G. W. Buchanan, L. M. Hartwick, Paul Kogler, P. W. Ehlen.

At a large public meeting held in the High School auditorium, short, practical addresses outlining the needs of Orange and vicinity were made by L. M. Hartwick, I. R. Schooley, D. C. Pixley, Rev. Mr. Jackson, S. J. Brai and F. W. Grumm.

The Orange gas works have been sold by W. L. Willetts to a company of three Los Angeles capitalists, who have filed articles of incorporation as the Orange County Gas Company, with a capital of $200,000, and Los Angeles as the principal place of business. The directors are D. L. Peters, M. L. Bellus, J. W. Kemp, E. B. Rhoades and J. S. Mitchell. The plant will be enlarged and the mains extended.

The congregation of the Episcopal Church has purchased lots one and two of the Bonnie Brae tract, corner of Maple avenue and Grand street, and a new church building will soon be erected.

Vern Barger will shortly construct a business building on South Orange street 60x90 feet, one story high. The floor will be of solid cement, the sides and roof of corrugated iron.

COLTON.

COLTON, Feb. 5.—A stranger who gave his name as Harvey J. Williams and represented himself as an attorney with a specialty of collecting bad debts called on several merchants a few days ago and as he could speak Spanish readily secured the patronage of one or two to collect from their Mexican debtors. The merchants gave him enough money to make attachments and have not heard from him since. They hope to.

John Merryfield has bought from A. J. Webb, a six-room house and lot on the corner of Eighth and D streets for about $2500.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Elgan, have as house guests Henry White and daughters of Coldwater, Kan.

A. S. Dickson is a Los Angeles visitor today.

BAY CITY.

BAY CITY, Feb. 5.—Hundreds of pounds of mushrooms have been shipped from this point this season. Some specimens measured as large as dinner plates. The Los Angeles market received the whole crop.

Workmen are busy beautifying the site for the Heilman home, which will stand on the brow of the hill overlooking Anaheim Bay and will have a view of ten miles of surf. Rare trees and shrubs are being set out, and landscape gardeners will make it one of the show places of the southern coast.

BURGLARS LOOT PICTURE SHOW.

TAKE FIFTEEN PAINTINGS FROM SAN DIEGO EXHIBIT.

Thieves Drive Team to Public Library and Load Canvases Worth Three Thousand Dollars and Leave no Clew—Auto Turns Flip-flops, Chauffeur Escapes Unharmed.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 5.—Burglars last night raided the exhibit of the San Diego Art Association, carrying off fifteen valuable pictures which were on exhibition at the public library, including two landscape paintings by old masters valued at more than $2000.

The total value of the pictures taken is in the neighborhood of $3000. The landscapes valued at $2000 were the property of A. R. Valentine, a San Diego artist. Three pictures, valued at $200, were the property of A. C. Fries, also a city artist.

Local artists give an exhibition every winter. On account of the number of people who daily visit the public library the pictures were hung there. Last night the thieves drove up to the building with a wagon, entered through a window, loaded the wagon and drove off. As there is no watchman at the library the burglary was not discovered until the janitor opened the building this morning.

AUTO SMASH.

Ray Keenan, chauffeur for Barbee Hook, had a narrow escape from death this morning. His forty-horse-power Packard touring car struck a curb, turned turtle, landing against a telephone post across the street, demolishing the post and car. Keenan came out of the wreck without a scratch. There were no other occupants of the car. Keenan was turning the corner of Fifth and Laurel streets at a sixty-mile gait when the car ran into the curb. Instead of going forward it flip-flopped backward and did not strike the ground until the telephone post on the opposite side of the street blocked its further progress.

NO TABER DECISION.

Contrary to the expectations of attorneys representing Sheriff Smith of Lincoln county, Nev., Judge Guy of the Superior Court this morning announced that he had been unable to reach a decision in the Homer G. Taber habeas corpus matter, because of lack of time. He stated that he would endeavor to reach a decision by Thursday of next week.

GRAND JURY BUSY.

The grand jury is still busy with the Sheffler murder case. Police officials and other important witnesses in the case have been before it, giving such information as they have been able to gather. Eugene Daney, Mrs. Duden's counsel, says she will make a staetment concerning why she shot Duden Sheffler "when the time comes."

DUNNEGAN GUILTY.

Augustine Dunnegan was yesterday found guilty of robbing Laurens Osteriund, a Swede, of $200. Dunnegan was twice tried in Superior Court, the first jury failing to agree. Upon the announcement of the jury's verdict yesterday Dunnegan's attorney filed motion for a new trial, on the ground that one of the jurors sat on the jury in the first trial. Dunnegan was convicted of influencing Osteriund into giving him a check for $200, promising the money was to be paid the Los Angeles County Hospital, where both were patients.

RIVERSIDE.

LATEST MODELS ARE EXHIBITED.

CITY'S FIRST AUTO SHOW IS ATTRACTING NOTICE.

Final Polo Match for Redmayne Cup Results in Victory for Maj. Ross's Team—Six Periods Necessary to Play Off Tie—Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 5.—Riverside's first automobile show opened today in the Glenwood Garage on Seventh street, with all the latest models of the tourist cars on exhibition in the same manner in which they were shown in Los Angeles last week. The unique mission garage, where the show is held, is gaily decorated in large flags of all nations, from the private collection of Frank Miller, flowers, palms and string of electric lights. The show is conducted under the auspices of Frank A. Miller of the Glenwood; Ed E. Miller, manager of the Glenwood Garage; Volney S. Beardsley, sales manager of the Auto Vehicle Company of Los Angeles, and others.

Twelve new Tourist cars exhibited at the Los Angeles show were brought from that city last night. One of the machines that is attracting special notice is the Tourist sleeping and dining car. A colored porter is in attendance to explain its details.

Among the attractions of the show is a $-.00 collection of trophy cups, all of which have been won by Tourist cars in contests of speed, hill climbing and endurance. The show will continue tomorrow.

FAST POLO MATCH.

In the final polo match played at Chemawa Park for the Redmayne cup, Maj. C. G. Ross's team defeated Frank J. Mackey's team by the close score of 4 to 3. The game was one of the fastest ever seen on the grounds of the Riverside Polo Club, and six periods were necessary in order to play off the tie of 3 to 3, at which the score stood at the end of the fourth period, the number scheduled.

On the winning team were Maj. Ross of Canada, Messrs. Hudson, Pattee and Redmayne of Riverside. The Mackey team consisted of Frank J. Mackey, Maj. A. M. Rotheram, H. Lett and W. L. Roberts. Mackey, in a series of brilliant plays, made all three goals for his team. Pattee made two goals, Maj. Ross one and Redmayne the final score that decided the match. F. A. Gill of the Ranelagh team was the umpire of the game, and Fritz Nave, timekeeper.

The fourth member of the Ranelagh team, who will play in the position of back in all of the English team matches in California, is expected to arrive in New York tonight from Ireland, and will proceed immediately to Riverside. He is to reach this city either Monday or Tuesday, and will begin practice for the coming tournaments at once with the Ranelagh team, the other members of which are Frank J. Mackey, Maj. A. M. Rotheram and F. A. Gill.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Drake, pioneer residents, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday. In honor of the occasion they were given a golden luncheon by Mrs. Gayden Cage at her home at Hidalgo Place, with old-time friends of the bride and groom of fifty years as the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake were married February 4, 1859, in Huntsville, Ala., where they spent their early married life. They moved to California in 1881, when Riverside was a mere hamlet, and have since been prominently connected with the development of the city.

ESCONDIDO.

ESCONDIDO, Feb. 5.—General Manager E. J. Garvin of the Escondido Mine Development Company, which recently took over the Surprise mine, twelve miles northeast of the city, has arranged for a test of some of the ore at the Cleveland-Pacific mill, in order to determine what sort of machinery to install for concentrating.

The Escondido Fruit Growers' Association is packing lemons and oranges in a new house, equipped with modern machinery. The main house is 118x158 feet, having a capacity of thirty cars of fruit, with a sweat house for two cars. The packing is of the fruit of the nine growers forming the association, representing 200 acres, most of which is in full bearing. The season's shipments will be thirty carloads of oranges and 125 of lemons. The marketing is through the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. Twenty carloads have been shipped this season.

The Republic of Honduras has secured judgment by default in the Supreme Court for $250 against the State of New York. This winds up litigation started twenty-three years ago, and the judgment represents a cash bonus which Honduras entered to secure costs when bringing suit against Marco Aurelio Soto, a former president of the republic, who died in Paris last year. Soto was for a while a resident of New York, and suit was brought against him to recover certain treasury funds.

DRINK PLENTY OF GOOD WATER

LOS ANGELES PEOPLE DON'T DRINK ENOUGH WATER TO KEEP HEALTHY

Also Tells Valuable Prescription Which Anyone Can Prepare. Try This at Home for Stomach Trouble, Kidney and Bladder Disease and Rheumatism. Times Readers are Given Full Directions.

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well-known authority. "The numerous cases of kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the drinking of water, nature's greatest medicine, has been neglected.

"Stop loading your system with medicines and cure-alls; but get on the water wagon. If you are really sick, why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach."

To cure rheumatism you must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder, and, most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions you can do no better than take the following prescription: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often.

This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, back-ache, or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Because one dealer who had large storage stocks of apples on hand saw fit to lower the price on several varieties to retail jobbers, other large handlers have seen fit to take up the matter and are threatening a cut which would bring belleflower apples back to $1 and even lower perhaps. The people benefited by the little factional fight are the retailers and consumers, as they had their apples down lower than they have ever before been at this season of the year. The only apples which are bringing anything like last year's prices are the snow apples, Jonathans, and one or two other highly colored varieties. The best prices quoted this morning were $2.50 to $3 on Colorado Jonathans and Delicious, a variety grown in the Oak Glen Valley, in the northern part of this State.

Eggs continue advancing. A temp of one cent yesterday was due mainly to rainy weather, which kept farmers from bringing in their product. Receipts continue light, along the 300 mark. Those reported were only eight more than that number. There were no eastern receipts of any kind and the local market is a reflection of conditions throughout the United States, eggs being scarce in all parts of the country.

Butter was unchanged with the chief demand centering around the second grades. Considerable cooking butter was sold on the market. Arrivals were 22,450 pounds. These arrivals were large and the market was firm on several varieties which started the week to a very unsteady condition. Cheese and staples advanced fractionally.

Potato dealers admitted the fact that the market on spuds has gone lower. Nearly all varieties sold from 10 to 25 cents a hundred lower on account of the large surplus stock which has been gathering at the railroad tracks for the past week. Arrivals yesterday were about fourteen cars, and the selling was slower than usual. Farmers are storing very little seed stock for the present, waiting until the rain is cleared up.

Onion receipts were the largest in several weeks, amounting to 6000 sacks, most of which came from Oregon. Among those was one car of Oregon Australian browns which were quoted from $2.25 to $2.50 per hundred. Utah and Idaho onions are arriving steadily. Pinks, limas and Lady Washington beans all have gone up. Small white beans are the most desired now, going from $5 to $5.50 a hundred.

The advance in flour has been confirmed by all the mills in the city, the new quotations being a 10 cents on the price of Graham, rye and other similar flours and meals, by different mills, resulting in a statement to the effect that the price on rye had declined, while as a matter of fact it has gone up in sympathy with the other flours.

Vegetable conditions were unchanged and there were scarcely sufficient to go around in several varieties owing to the good market. ing of the morning. Artichoke plants, which heretofore have been considered useless, have been shipped in from the North with instructions as to preparing them. They are to be cooked and dressed, the same as spinach or other greens.

BEARISH NEWS IN WHEAT PIT.

SHIPMENTS FROM ARGENTINA CLOSE TO HIGH RECORD.

Trade Nervous Within Narrow Range During Early Part of Day and Develops Weakness Late in Session, Owing to Heavy Selling Based on Bradstreet's Statement.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Traders in the wheat pit were confronted at the opening of the session by a wealth of bearish news, the principal feature relating to the shipments of wheat the last week from Argentina and Australia. The week's shipments from Argentina were nearly equal to the record-breaking figures of a year ago, being 3,584,000 bushels, while the movements from Australia were 1,760,000 bushels. Cables were also easy and the improvement in the Northwest was fairly liberal. These influences had a bearish effect during the early part of the day, but were offset to some extent by the continued excellent demand for cash wheat here. Trade was nervous within a narrow range the first half of the day, but the market developed considerable weakness late in the session, owing to selling inspired by the poor showing of Bradstreet's statement of exports from this country for the week. The total movement from the United States and Canada was reported at 1,813,600 bushels, compared with 4,780,000 bushels the corresponding week a year ago. The close was easy with May at 1.06⅝; July, 98⅜.

Mild and wet weather in the corn belt was the chief factor in the corn market and induced sufficient buying by shorts to hold prices firm throughout the entire day. The market closed steady, with prices a shade to 1¼c higher than the previous close, final quotations on May being 67⅛@67⅜, and July, 69⅝.

Oats were quiet and steady, prices fluctuating within a narrow range. At the close prices were unchanged to a shade lower, compared with yesterday's final quotations. May closed at 52 and July at 46⅜.

Although trade in provisions was dull, the market displayed moderate firmness owing to smaller receipts of live hogs than had been expected. Prices, however, made only slight gains, the net advances at the close being 2½c to 7½c.

Flour, firmer. No. 2 rye, 76; feed or mixing barley, 61@62; fair to choice malting, 63@64; flaxseed No. 1 southwestern, 1.51½; No. 1 northwestern, 1.41½; clover, 9.25; mess pork, per bbl, 18.87½@17.00; lard, per 100 lbs, 9.50; short ribs sides (loose) 9.37½@9.75; short clear sides (boxed) 9.75@9.90.

Grain Statistics.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Total clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 162,000 bushels. Exports for the week, as shown by Bradstreet's, were equal to 1,613,000. Primary receipts were 46,200 bushels, compared with 450,000 bushels the corresponding day a year ago. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 13 cars; corn, 234 cars; oats, 100 cars; hogs, 19,000 head.

New York Cotton Market.

[By Private Wire to E. F. Hutton & Co. Members New York Stock Exchange, No. 111 West Third street.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—For three days past, weather sharks and students of statistics, have quietly sold cotton on the theory that the week-end figures, and the week-end weather would cause a weakness in the market.

The drought was broken by rains over night in Texas, which were suggestive of relief and the week-end figures, while less bearish than expected, showed a rather full movement.

Our markets looked as if they would go a shade lower, but around the opening figures proved to be the lowest of the day and finally showed remarkable strength, all things being considered. While there is no rampant demand for the fall cotton at the moment, there seems to be no pressure to sell it, and unless the spot markets yield, further declines in futures do not seem likely, and it also looks at if every broker from Black Bay to the Golden Gate had orders to buy cotton on any sharp break. Today's tone was hardly justified by conditions, but the reported sale of 20,000 bales of dry goods to China proved to be more than the backbone of the market could withstand during its last half hour.

Dick Bros.' cotton letter follows: "Cotton was irregular and dull, with a sagging tendency in the forenoon and enough bull support and covering to give a moderate rally. Spot markets were generally dull and easier and holders inclined to make concessions when offers were received from the mills. The intersight for the week was 247,000 bales, against 346,000 last year. The total for the season is 9,586,000, against 9,840,000 last year. If no more is brought into sight from now on than was received during the same period from last crop of 11,600,000 bales last year, the total commercial crop would be about 11,760,000 bales. The visible is the largest on record and the invisible, or the amount of cotton held by the mills, is also the largest on record. The long interest in futures is also very large, considering the size of the market."

The New York Commercial says: "Some people seem to think the big bulls are playing a game, and that they have temporarily let the drawn their support from the market for a purpose. While the people are buying cotton goods were advancing. All kinds of cotton goods are being bought at stiff prices, and through all departments of the dry goods market, however does not show the strength of the goods market. There is much interest on foot in connection with the Memphis-Chicago-Wall Street combination, that they may short will start to cover. It increased by reports that Liverpool people were buying, in effort on the part of any one to support the market. The market is being allowed to look after itself. It seems that most of the buying orders came from commission houses."

The Journal of Commerce says: "The chief influence in point of contrast to comparative slowness of trade and the absolute dullness and uncertainty of speculation. Also, many persons are disappointed at the continued largeness of the receipts. Yet there are bulls who say that not one jot of the confidence in the future of cotton has been destroyed from time to time. Bulls bank on a big consumption and a moderate crop, a crop not much exceeding 13,000,000 bales. Bears on consumption of equal amount or more. Bears think crop estimation is to be 12,500,000 bales and the crop 12,000,000. In 14,000,000 bales."

Boston Copper Market.

[Furnished by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchanges, Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.]

BOSTON, Feb. 5.—The market today was very broad, active and strong, and the buying seemed to come from all quarters, influenced mainly, no doubt, by the settlement of the Calumet and Hecla and Osceola suit. Royalty seemed to be in great demand. There was a rumor that this stock was being bought by people identified with Calumet and Hecla. The market had a very healthy tone, acted well and showed every evidence of a further advance. Following were the closing quotations on the Boston Stock Exchange:

LOOKING AT VANCOUVER.

Dr. Logan's Thirteenth Year Over First U. P.

After a most successful year as pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city, Dr. J. Q. A. Henry contemplates making a change. His pastorate here has resulted in bringing hundreds of new members to the church, which now has more than 900 on its roll.

Dr. Henry will return this morning from Vancouver, B. C., where he went in response to a unanimous call from the First Baptist Church of that city to become its pastor. He merely went to look over the field, but he gives out that he has not reached a final conclusion, and it is thought probable that he will go to the north.

This will be a serious blow to the First church of Los Angeles, which has been afflicted with many changes of pastors in recent years. Dr. Henry is a strong, aggressive preacher, a real "live wire," and has made his way to the top of the column of strong preachers of the city during the short period of his residence here.

He sends word that the field in Vancouver is one of the most promising for a "wise, energetic and constructive campaign," and that he will have an important statement to make to his congregation tomorrow morning.

DR. DAY'S PERPLEXITY.

LIKELY TO STAY WITH CHURCH.

Just what Dr. William Horace Day will do about the presidency of Pomona College, which position was unceremoniously laid at his feet last week by the trustees of that institution, cannot be stated to a certainty this morning. Reading between the lines, it would appear that he will act in accordance with his first judgment, as indicated in his telegram to The Times from Chicago, where he was intercepted by a message telling him what the trustees had done. He said at that time: "I do not see how I could even consider it," but up to the present moment he has given no decisive answer. He says he will do so on Sunday morning, at the First Congregational Church, of which he is the popular pastor.

Dr. Day said yesterday, though naturally very diffident about saying anything that would foreshadow his announcement on Sunday morning:

"When I sent that telegram from Chicago, everything was absolutely clear in my own mind, but after it was presented to me on my return home on Monday night, some things appeared in a different light. It is one of those things that one cannot but feel grateful for, and yet one that he always feels sorry has been presented to him. I want to do the right thing, for it means so much to me, and the only way to do that is to do it in the spirit of duty. After the most careful thought, I decided to lay the whole matter down for a couple days, endeavoring in the mean time to not even think about it, and at this moment I am not clear as to what my answer will be, but it will be made in a letter addressed to the trustees and read to my congregation on Sunday morning. I highly appreciate all that has been said of me in connection with the offer of the presidency, and am grateful for the kindly expression."

On Sunday evening he will take for the topic of his sermon, "The Face of the Master," and will illustrate it with many portraits of the Savior, from famous pictures by the old masters.

THIRTEENTH YEAR.

DR. LOGAN'S LONG PASTORATE.

Rev. W. W. Logan will celebrate the thirteenth anniversary of his pastorate of the First United Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Within this time the church has grown from a small mission to a strong and influential congregation, resulting in the erection of the splendid church edifice, now occupied, at the corner of Ninth and Figueroa streets, and two new congregations have been formed from it. Not a single official member of the church was an officer thirteen years ago, and only one of them was a member of the church at that time.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS.

HEAD OF IMMANUEL MOVEMENT.

Rev. Elwood Worcester, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Boston, and father of the "Emmanuel Movement," will deliver two addresses in this city tomorrow. The first will be at St. John's Church in the morning, and he will be at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral in the evening. These will be the only opportunities to hear Dr. Worcester in this city as he will leave for the East on Monday morning.

"Brains" is the title of an address to be delivered to men only in Temple Auditorium on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 by Dr. Henry Stiles Bradley of St. Louis. The music will consist of singing by the Euterpean Quartette and the Y.M.C.A. Glee Club, and music on the saxophone by Prof. Lefebre.

Dr. William T. Grenfell, a missionary doctor, who has for years been a worker among the fishermen of the North Atlantic Coast, will be in this city for a week during the latter part of the present month. He will speak in the First Congregational Church on the evening of February 21.

Dr. Henry Stiles Bradley will preach in Trinity M. E. Church, South, tomorrow evening, instead of in the morning, as previously announced.

Prof. J. G. Rodgers, who is delivering daily lectures at the Y.M.C.A. on the subject of religion from a scientific standpoint, will lecture in the First Methodist Church on Monday evening.

Dr. Locke will continue his series of sermons on "If Christ Should Come to Los Angeles," Sunday evening, when he will take for his topic: "Would He Sow the City with Salt?"

Dr. Robert J. Burdette will preach on "The Emancipator" on Sunday night in Temple Auditorium, and the choir will sing patriotic songs. The whole service will be commemorative of the Lincoln centenary.

Rev. Thomas S. Barbour, who has just returned from the Orient, will address the Baptist preachers' meeting in Berean Hall on Monday morning. The public is invited. He will be entertained at a banquet that same evening by the Baptist Social Union, at the Hotel Greene, Pasadena.

The Jewish Ahabath Society will hold a debate on Sunday evening in Foresters' Hall, No. 107 North Main street, at which the subject will be: "Are the Jews a Nation, or Only a Religious Sect?"

Rev. A. C. Smith will speak at the vesper service in the Young Women's Christian Association on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All women and girls are invited.

William Murphy will speak as usual at the gospel temperance meeting in Blanchard Hall on Sunday night. There will be a great rally of pledge signers and a fine musical programme.
